Flying Yacht Service Will Be Established Tomorrow Between Two Cities

TREASURER WEDS

Atlantic City, March 31.—For the confit of the clite desiring to travel expenditiously between Atlantic City and New York, a flying boat service will be me out hereafter."

In this is what he told them:

"Hon't believe her boys. All this travel stuff is bunk. Give me New York from now on. Traveling is all right for some folks, I guess, but leave me out hereafter." ew York, a flying boat service will be stablished tomorrow.

Through an arrangement with the American Airways, Inc., five-passenger BIRKENHEAD TO TAKE REST flying boats will be used to carry passengers along the coast line at a speed which cannot be approached by motor or locomotive. The arrangements include a de luxe service, with a Loening flying yacht, owned by David McCulloch, formerly pilot of the NC-3. The yacht, which has a top speed of 135 ntles an hour, will be scheduled to make the journey of 105 miles in about fifty minutes. The other ships will not be quite so speedy. The rates will probably be $35 a passenger in the regular service and $50 a passenger in the de luxe.

Flying boats will be used so that in case of mishap they may glide to safety on the water. The planes will travel close to the coast line and at no time will they assume great altitude, it was States District Court yesterday afterneon of a conspiracy to violate the National Prohibition Act and were sentenced by Judge Bodine to terms in News leaked out today that City Treasurer Charles Parsons, missing from his desk in the City Hall since Tuesday, is absent on his honeymoon. "Captain Charley," as he is popu-larly known, had been a widower for so long that his single estate was taken for granted. With the exception of Albert Beyer, Commissioner of Finance, and Alfred Glenn, who has charge of the Department of Vital Statistics, none of the city attaches were in on the secret. Beyond stating that "Captain Charley" was married to Miss May Fackenthal, of this city, on Monday night, even these two could furnish no information. information.

Parsons, who is a grandfather by an earlier marriage, is sixty-four years old and created considerable amazement in the early part of the year when he refused to accept an increase in salary, stating that he was then getting all he

Two men were taken to the Atlantic City Hospital within a few minutes, suffering concussion of the brain, as the result of different accidents here yes-terday. John Collins caught his heel at the top of a stairway in his heel at the top of a stairway in his home and fell to the bottom. A few minutes later A. P. Price, in another part of the city, was struck by a taxicab. Howard Moore, the chauffeur, was arrested and is held without bail to await the outcome of Price's injuries.

A census of World War veterans in Atlantic County was determined upon at a meeting of the Executive Committee and athletic officers of the county Legion posts. The move followed short addresses by five Mayors, who with the legionaries were guests of James Harvey Post in Ventnor last night, and is for the purpose of finding jobs for the unemployed. The Mayors pledged co-

The first post-war military organization to be recruited in South Jersey was sworn into the State service here last night. The unit, which will take the Federal oath next week, is a sanitary and automobile company consisting sixty-five men and officers.

Special Agent Harry Sands yesterday led his second raid on "damp spots" about the resort. His "guests" ranged from a hotel keeper to the "presiding officer" of a heeple strend of a bootblack stand.

The detachment of investigators in command of Sands made a descent on the Campus, 910 Atlantic avenue, taking Lester Wolk, the proprietor, and ing Lester Wolk, the proprietor, and Henry Mittenmyer, a waiter, in custody, along with some very choice liquors. Later, Donato Innelli, proprietor of Innelli's Hotel, Haddon avenue; Henry Steinhauser, of "The Inn." 15 South Delaware avenue; Henry James, grocer, 2401 Pacific avenue; Riley Lowe, 1311½ Baltic avenue; Riley Lowe, 1311½ Baltic avenue; a bootblack, and Andrew Hill, a bartender employed by Joseph Keeley, ariested on Monday, were arrested, All were taken before Hiram Steelman, United States Commissioner, and held United States Commissioner, and held in $1000 bail for the Federal Grand Jury.

BURCH JURY CHALLENGED

Defense Alleges Tampering With

Entire Panel In Murder Case Los Angeles, March 31.—The entire panel of jurors in the trial for murder of Arthur C. Burch was challenged yesterday afternoon by Paul W.

Schenck, chief defense attorney on the ground of alleged tampering.

The first indication that persons were attempting to investigate prospective inverse came. Thursday, when Miss Zoe Rutherford stated that a man representing binself. ing himself as from the District At-torney's office asked her mother whether Miss Rutherford was in favor of capi-tal punishment, and then, she said. proceeded to tell why he thought Burch Nine others stated, in response to questions by the defense, that their homes or their neighbors had been visited by persons seeking information.

Judge Reeve announced he had called a new jury panel for his department.

"MIRACLE." VILLAGERS SAY Canadians Awed by Statue Snatched

From Cathedral Fire

Quebec, March 31. — Villagers who gazed yesterday on the ruins of the basilica that sheltered the famous shrine of St. Anne de Beaupre, destroyed Wednesday by fire, pointed with awe at the wooden statue of St. Gregor Thaumaturgus, or miracle worker, which escaped unharmed.

"A miracle" they whispered, even as they had spoken when pilgrims who had come to the shrine and cast down their crutches and declared themselves healed.

The Redemptorist Fathers, to whose care the shrine had been intrusted, in spurring the faithful to reconstruction of the cathedral, also pointed to the statue, dedicated to the memory of Gregory of Cappadocka, to whom the working of miracles was ascribed in the third century. The statue was the first century of Cappadocka, to whom the working of miracles was ascribed in the third century. The statue was the first century exected in Canada to a minimal control of the cathedral.

FOLEY CALLS TRAVEL 'BUNK' N. Y. After First Vacation in 25 Yrs. New York, March 31. - All this ravel stuff is "bunk," in the opinion of "Big Tom" Foley, formerly Sheriff and a "heap big Injun" in the Tammany wigwams, who returned yesterday from a 14,000-mile trip to Italy, france and other lands on the shores of the Mediterranean. Politicians met Foley at the pier and asked how he enjoyed the voyage.

Mrs. Foley repited enthusiastically and added "Tom enjoyed it, too." When she became busy with the baggage inspectors he took his friends aside, and this is what he told them:

day was granted a mouth's leave by the House of Lords. In making his request for the leave Lord Birkenhead said his physicians had advised him, owing to trouble with his eyesight, to take a

DEVELOPMENTS EXPECTED

Sam Francisco, March 31.—Carnet, home of writers and artists, and some plain, ordinary folk as well, who take a personal and intimate interest in the "Bobemian Colony." as they call it, is now a town divided against itself over the fistic battle of 'lnst Saturday between Harry Leon Wilson, author, and Theodore M. Criley, artist.

A Carmel play started all the troubles more than six months ago between Wilson and Criley. Wilson wrote the play "Pomander Walk," it was named, and pretty Mrs. Wilson took the part of the principal trouble seems to be, and a fraid to talk as a correling to the performance they ceased to be.

Fleischmann's fresh yeast helps digestion and cleans a coated tongue

HOUSANDS of men and women have found reflef from various digestive disturbances by eating Fleischmann's Yeast.

It is human nature to want to find out "why." So far as science can tell us this is the reason:

Fleischmann's Yeast is a food abundant in certain elements which are necessary to health and life itself. It promotes the flow of bile and of pancreatic juice. It has a remarkably beneficial effect on the whole digestive system. It cleans a coated tongue.

Try Fleischmann's fresh yeast in orange juice or, if you prefer, in milk. Men like it in milk shakes and malted milks. Women like it spread on bread or crackers.

Keep your digestion in the pink of condition and your tongue clean and healthy by eating 2 or 3 cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast fresh every day before or between meals. Get Fleischmann's Yeast fresh daily from your grocer.
