GILBERT Staff Correspondent Evening Public Ledger Company Washington, March 30 .- Quick aceptance of the Naval Limitation Treaty shows the utter collapse of the solutionists in the Senate. No fight was left in them after the passage of the four-Power pact. They are already beginning to hear from the people of their own States that their votes against the pact endanger their coninuance in public life. Hiram Johnson is greatly worried ver the opposition that has developed against him in California. His old and trusted lieutenants have turned against him. Newspapers which used to support him are now opposing. So geneval is this movement that only the Hearst press in California and Charles K. McClatchy's Sacramento Bee are aiding Johnson in the primaries for Reports from Missouri are that Sen-ator Reed has alienated many voters from himself by his stand upon the pact, having pleased only the Irish and German elements. His re-election to the Senata is described as doubtful
