"It was great to see old Fletcher working there at shortstop. The old boy still knows how to fight and play the game. Rapp is a good man at third, and you know what Williams and Leboureau can do. To me, Parkinson looks like the weak spot of the club. He was in three double plays against us and looked fairly good in all of them.

The Athletics will break camp here and sullivan will start the barnstorming the catchers, and Roth, Rohwer, Yadusky, Llewelyn, Stout, Larsen, Huntzinger and one other flinger probably will compose the hurling staff.
