Nancy Wynne Tells of Chicago Brother Hearing Philadelphia Sing—She Speaks of the Committee Class Meeting Tonight in Academy Foyer

THIS radio business is really wonderful, you know. You tune your receiver to the given wave length and you "get it," and if you don't it'll go over you and somebody else "get it."

HAVE you ever happened to see small Betty Donner dance? She's the ten-year-old daughter of Mrs. George Madden, Mrs. E. E. Bayard Bowler, Mrs. D. Moreau Barringer, Mrs. Percy H. Clark, Mrs. B. Franklin Pepper, Mrs. George Stuart Patterson and Mrs. John Hampton Barnhart.

THE spring vacation meeting of the Saturday Evening or Committee Dancing Class will be held this evening in the foyer of the Academy of Music, and there will not be any dancing.

I HEAR there is to be a most interesting feature at the Charlotte Cushman Club annual benefit matinee this year. It's to be held one day next month, and about twenty-five or thirty prominent women have been asked to impersonate some of the great actresses of the past.

MARY LOUISE is a frequent visitor next door. And very often she comes home with cookies or a stick of candy. Mother is anxious to bring Mary Louise up properly, and so she carefully instructed her never, while visiting Mrs. T., to ask for anything to eat. The other afternoon she came running home with a piece of candy in one hand and a jelly sandwich in the other.
