EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA, SATURDAY, MARCH 25, 1922

JUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE

Nancy Wynne Tells of the Birth of a Son to Dr. and Mrs. Peter McCall Keating on Wednesday-Fellowship of Academy to Have Birthday Party

T SEEM to have a great deal of news to impart today. Did you hear that Katherine Thompson is to be married in Manila on Sunday, April 2? That's noly about eight days off so, of course, no member of her family will be able to mom for the wedding as it takes no member of her family will be able to go on for the wedding as it takes more than ten days to reach Manila. The wedding is to take place in the Governor General's house. You know Lieutenant Wood's father is General Leonard Wood, and he is Governor General of the Philippines. I suppose it's customary to be mar-ted on a Sunday out there. Is it not ried on a Sunday out there. Is it not fanny how different the customs in every country are? Here Sunday is while in several foreign countries it is the day of days for mfrringe. Til warrant Katherine will make a very good looking bride. She is so pretty and holds herself so well. At Chestnut Hill. Miss Margery Nixon, daughter of Mr. Miss Margery Nixon, daughter of Mr. Miss Margery Nixon, daughter of Mr. Miss Walnut street, who is a student at Westover and has returned to her home for the spring vacation, will entertain as her guest for a few days next week Miss Withelmina H. du Pont, daughter pike, Withington, Del. An interesting day

Have you heard that the Fellowship of the Academy of the Fine Arts is to celebrate its twenty-fifth birth-day party on the 17th of April at the Academy and there's to be an "Alice in Wonderland" setting, and I hear that Violet Oakley is to be the "Queen of Hearts." and Hugh Breckinbridge the "Mad Hatter." And there is to be birthday cake, and oh! I wonder West Penn street.

the "Mad Hatter." And there is to be a birthday cake, and oh! I wonder who will be "Alice?" I think those Fellowship parties are where we gave a scene from a panto-mine play and I was supposed to read the prologue.. I had on a long Turkish cont and a turban fashioned out of various scarfs and instead of casting a rose at the girl of my heart, I fired a rose at the girl of my heart, I fired a rose at the girl of my heart, I fired a rose at the girl of my heart, I fired a rose at the girl of my heart, I fired a rose at the girl of my heart, I fired a rose at the girl of my heart, I fired a rose at the girl of my heart, I fired a rose at the girl of my heart and the girl o ratious scarfs and instead of casting a rord, have returned from ration ratio for the girl of my heart, I fired a row at the girl of my heart, I fired a rate they spent some time. Final, where they spent some time. Mrs. J. Howell Cummings and her daughter, Miss Eleanor F. Cummings, of the Willington, will return to their home tomorrow, after spending several for the basis canon show and she dropped weeks in Florida. Miss Cummings' enpenet to be a galosh, and she dropped gagement was recently announced to it so hard that it hit one of the audience Mr. Willard Jchn Mason, of Chicago, 11. in the eye.

I know in the excitement I lost the paper and prologue and had to extempaper and protogue and had to extem-porize, and I had an awful time. The Sheik in the play was not very tall and she had numerous pillows besides her-self tucked inside of her costume and a Mr. Stephen Emery, of New York, announces the engagement of his daughter, Mrs. L. C. Diehl, of 326 West Chelten avenue, to Colonel J. W. Mal-colm, of Virginia.

GERMANTOWN

turban made of a turkish towel trimmed Mrs. Benjamin Symers. of West Sharpnack street, will entertain at bridge at her home on Monday afterwith a feather duster, and I was so consumed with laughter and nervous excitement I nearly put the whole pan-tomime "on the blink." noon.

That was the party they had for Mr. Trask when he left the Academy some eight or nine years ago. But I know that "Alice" will be even better.

that "Alice" will be even better. I HEAR that the McCall Keatings are receiving congratulations on the birth a son. In fact the baby is three of a son. In fact, the baby is three days old and a beautiful little boy. 1 wonder if he will inherit his mother's Beach and Miami.

wonderful voice. She has one of the most gorgeous voices I have almost ever heard. She was Miss Aubrey, of Sau She was Miss Aubrey, of San Antonio, Tex. They were married down there last summer and have been fiving at 2130 Pine street this winter. And there's another little boy in the Keat-His family, born about a week ago. He is the fourth son of Mr. and Mrs. William Sands, and you know Mrs.

last year.

Sands was Edith Keating, Dr. Keat-ing's eldest sister. The Sands have been living in Morristown, N. J., for the

THE fourth and last of the musicales evening. at the Merion Cricket Club is to be

Let the Merion Cricket Club is to be bed this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The program will include a trio on violin. Chance and Dorothy Hodge taking part, respectively. You know those the and Mrs. Thomas Edward Yerxa, of Redlands, Calif., are receiving con-gratulations on the birth of a daughter, Nancy Yerxa. Mrs. Yerxa was Miss Thelma Berger, of Hamilton court. Mrs. Harold Dickson, of Seventeenth street and Girard avenue, will entertain the members of her sewing circle at her home on Tuesday afternoon. Miss Florence Patterson, of North Eighteenth street, is spending a fortpart, respectively. You know those three girls are members of the Junior three girls are members of the Junior

The Queer People By DADDY

Jack and Janet, wearing magio fairy caps, start for Fairyland. They are arrested for laughing at queer forest folks, but are freed on that charge. Then the Fairy king orders them cast into the Hollow Tree Dungeon for wearing the magic fairy caps without permission.

CHAPTER VI

A Queer Surprise CHUT them up in the Hollow Tree Dungeon." That was the order of the Fairy king to the two blue policemen who held Jack and Janet.

The policemen started to drag the children away.

But on the lawn in front of the throne of King Hummer alighted Prince Flitter-Flash. Beside him was a beautiful Fairy. It was his mother, Queen Sparkling Dew.

"Hail to the queen! Hail to the prince !" sang the fairies.

"Hail, my royal father! Hail, fairies! Hail, folks of the forest !" cried the prince. "What is all the excitement about ?"

"These saucy strangers dare to wear magic fairy caps without permission," replied the king, waving his hand to-ward Jack and Janet. "I am sending them to the Hollow Tree Dungeon." Prince Flitter-Flash turned sharply to Jack and Janet. One look and he ran to them. "Hail, Jack! Hail, Janet!" he cried, clasping them to him one at a time, "Welcome to Fairyland!" a time. "Welcome to Fairyland!" Then Prince Flitter-Flash turned to Then Frince Flitter-risks turned to the astonished king. "These strangers wear the magic fairy caps by right, my father." said he. "I gave them the caps for rescuing me from Black Drag-on and Hairy Ogre." "What?" shouted King Hummer.

"Are these the brave knight and fair lady who slew the dragon and defied the ogre to save you?" The king jumped from his throne and ran to Jack sweet lady! And to think I sentenced you to be spanked and to be put sup-perless to bed with the frcgs in the bog!" "And to be shut up in the Hollow "And to be shut up in the Hollow Tree Dungeon. Don't forget that," yawned the sleepy judge, "Forgive me, and I will take you upon an adventure in Fairyland that will atone in full measure for the wrongs ren here suffered " tione in full measure for the wrongs ou have suffered." Jack and Janet were cager for an diventure in Fairyland, and they nuickly forgave the king. adventure in Fairyland, and they

Che Daily Movie Magazine

AN ECHO OUT OF THE PAST

You'll recognize a few of the above group, but not many. It was taken ten years ago when the Lasky Studio on the coast was newly opened. Left to right, standing: Oscar Apfel, Max Figman, Charles Richman, Wilfred Buckland, Theodore Roberts, Robert Edeson, Edward Abeles, Cecil B. DeMille. Seated, left to right, Lolita Robertson, Jesse L. Lasky and Bessie Barriscale. Of the entire group, Buckland, Roberts, DeMille and Lasky himself alone remain

THE MOVIE FAN'S LETTER-BOX

By HENRY M. NEELY

"Old Timer" writes: "You see, I ing because of his mouthings and indistill address you with all due respect regardless of your kind invitation to call you 'Hen. Old Top.'

call you 'Hen. Old Top.' 'Nevertheless, the next time I see that is same old gentleman in dua; par-ticular theatre reviewing a first showticular theatre reviewing a first showis liable to get the habit of pulling funny faces, too. Her posturing war overdrawn, as a visit to any little town will indicate very clearly that it isn't habit of pulling ing, I surely will salute you. On your head be it if I get pinched as a movie "I was so delighted to see you menbeing done this season.

"The picture was interesting and held the attention in spite of the fact that Brabin has exaggerated a great deal and I think Tyrone Power deserves a great deal of credit and praise for the manner through all that rigmarole to get in which he portrayed so difficult a character, although even here an attempt was made to spoil him by show-ing too vividly the agony of a man's soul and only his (Power's) ability from, Geraldine.) saved this part of it.

"The sets, to my mind, were very indifferent. The 'street' was too pal-pably a built one, and other scenes lacked a sense of realness. The double exposure was bad, it being perfectly, evident that some one lacked a sense of who invented near-beer.

"Gladden James exhibited entirely too speaking stage now, you know, in a play white a face and a lack of fire to make a called "Just Married." vivid impression as a civil engineer active in the field. The wind and sun, somehow, have a bad habit of lining a did at the first possible moment. "Why do they always give their

ANTONIA MORENO TO PLAY WITH COLLEEN MOORE

By CONSTANCE PALMER

Hollywood, Calif. NTONIO MORENO has severad A connection with the Vitagray Company and is suing the organization for $129,000, alleging breach of c tract. He has been signed by Goldwi for one picture and will be featured in it with Colleen Moore. The story and, the film version were written by Rupert Hughes, who will also direct. The title at present is "The Bitterness of Sweets." Mr. Moreno will portray an Sweets." Mr. Moreno will portray an Italian dancer, a part well suited to bis Latin type. Others in the cast are Martha Mattox, Frances MacDonald. William Orlafond and Orpha Alba, The Come On Inn today looked like a motion-picture convention. Among the lunchers were Ethel Chayton and her brother, Carmel Myers and her mother. Zion Myers, brother of Carmel and secretary to Irving Thalberg, di-rector general of Universal; Leak Baird, Mary Wynn, Frothingham's latest screen protege; Agnes Smith, the writer, and Beatrice Burnham, who played an important part in Priscilla Dean's "That Lass o' Lowrie's." There was also a throng of Christie girls in costume for a Russian ballet scree.

costume for a Russian ballet scene. They make more noise than two bar-

They make more noise than two bar-rels of monkers. Edwin Carewe is directing a picture called "I Am the Law," It is another Northwest Mounted Police opus, and an all-star cast is being used. Alice Lake, Kenneth Harian, Rosemary Theby, Gaston Glass and Hector Sarno comprise a noteworthy group. The Beery boys, Noah and Wallace, are combining to do all the villainous work. Elliott Dexter is on his way from New York to play the lead, with Clara Kimball Young in "The Hands of Nara." a picture from a story laid in Russia. Russia.

It is reported that Mary Miles Minter will go to Honolulu for a vacation. Ben Turpin has gone to Hot Springs for a month's rest.

Ant For product That studio seems During his absence, Phyllis Haver, to be working on the assumption that all movie fans are country people of the Civil War period and have no in-ment house in Beverly Hills. Real erthe Civil War period and have no in-telligence or discretion of their own. The silly actions of the village folk in the picture couldn't be duplicated in any village in America today. On the contrary. I've found that the young vil-lage girl is a pretty wide-awake person and not many jumps behind the most sophisticated vamp along Chestnut street or Broadway. The Sennett feature film, the latter part of April. She plans to go to Europe for a vacation and rest, and will visit all the popular points of in-terest. Mack Sennett, the producer of "Suzanna," will return from New York in the to see the completion of the The double exposure was very care-lessly done. I noticed one case especially, where the dream girl is sup-posed to place her hands in the hands of the old cobbler and she looks as though she were scratching his back. in time to see the completion of the though she were scratching his back. Frankly, I thought Tom Douglas hope-lessly impossible. He was worse than Gareth Hughes, and that's bad enough. P. S.—Did you ever have to go through all that rigmarole to get a through all that rigmarole to get a pretty little country girl to kiss you? And did she almost die of embarrass-Westerns, not only directing them., but ment afterward? Not where I come neting as their star. Mr. Stromberg plans to put Bull Montana before the Mr. Stromberg

and ROPES

on numerous

LIVING MODELS

promenading

"Peacock Alley"

Exhibits may be bought direct at this booth

Debutante daughter of Mrs. Wil-liam H. Donner, of 345 South Eighteenth street, who has been liam Rodgers, of Pittsburgh

Miss Hanna Sweitzerhoff, of Felham oad, has returned from the South, where she spent several weeks at Palm Beach and Miami. Mr. and Mrs. William Parsons, of North Fifteenth street, will leave shortly for Washington, D. C., where they will spend some time.

Mrs. H. Bothwells, of Germantown avenue and Duval street, will spend a few weeks at Atlantic City with her sis-ter, Mrs. Walter F. Brown. Mrs. Thoma, of 5281 Germantown Mrs. Thoma, of 5281 Germantown ter, Mrs. Walter F. Brown. Mrs. Thoma, of 5281 Germantown avenue, has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Edna Marle Thoma, to Dr. Charles E. Pike, of this city. this city. Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Einwechter, Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Einwechter, this city. Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Einwechter, the Easter heidays their cousin, Miss Maurine Mc-Laughlin, of Wheaton Heights, Mass.

Mrs. Harold Dickson, of Seventeenth

Nancy Yerxa. Mrs. Yerxa was Miss Thelma Berger, of Hamilton court. Mr. and Mrs. Douglass D. Durand, of the Acarilla Acarthesis on Information in the Street, is spending a fort-night at New York.

visiting her grandfather, Mr. Wil-William P. Brenz, Jr., Mr. Charles Car-roll Hicks, 3d, and Dr. Franklin Lane,

NORTH PHILADELPHIA

WEST PHILADELPHIA Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Hanselt enter-tained several guests at dinner at their home, 11 South Fifty-first street, last evening.

Photo by Bachrach MISS DOROTHY B. RODGERS

you have suffered."

quickly forgave the king. "Mother," snid Prince Flitter-Flash to the beautiful Fairy, "may I present attractive.

Janet and Jack?"

"Just recently it was my misfortune The Fairy queen bowed graciously. Jack politely grabbed for his cap to stray into a neighborhood theatre that was showing 'A Man's Home.' Wasn't it awful? All the effort they to take it off as he bowed in return. "No! No!" warned the king. "Keep your cap on!" But the king spoke too late. The cap was already in Jack's hand. As he lifted it from his head he heard a transform for the star of the showing in the effort they was already in Jack's hand. As he lifted it from his head he heard a transform for the star of the showing in the effort they was already in Jack's hand. As he lifted it from his head he heard a transform for the star of the showing in the effort they was already in Jack's hand. As he lifted it from his head he heard a transform for the star of the showing in the effort they was already in Jack's hand. As he lifted it from his head he heard a transform for the star of the showing in the effort they was already in Jack's hand. As he lifted it from his head he heard a transform for the star of the showing in the effort they was already in Jack's hand. As he lifted it from his head he heard a the star of the showing in the showing i iffed it from his head he heard a scream from Prince Flitter-Flash. kers. Stern, money-mad husband, dig-"Come back! Come back tomorrow!" Jack didn't know what to make of Jack didn't know what to make of a 'regular drammer.' And when the that advice, and neither did Janet, who had lost her fairy cap as she dropped a deep curtsy to the queen. But they understood in a moment. As the caps left their heads they suddenly grew into themselves are she with the state of the state themselves again. The fairy court vanished. In its place was simply a flowery glade. The fairless were buzzing away — but now they looked like humming birds. But the most surprising thing of all was the queer people. They were still That pleture is an answer to "That pleture is an answer to "I have made a lot of complaints. and yet, strange to say, I enjoyed the pleture. With a little discretion in the direction of it, I can readily imagine that it could have been a very powerful Club. Mrs. Edward Sayres and Mrs. Edwin Dougherty will preside at the tea table and there will be music iso by several professionals

'masher.'

ACKIE was awfully proud at the welding the other day. You see, he was ring bearer, and so he could go orward and stand near the bridegroom during the ceremony so as to slip the ring to the best man when the time He was very intense and important and so excited that when the lergyman asked the bridgeroom, "Wilt thou have this woman as thy wedded and the groom answered, and Mrs. Levi Jay Hammond, of 2 Spruce street, announce the en-ement of their daughter, Miss nees Hayes Hammond, to Mr. Robert Ligget, son of Mr. and Mrs. Craig Ligget, formerly of Kentucky, now his city. The wedding will take place the early fail. of this city. - The w In the carly fall.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

m the early fail. Among the guests who will attend the informal supper this evening which Mr. and Mrs. John Kent Kane, of Brook-hollow, Radnor, will give at Sherley. their farm at Frazier, in honor of the birthday of their daughter, Miss Flor-ence Paul Kane, will be Mr. and Mrs. Charles Renshaw. Miss Marie Louise Hepburn, Miss Ottille Morris, Miss Nancy E. Norton, Miss Audrey Saun-ders, Mr. Lloyd Renshaw, Mr. Phillo Corson, Mr. Lawrence Saunders, Mr. H. Belding Young, Mr. Joseph M. Gazzam, Jr. Mr. Philippus Miller, Mr. John Kent Kane, Jr., Mr. Frank Kane and Mr. Dell Alan, of Chicago. Mr. Frank Kane. Mass., arrived home hast night accom-panied by two of his school friends, who two of his school friends, wh panied by two of his school friends, will be his guests during the spring holi and Mrs. William J. Sewell, of f. Bounds, Chestnut Hill, enter-et a dinner followed by a thea-rity last alght, in honor of her ters, Miss Anna B. Sewell and Miss of J. Sewell. The guests included Elizabeth J. Sewell, Mr. Beauveau of, and Mr. Thomas Gates. re part

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin H. Fitler, of the Mraces, Rosemont, have issued invi-tations for a dinner on Friday. March i, in honor of their daughter, Miss Nan Titler, before the Junior Cinderella Dance at the Merion Golf Club.

Miss Barbara Shoemaker, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William T. Shoemaker, of 199 South Twentieth street, will enter-tain at a luncheon and bridge party at her home on Saturday afternoon, April 15, in honor of Miss Katharine H. Coffin, daughter of Mrs. M. R. Coffin, of Seventeenth and Spruce streets, whose marriage to Mr. Stanley A. Welsh, of the Aldine Hotel, will take place on Saturday, April 22.

Miss Mary Falek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick McQ. Falek, of St. Mar-tins, will entertain informally at a buffet supper tomorrow evening. About thirty of the school set will attend. Miss Falck will make her formal debut next No-vember at a large dance to be given by her parents at the Bellevue-Stratford.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rogers Maxwell, Mr. Selkirk. Villanova, entertained at dinaer last evening at the Bellevue-Stratford before the spring dance of the Saturday Evening Dancing Class.

Mr. and Mrs. George Vaux, Jr., enter-tained at dinner last evening at their one, the Thicket, Bryn Mawr, in honor ff Mr. and Mrs. Julius Rosenwald, of Chicago. Covers were laid for sixteen.

guests who will attend the uncheon and card party which harles Young Fox, of 2035 Sp treet, will give on Tuesday nex onor of her daughter, Miss Dor ox, will include Miss Mary Virs Illen Miss Margaretta McNeal, hristine Kendrick, Miss Eleanor acc. Miss Virginia Freeman, billing Betts, Miss Frances Elliott, Illoughby Ellis, Miss Betty Ja sane Gates, Miss Hida Keen, next in Dorothy Virginia al. Miss

Mr. and Mrs. Douglass D. Durano, of the Aquilla Apartments, entertained Mr. and Mrs. William Boole at dinner at their home. Forty-eighth and Sansom streets, last evening. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob B. Hoffman, of 914 North Eighth street, are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a son. Zev Wolfe Hoffman. Mrs. Hoffman will Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Dunbar enter-tained in honor of their son William's ninth birthday anniversary, at their home. 6142 Washington avenue, yester-day afternoon. Mrs. Dunbar and Mas-ter Joseph Dunbar have returned to their home after a side of several days nik

SOUTH PHILADELPHIA Mrs. Fred Robbins, of 2527 South Garnet street, will move shortly to her new home in Baltimore, Md. their home after a visit of several days

A reception and dance will be given spend by the members of the Delta Delta Sorority and Alpha Phi Fraternity on Friday evening, April 21, at the Belle-vue-Stratford.

Mrs. Frank T. Sentman, of the Monte

Mrs. Frank T. Sentman, of the Monte-vista Apartments, entertained her luncheon and bridge club at her home yesterday afternoon, The members in-clude Mrs. T. Dilworth, Mrs. O. Winter, Mrs. H. Wieand, Mrs. J. Thompson, Mrs. E. Leatherman, Mrs. L. Hecker and Mrs. Ethel DeVoll. Mr. William Thomas Traynor, of 2514 South Juniper street, announces the en-gagement of his daughter, Miss Cath-eriue Marie Traynor, to Mr. Jack B. Robinson. The wedding will take place on June 7 at the Catholic Church of the Epiphany, Elevonth and Jackson sreets.

none other than Cocky and Merry Robins. The policemen were Blue Jays. The dancers were all sorts of woodland birds.

As Jack and Janet became children again the birds fled in fright. "Why," cried Janet, "the people were not strangers at all. They were just the birds." "Yes, but when we wore the magic umn fairy caps our eyes were opened and we saw the birds as fairies see them." Do you like his pictures? To me he has the quaintest personality on the "I am sorry we took off our caps," "ied Janet. "We might have gone on cried Janet. that adventure in Fairyland with the king." "We will go tomorrow." answered Jack. "It is late now and time we ran.

sloppy looking man any time without going to the movies." "I feel sorry that she does not see (Jack and Janet find the magic fairy caps again in next week's story and go on the adventure with the King of the farther than patent leather hair and dress suits. But there is no account ing for another's taste and undoubtedly Fairies.)

DELAWARE COUNTY

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest LeRoy Green will give a card party this evening at their home in Media.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Baxter, of Owen and Plumstead avenue, Lansdowne, will entertain at bridge this evening. The guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Norman Fernon, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Wall, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Evans and Mr. and Mrs. John Hallahan.

writing these rambling letters each and every week I hope not; it's really enjoyment to me. Mrs. Richard Gundry and her daughters, Miss Jessie Gundry and Miss Catharine Gundry, of Catonsville, Md., have been guests for a week of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ross Little, at Scroggle, their home near Media. letters are always worth reading. As to your penmanship, I guess I've seen

Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Worth, who have been spending a few weeks in the South, have returned to their home in worse-though I'm not sure. It would be all right if you would make your a little different from your "r" if you'd dot your "i" and write Media,

mine

movies.

Mr and Mrs. Ernest M. Yarnall have returned to Bend-in-Road, their home in Moylan, after a months' stay at Os-mond Beach, Florida. use a typewriter. But it's all right:

NORRISTOWN

Invitations have been received in Norristown to the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Gordon VanTassel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Demming Van-Tassel, of Newtonville, Mass., and Mr. Gilbert Lane Dannehower, son of Mr. William F. Dannehower, of Swede street, which will take place on Satur-day evening, April 8, at the home of the bride, Mrs. Walkore B. Stroud, sister of the bridegroom, will be one of the bridegrading and Mr. William F. Danne-hower, Jr., will be an usher. hower, Jr., will be an usher, Mrs. Walter B. Buchanan, of DeKalb street, has left for a stay in Flem-ming. N. Y.

beauty to appeal to the kind of girl who goes crazy over Valentino. But I like him immensely and always have, in spite of some of his very unsatisfactory plays. "One Glorious Day," however, Mr. Nathan Hydeman, of DeKaib street, is spending several weeks in At-lantic City.

Mrs. John Sudler, of Baltimore, Md., is visiting her mother, Mrs. William 'Footfalls' and watched it with vary-ing emotions, if 1 possess such things. Brabin's conception of a party in the country districts is so absolutely ridic-

NOTED BEAUTY SHOCKS PARIS Special Cable Dispatch. Copyright, 1922 Paris, March 25 .- A sensation was caused at the Micareme Opera ball last night by the appearance of a celebrated beauty in the early morning hours clad beauty in the early morning hours clad in three masks and slippers. She wore a domino concealing her face, and two large masks in front and back attached to lacings with a fringe of long beards, forming a sort of Hawaiian skirt.

Mask and Wig Smoker Tonight The Mask and Wig Club of the Uni-rativ of Pennsylvania will give a moker tonight at the chib house, 210 changed. They were no longer little humans with colored clothes, queer faces and odd-shaped bodies---they were birds. The fat, red-breasted birds were none other than Cody and Year of the had given up the acting end al-together. Have you heard if he is to play in anything at all in the pear futhat it could have been a very powerful picture that would have caused a regular storm of approval. I would like to see the same picture done by the direc-tor of 'The Ruling Passion,' one of play in anything at all in the near fu-ture? Always thought lots of him, he was such a quiet, unassuming lad and the finest pictures I have ever looked at. Now, how does my opinion gee with yours? played juveniles so well. Remember him in the old Lasky pictures about six > tional parts he is convincing, too. A friend of mine said : 'I never care to see his pictures; you can see ots of people think the same about

"Well, as I'm an 'Old Timer,' any-way, maybe I am a little peculiar my-self—who knows? You can tell me after I accost you some day at the "One thing I'm certain of; I'm a rotten penman and if you read all these letters I write you should get, the 'Bok' award next year.

"Adios 'Hen.' "P. S .- Do I bore you to extinction

(You bet you don't bore me. Youn what photographers call "halation" on the negative.

"Some day when I have hours at my disposal I am going to write out all the pent-up criticisms I am storing away week after week, but I shall be careful or eight years ago? "I have heard and read the ramblings of lots of fans, but have yet to hear a thing about Will Rogers in your colto include the praise, too, for there is room for plenty of both."

(Your opinion coincides with mine se perfectly on "Footfalls" that it almost makes me suspicious you read my rescreen today. Far from good looking and never dressed up, his naive manner view of it and are having a joke at my and whimsical smile are as charming The same unfavorable critiexpense. as a youngster's of ten. And in his cisms can be made of most of the re-

PHOTOPLAYS.

HOTO-PLAY Manley pany of America. APOLLO LED & THOMPSON STS. LEW CODY in "A DANGEROUS PASTIME" ARCADIA CHESTNUT Bel. 16TH WILL ROGERS & LILA LEE in "ONE GLORIOUS DAY" ASTOR EIGHTH & GIRARD AVENUE MATINEE DAILY Orch. 22; Modest Altschuler, Famous Cond.

Wm. S. Hart in "Travelin' On' RUDOLPH VALENTINO "MORAN OF THE LADY LETTY BALTIMORE 51ST & BALTIMORE 530, Sat. Mat REGENT MARKET ST Below 17TH MARY MILES MINTER in "TILLIE"

RIALTO GERMANTOWN AVENUE AT TULUTHORKEN ST. BLUEBIRD Broad & Susquehanna Continuous 2 until 11 EUGENE O'BRIEN don't worry. Yes, "A Man's Home" wash shure

in "CHIVALROUS CHARLEY" SHERWOOD 54th & Patrimore AV Yes, "A Man's Home" wash shure a shad affair—I should shay sho. They usually wear "poils" in the movies because they photograph better than diamonds. A diamond gives out tiny rays of very strong light that cause BROADWAY Bread & Snyder Ave LIONEL BARRYMORE STANLEY MARKET AT 19TH in "BOOMERANG BILL"

CAPITOL 722 MARKET ST. 10 A. M. to 11:15 P. M. GEORGE FITZMAURICE PRODUCTION STANTON MARKET AFORS 16TH Tom Forman has given up acting. He has just started directing Katherine MacDonald in her new picture. Will Rogers isn't exactly the type of male "THREE LIVE GHOSTS"

COLONIAL Gtn. & Maplewood Aves. 333 MARKET STREET THEATRE Wallace Reid & Elsie Ferguson

ID "PETER IBBETSON" FAIRMOUNT Stith & Ginard Ave EUGENE O'BRIEN

In "CHIVALROUS CHARLEY GRANT 40th & Girard Ave. 56TH ST. THEATRE-Below Spruce

EVENINGS AT 4.30 AND 9 P. M. D. W. GRIFFITH ALICE BRADY in "DAWN OF THE EAST" "WAY DOWN EAST" GREAT NORTHERN Broad St. at Brie

HAROLD LLOYD In "A SAILOR-MADE MAN" azines it is rather difficult to imagine anything so weird as the characters shown at the party in 'Footfalls.' ''These people have ways and means HAROLD LLOYD AT OTHER HAROLD LLOYD

"These people have ways and means of knowing fairly well what is going on in the world outside and it is an in-soilt to their intelligence to show them to the urban world as people who are incking in good sende. "Tem Douglas is extremely irritat-"BOUGHT AND PAID FOR"

ulous that it left a bad taste that lin-gered through the rest of the picture. "I have spent some of my young life in the rural districts, especially of in the rural districts, especially of West Virginia, and saw considerable of their social life, and in these days of big mail-order houses and women's mag

. . .

The .

ALDINE

$7.00

DAILY-SUNDAY

670 8RM.

PLATTERS

Business Men's

Lunch

GARETH HUGHES

in "LITTLE EVA ASCENDS"

WALLACE REID

in "RENT FREE"

CHARLES RAY

"A MIDNIGHT BELL

WESLEY BARRY

in "SCHOOL DAYS"

TYRONE POWER

in "FOOTFALLS"

HAROLD LLOYD

TOM MIX

in "SKY HIGH

DINNERS .

in "RANGELAND" COLISEUM Market bet. 59th & 60th WALLACE REID in "RENT FREE."

N

JUMBO FRONT ST. & GIRARD AVE RICHARD TALMADGE

In "THE UNKNOWN" LEADER 41ST & LANCASTER AVE

WILLIAM DE MILLE PRODUCTION "MISS LULU BETT" ADDED-"MAKING THE MOVIES"-Come and two Yourself on the Screen

LOCUST Mats 1 30, 3; Even, 6:15 to 11

MAE MURRAY in "PEACOCK ALLEY"

NIXON 52D AND MARKET STS. 2 15. 6 30 and 9 P and D P. HOOT GIBSON

In "THE FIRE-EATER" RIVOLI 42D AND SANSOM STS. 1 30 and 3: 6 45 to 11 P.

In "A SAILOR-MADE MAN" /ICTORIA MARKET ST. ab. DTH 9.A. M. 10.11 P. M. Harold Lloyd, "A Sailor-Made Man" Added-Viola Dana in 'The Fourierath Lover'

69TH ST. Theatre. Opp. "L" Terminal

RUDOLPH VALENTINO IN "MORAN OF THE LADY LETTY"

STRAND Gin. Ave at Verange Bt. 2:30 6:30 to 11 P. M. Wallace Reid & Elsie Ferguson in "PETER IBBETSON"

AT OTHER THEATRES, MEMBERS OF M. P. T. O. A. EFFERSON 29th & Dauphin 4 WILLIAM DUNCAN

LEATRICE JOY IN "A TALE OF TWO WORKS

Next Week-George Arlias in "DISRAELI" PARK RIDGE AVE A DAU "THE FOUR HORSEMEN PAULINE ST

MISS HELEN HOPE MONTGOMERY shier of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leaming Jontgomery, of Ardros angra, who is spending the winter in Robe with her parents. "I will rejurn to this county in Mar

Mr. and Mrs. F. Edward Nolan, who have recently returned from Cincinnati, will entertain the members of their bridge club at their home this evening, The members include Mr. and Mrs. Rol-Douglass D. Durand, Mr. and Mrs. Rol-lin Richardson Meyers, Mr. and Mrs.

DEBUTANTE OF NEXT SEASON

to relatives in Baltimore. Mr. Edward Connor, of 4337 Balti-more avenue, accompanied by Mr. Ar-thur Hale, of Washington, will speno the weekend at Octorara Hall, Row-bardenila Md andsville, Md.

will," Jackie spoke up and in a strong treble added, "An' me, too."

NANCY WYNNE.