

ph Perril, twenty-four years old. 17 West Penn street, Germantown ds in right arm and left side. Fed-

Zanghi's troubles began in January

"Hello, pop." said young Weaver in Pennsylvania Dutch when he saw the "wild man" in his cell at Doylestown. and they were living in West Berlin, N.

out truth. Holds Strike No Certainty

tary to the recent note from Secretary Some of the leaders of the coal miners of State Hughes concerning the cost left New York when Mr. Lewis started of the American troops of occupation dumped 350,000 gallons of wine, beer and whisky into the Chicago River while several thousand persons on the bank watched the performance. The liquor was ordered dumped into the river by Prohibition Director Gregory, despite the fact that Director which gave way when investigators dug up amazing facts about his regime. McConnell insisted today that he had been the victim of false statements. He is glad, he said, that persons who made uts must now prove th McConnell declared he was in the least nervous or worried. Among those indicted for conspiracy to defraud the Government in what is said to be one of the biggest rum scandals yet unearthed are Major Samuel B. Wolfe, former Assistant Director, with headquarters in Pittsburgh, and Jacob Slonaker, former head of the prohibition agents in this city.

al garage employe. John Boydra, fouty years old. De-rolt, one of the burglars, shot in ab-Sloan was taken to Misericordia Hospital. Perril and Boydra were taken to University Hospital.

Watchman Begins Battle

Shortly before three o'clock, Sloan tteed three men trying to force a war window of the rectory. He ap-"Throw up your hands," he ordered despite the odds against him. The burglars dodged behind stone piland opened fire on the watchman. an backed away and the men flee fown Forty-seventh street. The watch-man pluckily followed, firing as he ran. a block away the fleeing men urned on Sloan and opened fire again. He fell to the sidewalk with two The men fied to the Pennsylvania ailroad tracks below Woodland ave-aut, at the point where the Octaroro branch turns off from the Washington ine. They crossed the tracks near ine. Atter the nurder, I called him a name, jumped ine. They crossed the tracks near ine. Atter the nurder, I called him a name, jumped ine. They crossed the tracks near ine. Atter the nurder, I called him a name, jumped ine. Atter the nurder, I called h Jurphy and Detective Hartman, of the ennsylvania Railroad police. The robbers did not stop when ordered, but opened fire on the detectives. Then retreated from the tracks and I was nine to get money so we could lown a steep embankment, toward a umber yard, where they sought refuge eat, and he used to beat me when the behind the piles of wood. Fight at Garage

Just a few yards from the scene of, en employes, including Perril, joined the fight and arrived just as the paiman's ammunition was exhausted. The garage workers, some of and she was coming Last to identify whom ullet in the abdomen about the same him. Boydra Perril was shot down. Boydra was found lying on a bench the rear of the lumber pile. "I'm

"I'm he said, "send me to a hos-Patrolmen removed the two wound-men while other garage employes, enforced by more patrolmen, connued the chuse. The men managed to dodge among trees and escaped back P.)-Captain Roald Amundsen, noted

Bandit Tells Story

Arctic explorer, who returns to New York from a visit to his home in Nor-Lieutenant Boston, of the Thirty-tecond street and Woodland avenue Mation, and a sound of police ation, and a squad of police were been to scour the neighborhood in the bope of finding the bandits.

dra was questioned at the ho by Lieutenant Belshaw, of City Hall, the wounded man said he arrived here resterday from Detroit. He said he Merday from Detroit. He said he me here to meet another man from ew York and had planned with him a t whisky robbery. They were to have at a third man, but he failed to ap-

"We were here and up against it," and Boydra. "When we found that the other fellow had turned us down passengers. the other fellow had turned us down be decided to pull off something else. We looked all around and then went we toked all around and then went "We saw the rectory next to the big thurch. It looked peacefu, and quiet. The neighborhood looked quiet and ready for a job. We decided to try the rectory and get away with some of the stuff inside. We only got about as far as the window. The watchman was a the job. The rest you know all Tex Rickard will take the stand Mon-day to defend himself from the charge a the window. The watchman was fieldt. This announcement was made by fieldt. This announcement was made counsel for the sports promoter today after he hud been taken from the Tombs to the Sheriff's office for a conference with his iswyers. RKAL ESTATE OFFERINGS ARE Sa available. Read Classified Real Cassification-pages 17, 18, 19 and Hecox simply stared at the motor-an. J. Then Zanghi was charged with the Monday. Scores of mine officers, in-murder of a policeman and Anna left cluding many from Pennsylvania, will "Hello, Pop," the other said again English. "Walls, a line" south Fifth street. Zanghi was ac-will occupy the few days remaining man. in English.

or the red barn?"

Asylum.

husband.

AMUNDSEN PLANS TO FLY

From Girl's Charge

FROM N. Y. TO SEATTLE

in English. "You're a liar," promptly returned the old man. Then he added, "Who are so the went to the Municipal Court a strike which will outrank in magni-you looking for?" "For you, dad." answered Weaver. There she learned that on July 19. "You're my father. I know you by 1921, her husband had married Peggy sour eyes and the scar on your face." McMichael, and was living with her your eyes and the scar on your face. "The man you are looking for," said Hecox, "was he born in the log house said in West Berlin.

Anna called on Peggy, and in less there is no strike, and while there is than a week their husband was before a possibility that there may be no than a week their husband was before a possibility that there may be no still it contains two errors of fact-the court in Camden, to answer the strike." he said. "The miners have learned that noth- first, France has not been fully reim-"That settles it." said the motorman. "He knows about the loghouse bigamy charge. Peggy went home to answer the bigamy charge. Peggy went home to her parents at 2733 South Colorado street."

After the younger man had turned Today in the magistrate's court the way a brother-in-law of Adam Weaver wives showed an affection for, each Today in the magistrate's court the also declared that Hecox was the man. other, but met Zanghi's stony gaze with looks of scorn. Recalls Old Beatings

"If I could have got at him I'd have beaten him up." said the motorman. "My God, the beatings my father gave "Never Again," Says Peggy Peggy, who is a pronounced blonde. summed up her opinion in a few em-phatic words as she rested her arm af-eleven of us. He never got a doctor for us, or for my mothr when we were paradise hat I am wearing were bought by him. And he took me to Chicago on our wedding trip. born. Just before the murder he threw cheap skate, and he's just a lamp at her. He wouldn't work to

"He's no cheap skate, and he's just as good looking as he ever was. But I'm through with him, after what has near Pittsburgh. I think too much of Anna happened to go back to him." Anna, who is a striking brunette, appeared on the market.

Mrs. Adam Weaver, who was aragreed with Peggy in nearly every derested after the murder for scalding a deputy who tried to arrest her hus-tail. "After he got in trouble over the Building, and offered to sell a bond. murder," she said, "I had to leave him. The bond was recognized and the post-Then he didn't come for me when he office quietly notified. A postal inspec-tor but the man under arrest. band, is in the Norristown Insane murder, The younger Weaver believes she could identify Hecox as her was acquitted, and he didn't seem to tor put the man under arrest. care for me any more."

Will Use Plane Purchased for New This Time It Goes All the Way Up to Wilkes-Barre, Where

He suid his name is Samuel Kauff-Chief of Police Rhoades, of Quaker-Both wives were afraid that Zanghi man, but refused to give an address, would attempt bodily violence against Postal authorities will endeavor to trace them if he was allowed his freedom. his connection with the bond, or Cleveland and will not return until in Germany.

The note amplifies some of the points dealt with in the original communica-

Paris, March 25.-(By A. P.)-Sir Robert Horne, Chancellor of the Brittude any other ever declared in the past ish Exchequer, has arrived here to 19. in the turbulent history of coal mining. ergy Mr. Williams was not disposed to confer with Charles De Lasteyrie. French Minister of Finance, on the think that the strike is a certainty. "It is idle to talk of violence when ment for the costs of occupying the Rhineland.

ing is gained by violence, and we would be glad to be assured that the coal bursed for her army of occupation : operators have been convinced of that. The truth is, if there is trouble in the second; the Allies did not wait until March 11, 1922, to divide the first bilcoal regions, it will be caused by the lion marks paid.

ARREST MAN WHO OFFERS Arrives in New York to Sift Death STOLEN BOND FOR SALE of Model in Boston

Authorities Tracing Possible Connection With Murder and Robbery Postal inspectors here believe they may have in custody the slayer of J. L. McCullough, a railway postal clerk who of Pauline Virginia Clark, indignantly denied today that her daughter had committed suicide at the party in her Back Bay apartment. She first learned United States Attorney T. Henry Walthe details of her daughter's death was murdered more than a year ago yesterday from Jamaica.

At the time $2500 in securities were stolen, and lately some of them have Mrs. Herrick announced that "would retain an attorney and see that the affair is "thoroughly sifted."
Mrs. Herrick said that she had received a letter from her daughter just before she sailed telling of her proposed marriage, although the letter did not mention of the United Mutatineldent and the indictment of McConnell and others to mention of the Walaut includent and the indictment of McConnell and others to mention of the Walaut includent and others to mention of the Walaut includent and the indictment of McConnell and others to mention of the Walaut includent and others to mention of the Walaut includent and the indictment of McConnell and others to mention of the Walaut includent and others to mention of the United Walaut includent and others to mention of the United Walaut includent and others to mention of the United Walaut includent and others to mention of the United Walaut includent and others to mention of the United Walaut includent and others to mention of the District Atorney's office unit.
Mrs. Herrick said she did not know Larsen, who was later found a suicide by a draught from the same poison.
"I doubt if any comment is wise, who were interested only in the same poison." Today a would retain an attorney and see that Catharine streets, mulatto appeared at the office of Red-man & Co., in the North American that killed the young woman, nor did she know Mr. Wharton. HORSES RUN INTO ENGINE Runaway Team Badly Hurt and Both Were Shot—Driver Escapes A pair of horses drawing a wagon belonging to the Department of Public Works took fright at a Reading Rail-way shifting engine at Huntington and North American streets today, broke through the safety gates and dashed into the engine.

George Hellein, of 2021 Blair street, was driving the team. He jumped from the wagon after it had crashed through the gates and was uninjured. The horses' legs were broken and they

FIREMEN WEEP AT DEATH

One Who Announced Betrothal Week Ago is Killed

New York, March 25.-(By A. P. -Firemen attached to a Brooklyn engine company, wept today as they fought a small blaze because they knew The nine other contestants who won that Frederick Brandt, one of the most popular members of the company, had received fatal injuries while on the way

Monday: Unsettled, warm and showery at be-ginning: fair and cooler thereafter un-til Friday and Saturday, when it will stain become unsettled with a proba-lity of above

Haynes, at Washington, had suggested by telephone that it would bring undesirable publicity and present too esteptations a display Conference Discusses Whisky Hosiery Dealer Pays $2.50 for

Scandal and Ousting

of Walnut

LIQUOR COMMITTEE NAMED AUCTION DRAWS A CROWD morrers and other moves to delay trial

Sarah Clark Herrick, mother The McConnell liquor scandal and the

SHOWERS IN THE OFFING

nut were discussed with great interest the details of her daughter's death when she arrived in New York harbor yesterday from Jamaica. "Pauline had too much to live for." she said, "and was thoroughly happy." which is being held in the Wharton

she Memorial Church, 1/01y-fourth and

Lounge on Which "Jerry"

Reckitt Lay

Water- West of them were interested only in by a draught from the same poison orn. I doubt if any comment is when. Most of them were interested that killed the young woman, nor did

R. Lees, 805 Walnut street. She Max Meshare and Joseph Tito. Harry Shaparo, 327 Winton street, made several purchases.

The Master of Man An intense story of an extraordinary sex problem Begins Inday on Page 6

"That's My Answer," Says Coles

"That's my answer to all the attacks that have been made on this office," nited States District Attorney I nited States District Attorney Coles, as he handed out the long list headed by McConnell's name. "There's noth-ing more to say so far as Mr. Walnut's charges are concerned. The Grand dury has answered for me." Mr. Walnut took the position today that the indictments justify his stand.

"It was through my efforts that the jury went ahead," said he. It is expected that some time will dapse before the defendants can be brought to trial. * The usual crop of deare expected by the defendants.

A crowd of curious persons surrounded the blood-stained couch in the offices of the Rosier Advertising Agency, 1314 At the same time that the Grand win Black, a hosiery dealer, 53 North that he had attempted to "sidetrack" ef-Third street, who announced that he forts being made to bring the conduct

Jacob Slonnker, Robert J. Gottfried, Harry C. Daley and Robert McCarter,

Harvey , Lee Kearns, John Kearns, ny Mosolino, Charles Haemov , nd John Dougherty, Bail was fixed at $2000 for all the we want to jump into that sort of criticism. Remember that Mr, Wal, nut's party is not in power at present -that may have been the real cause of this removal." The Rev. Charles M Boswell, who is Continued on Page Two. Column Three LEGLESS MAN ARRESTED Charged. With Begging as He Sold Pencils From Wheel Chair Harry Shaure 227 Winton street.

a legless man, who sells neared from a wheelchair, was arraigned before Mag-istrate Coward today, charged with begging on the streets. Shapiro said he has a family of seven from a charitable organization. He was held for a further heaving. While McConnell is named as being actually in the conspiracy, the actual applications and knowingly permits to purchase liquor with the intent to defraud the United States Government. The indictment sets forth specific dates on which these permits were issued.

The charge is that Slater, Wolfe and Benner, with McConnell's knowledge, signed the director's name to permits for the withdrawal of whiter, permits being used later by members of the "rum ring." defendant" are named as "houst future, Mr. Lance is a civil engineer and Mr. Lance is a civit engineer and works with his brother John. Reckon after he heard the thrilling news not very much work was done for that day at least. • Life is bound to settle down into Life is bound to settle down into more or less of a routine, and it takes little bumps, like a hundred dollar check, to knock a fellow into realizing that things aren't all wrong, after all. were shot.

With a wife and a baby giri iour years old, which makes two wimmen in the family, we imagine that it will not be a very difficult job to dispose The check. places on the ballot are:

Continued on Page Twenty, Column Four

Egg Harbor City's First Baby Dies Egg Harbor City's First Baby Dies Mayor Goller yesterday acted as pall-Mayor Goller yesterday acted as pall-LIMERICK No 37 There once was a fellow named Dan. Who worked on a big moving van; "Now planos," said he, "Are guite easy for me— They're like girls—'treat 'am rough." Egg Harbor City, N. J., March 25.— Mayor Goller yesterday acted as pall-bearer for Louis Ertell, the first baby born in this city, sixty-three baby born in this city, sixty-three taby born in this city, sixty-three baby born in this city, sixty-three taby born in this city, sixty-three baby born in this city, sixty-three to the boys." A week ago Brandt announced he was engaged to be married. IF IT'S A Capp Autoverthisesty the metal airplanes recently purchased gers point east and west, north and for his new Polar expeditions. Captain Amundsen, the disoceverer minute the arm is the South Pole, expects to leave Sc. likely to grasp you, unsusattle June 1 in an effort to drift past the the North Pole on the ice floes in the pecting of fans, and schooner Maud, which last year was leave upon you the forced to abandon a similar attempt be-() m cause of a broken propeller in the Bering dred - dollar check, All of which He will make several experimental lights in the vicinity of New York in machine capable of carrying nine assengers. flights in the vicinity of New York in a machine capable of carrying nine street,

Barre, received ten votes out of ten for RICKARD TO TAKE STAND to Lim'rick No. the answer Sports Promoter to Defend Himself 37

LIMERICK No 37

made by fifteen-year-old Sarah Schoen-

Arctic explorer, who returns to here in Nor-York from a visit to his home in Nor-way next Tuesday, plans to attempt to home of the long-reaching Lim'rick arm. Its fin-but now that he's actually won a check, but now that he's actually won a check. he'll be a regular Lim'rick fan in the

THAT LIM'RICK $100 DOESN'T

William Lance Lives and Does Civil Engineering

CARE HOW FAR IT TRAVELS