Nancy Wynne Hears the Craig Biddles Have Taken a House in Newport—She Sees Various Smart Frocks and Suits—Tweeds Are to Be Seen Everywhere

I HEAR that the Craig Biddles have taken a house in Newport for next season, and will spend the greater part of the summer there. They have leased the Hartshorn estate on Halidon Hill, and will be spending a little more than $100,000 on it.

THE dresses which have a blouse of one kind of material and a skirt of another are very popular with the younger girls this spring. I saw Sara Daily recently looking quite pretty in one of them.

Another smart set-up is being worn by Amelia Seixas. I saw her in town one day last week wearing a wide collar black silk dress with a wide collar of gray fox, and her hat was a small model of that sixty sort of ahm-

SPEAKING of tweed suits, I have been almost run over about four times since Saturday afternoon because of them. I walked for a single moment on Chestnut street, simply going from one store to another, and I would not have believed that so many tweed and heather coat suits and cape suits could exist in the city.

IT SEEMS I made a mistake the other day about Billie Kelly's wedding being followed by a reception at the Plaza. There is not to be a reception at all; in fact, it is a dinner.

MOTHER was getting Polly ready to go to a party, and as she brushed her curls and combed her hair, she gave many instructions in regard to her party. Polly, who is five, had been the affair, but as admission followed admission, her expression became more and more crushed, as it were.

DO YOU realize that in a little more than two weeks we will all be getting ready to see the Mask and Wig's forums at the Plaza? The parties are already in the planning, one interesting one being for Lyseth Boyd and Henry Borie. It is to be given by Carter, Mrs. George Culbert and Mrs. Thomas Borie.
