Nancy Wynne Talks of People and Places—Mr. Austin Leaves General Thayer's House—Plans Already for Out-of-Door Fetes—Bobbie Literally Obey

Did you know that Mr. Richard Austin has leased the Russell Thayer house at Twenty-second and Locust streets for the coming winter?

Who has been visiting Dr. and Mrs. R. J. Moran of Johnson street, is now in Newark, N. J., where she is staying with Mrs. William Trost, of Morris street, who will give a bridge luncheon on Thursday, March 30.

Lots of persons have been saying that Mr. and Mrs. Rayburn Clark Smith, of Villanova, are going to give a party for their two daughters, Josephine and Elaine, during the spring holidays when so many other parties are being planned to be given on Thursday, March 30, is really a small informal party that Josephine and Elaine and some of their friends from Baldwin's School will give up and for which Mrs. Smith is letting them use her house.

Would you believe that arrangements are already being made for the Devon Horse Show at the Albion John's place in May and there's the In-door Horse Show, and this year there's to be an American Legion Horse Show, too, you know, and the Devon show around the end of May and then the Arlington fete which is usually the latest of the outdoor parties and is held on the first Tuesday in June, if I am not mistaken, at the Huntington Valley Club.

The Show Committee of the Devon County Fair and Horse Show includes Dr. Tom Ashton, R. Rulith M. Carpenter, Isaac H. Clough, Jr., and William H. Wanamaker, Jr.

The Algeron Clapps have another baby; a little girl it is, and she is called Nancy. Anne Jefferys Clapp, Nancy is a most devoted little mother and would quite a picture in seeing her first baby about in its coach at the shore last summer. She wears such picturesque clothes and such exquisite soft colors I always find her delightful to look at. It took her a little while to be now about a year old, was a boy, but I am not perfectly sure. The Clapps live at 1808 Walnut street.

Bobbie is going to school and he is learning fast and well. Bobbie is a seven-year-old person who has been taught to be very obedient and he believes absolutely in doing just what he is told. Sometimes, of course, he is not quite an angel and equally sometimes he misunderstands a bit, as on occasion recently when one of the other little boys in class was rather fresh to Miss M., who teaches them. Miss M. looked at the little boy with displeasure and remarked to the class: "He's a very rude little boy, and ought to be put down." And nothing loathe Bobbie straightaway put him down, by planting his small fist in the other boy's midriff and having "Pat" him, held him down by sitting on his chest.
