TTER half a down boxers had "fought their heads off" and had the fams in an uproar the other night at the Ice Palace in one of the best boxing pre-s of the season, Willie Jackson's act in the wind-up went sour. The thousand fams believed Jackson cheated them. He came in the ring mains 150 pounds, and with a badly cut right sys. He was to draw a big the and was in no shape to ears any part of it. Another thing noticed by The Observer was that Jackson, at times, actually is a big punches. There was every reason to believe that Willie did not try K. O. Frankle Rice. It was crude stuff.

After the gracing Changy-Hanlon match, in which both battered each for all over the canvas like a pair of Rungry tigers while the fans reared melves hearse with approval, Willie Jackson, in the next bout, looked as he were taking something for nothing when he was paid for his "act."

THE Haston-Chancy ruckus put the huge crowd in fine humor. If it hadn't been for that Willte Jackson might have been mobbed right in the ring.

Special Disputch to Berning Public Ledger Orange, Tex., March 80.—Once more —for the third time in a row—the Ath-letics were alambanged all over the lot by the St. Louis Cards. the National Leaguers here this after-noon. The final fraces of the five-game series between the A's and St. Lonis teams is scheduled tomorrow afternoon at Baton Rouge, La., and no doubt the Connie baseballians will be glad that the nightmare will be over. For some-how or other, mostly because they haven't got their eyes on the ball, the Athletics are not hitting. The Athletics, the Cardinals and the rain played the game at Heaumont, and on several occasions, it looked as though the rain would win. However, it stopped long enough to pla- the entire contest, though it made the field rather heavy.

Baseball Filmed in heavy. The condition of the field did not seem to bother the St. Louis mud horses for they cantered home to victory, this time winning by a 10-to-2 score and clinching such honors as there may be in the assiss.
