Harmony Plan Fades as Fisher and Beldeman Also Decide to Stay in Race

ALL WILL FILE PETITIONS

Something went suddenly wrong today with the harmony program on the gubernatorial, which is being engineered by Governor Sprout...

At the same time the Mackey announcement that supporters of Lieutenant Governor Beldeman declared they wanted nothing better than a fight...

Then came a "standpat" statement from State Banking Commissioner Fisher...

Commissioner Fisher today at Harrisburg, denied knowledge of any proposed harmony deal...

No advance has been made in looking to a harmony deal at this time, declared Mr. Fisher...

I stood for harmony until the last minute before making an announcement of my candidacy and never gave out a statement or interview that did not contain a lifeline...

The only candidate, apparently, who is looking for harmony, is Gifford Pinchot, the independent...

Mrs. Pinchot in Command Mrs. Pinchot conferred with Mrs. Barclay H. Harburton, vice chairman of the Republican State Committee...

Governor Sprout is at Harrisburg today following his conference at Washington yesterday with President Harding and Secretary of the Treasury Mellon...

But the word from Pittsburgh which heartened the Mackey fight was that Mayor Magee and Senator Leslie were ready to go through with the Mackey boom...

But the word from Pittsburgh which heartened the Mackey fight was that Mayor Magee and Senator Leslie were ready to go through with the Mackey boom...

Incidentally, Vare leaders advised Mackey today that all the ward leviathan in the Philadelphia organization would stand for him even though some of them do not like him...

Mackey is going to be in Pittsburgh tomorrow, and will confer with Leslie-Magee leaders and speak before the League of Women Voters...

REWARD FOR IDA KRAMER

Relatives of Missing Woodbury Girl Pool Funds to Aid Her Recovery

SEND MESSAGE TO SUSPECT

Rewards totaling $700 were offered by relatives today for the recovery of Ida Kramer, seven-year-old girl kidnapped Saturday night from her home at Woodbury, N. J.

Bernard Haberman, 2052 North 56th street, this city, a cousin of Isadore Kramer, the girl's father, offered $200, Isadore Greenburg and his wife Sarah, the latter a cousin of Kramer, offered an additional $500.

A remarkable feature of the kidnapping, the authorities say, is that no ransom has been demanded of the father, who is a poor man.

Mystery surrounding the disappearance of the girl was not dissipated by the arrest yesterday of Miss Esther Tannenbaum, cousin of Ida's father, who was charged with kidnapping the child and held in $10,000 bail.

Try to Talk to Suspect Haberman and Mrs. Greenburg, with two other men and two other women, went to the Woodbury jail today to call on Miss Tannenbaum...

They were not permitted to talk to her, so left and tried to shout to her in her cell, under Sheriff Chappell was arrested of this and sent them back to the jail office...

Haberman is said to have tried it again alone, but again was caught and threatened with arrest if he did not desist from his efforts.

Miss Tannenbaum was questioned most of last night, and the questioning was continued today by Joseph Lannagan, of Trenton, a Deputy Attorney General...

Miss Tannenbaum insisted she was in her mother's grocery store in Camden all last Saturday evening except for a short time, when she went to a bank to make a deposit...

It has been learned that a deposit was made at the bank in her name, but it has not been ascertained whether she made it in Camden or in an automobile in Atlantic City...

The New Jersey State police are looking for a man who said his name was Baker and that he was a State trooper. He was active in the search Monday and Tuesday, but disappeared when Frank Juliano, a member of the New Jersey State police, arrived late yesterday and repudiated Baker as a fellow member of the constabulary.

Baker turned up in civilian attire Monday and took charge of the search in Woodbury. Some gained the impression that he was a New Jersey trooper on furlough; others that he was a member of the Pennsylvania State police.

Yesterday he was on the job again, riding breeches and puttees, though without the customary uniform coat. Trooper Juliano, who arrived late yesterday to offer the services of the State police, he saw Baker and immediately said he was not a State trooper...

SUPPER BLOW TO ARBUCKLE

Nurse Swears Virginia Rappe Told Her of Attack by Comedian

FINGERPRINTS EXAMINED

San Francisco, March 29.—The State late yesterday voted its case in the third manslaughter trial of Roscoe Arbuckle, with testimony offered by Miss Virginia Briggs, a surprise witness...

The defense immediately began its presentation of evidence by calling Adolph Juel, head of the police identification bureau...

Miss Briggs, who is secretary to Dr. Francis W. the hospital, testified that Virginia Rappe died, following a party in Arbuckle's hotel rooms, testified that Miss Rappe told her that "Arbuckle took me by the arm and threw me on the bed and put his weight on me; and after that I do not know what happened."

At the close of Miss Briggs' testimony the defense moved that her statements be stricken out as hearsay. The motion was denied.

Asked About Hospital Bill Miss Briggs explained that she had gone into Miss Rappe's room on the day of her death. She asked me about the amount of the hospital bill which would be due," said the witness...

She said she didn't see why she should pay the bill, as Arbuckle was responsible for her being there. I told her that if Arbuckle did not pay the bill, she would be held responsible for it...

Then I asked her why she thought she was going to die and it was then that she told me the details of the party...

Cross-examined by Gavin McNabb, of defense counsel, as to whether it was not true that she had telephoned to him asking that Miss Rappe's bill be paid and threatening that if it was not she would tell her story to the District Attorney, Miss Briggs made an absolute denial...

She also denied that McNabb had told her to give any evidence she might have in the case. She said she had told her to see that official, she presumed, about the bill.

Shrank From Notoriety Miss Briggs testified that she had not told her story before or volunteered any information because she shrank from the notoriety. She said that she had been summoned to testify only last Saturday...

A portion of the alleged attack by Arbuckle on Miss Rappe was enacted by the defense in an effort to show that had force been used, fingerprints on the hotel room door would have been blurred and smudged beyond identification...

Juel testified that the fingerprints on the door of the hotel room in which the struggle was alleged to have taken place were not those of Miss Rappe and Arbuckle, contradicting previous testimony of a prosecution witness.

AUTOS TO HELP ATTENDANCE

While all the rest of the world wears "flapper" styles or worse, fashion has caused no such ripple among the Friends. This was brought out at today's meeting of the Yearly Meeting of the Society of Friends in Philadelphia...

It was the day to read answers to "Queries," sent by the Yearly Meeting to the Quarterly Meetings for reply. The
