

REGION POST PLANS CONCERT BY RADIO

Listeners to Be Entertained by Latest Advancement of Wireless Phone

DANCES ARE TO BE GIVEN

A radio phone outfit which has become one of the chief attractions at the home of Frankford Post 211, American Legion, at 4521 Paul street, is to be improved upon. John E. Swan, chairman of the committee, announces, messages and concerts from in and around Philadelphia are being received nightly on the outfit now installed.

Charles W. Bainsbridge, Jr., of the Germantown Boys' Club, and Gordon Porter will address a meeting of the post, to be held at the Frankford Library Auditorium April 4, and amusements and refreshments will be served at the post home after the meeting.

The William T. Shestline Post 06, completing preparations for its annual dance, to be held April 21 at the Roosevelt, 2023 Chestnut street. A campaign for the establishment of a post home will be started at this affair, for which the committee is planning many features. A call has been made to the members of both organizations now form the Green-McCracken Post of the Thirty-fourth and Forty-fourth wards.

Ex-service men who were members of the former Philadelphia Marine Post 770, protest that an impression has been created in the Thirty-fourth Ward that that organization ceases to exist. The members have consolidated with the Green-McCracken Post No. 207, and the members of both organizations now form the Green-McCracken Post of the Thirty-fourth and Forty-fourth wards.

The next meeting will be held April 1 at 306 North Fifty-second street. An illuminated emblem will be displayed for the first time at this meeting. The Entertainment Committee is planning an amateur night for the regular meeting April 15.

The Executive Committee of David W. Jameson Post, 183, has elected Comrade Bailey to fill a vacancy among themselves. The next meeting of this post is to be held Tuesday evening at 25 South Van Pelt street, and it is expected that one of the principal topics of discussion will be the attitude the post should take concerning the bonus question.

The details of the observance of Memorial Day have been left to John E. Hart, commander of the post. These will include a journey to Jameson's grave at Toms River.

Harry L. Greenwood Post, 332, announces that it will hold Memorial Day observances jointly with the Schuyler Post, of the G. A. R.

The membership drive by Howard C. McCall Post, 20, progresses. Within two months it is hoped to reach the goal of 500 members.

The basketball team of the McCall Post has two games remaining on its schedule for the season. A baseball team is in the process of organization.

It has been announced that Robert J. Martin Post, 208, will join the Frankford Post in the dedication of the memorial to Forty-fifth Ward men who died in service. The dedication will take place April 15.

No. 124.—The Changing Dice.
A pair of small dice are held between the tips of the thumb and forefinger. Attention is called to the spots of the dice which are facing the spectators. Waving the hand in the air, the spots change instantly.
In waving the hand, the forefinger moves back slightly, which gives the dice a quarter turn. Naturally this changes the value of the spots. Another wave of the hand, and the move is reversed, bringing the spots back to their original value.
