

57

To suit every taste

FOUR kinds—all good—all oven-baked—all ready to eat—

Heinz Baked Beans with Pork and Tomato Sauce

Heinz Baked Pork and Beans without Tomato Sauce (Boston Style)

Heinz Baked Beans in Tomato Sauce without meat (Vegetarian)

Heinz Baked Red Kidney Beans

HEINZ OVEN BAKED BEANS

STUDENT DEFENDS PENN PUNCH BOWL

Editor-in-Chief Says Faculty Put O. K. on Paper Scored by Priest

"ONLY MODERN," HIS VIEW

The "Mask and Wig" number of the Punch Bowl appeals to the records of the University of Pennsylvania and has increased sales 50 per cent. A. F. Dugli, editor-in-chief, declared today in defense of the students' fanzine.

The Punch Bowl, particularly the latest issue, was branded as "damnable" by the Rev. John Keough, chaplain of St. Peter's Catholic Chapel at the University of Pennsylvania. He said student artists should have been assigned to sign their names to the "Marian Number," which was the poorest seller ever put out by the editorial board.

SOLD LIQUOR TO BOY

Reading Man Gets Two Months in Federal Court

Harry Brown, a sixteen-year-old boy, drank moonshine he bought from Alexander Lencowski, a Reading salar, and was ill for three days. He was testified today before Judge Thompson in the United States District court.

$2075 GEM THEFT MYSTERY

No Trace of Thieves Who Robbed Miss Evans' Apartment

No trace has been found of the thieves who broke into the apartment of Elizabeth Evans, 1227 Spruce street, late Saturday afternoon and took money and jewelry amounting to $2075.

THEY HAD PLENTY

Camden Police Want to Know Where Men Got Their

Stephen Yelnick, 1067 Stevenson street, Camden, and Dominick Marone, 324 Atlantic avenue, Camden, were arrested today while both were carrying a large quantity of beer and racking up the bill in the vicinity of Fifth and Chestnut streets.

How to Keep Baby Well

A Weekly Talk to Mothers Issued Through Phipps Institute

Keep your baby out of doors as much as you can.

Be sure to see he does not get too much sun in his eyes, that the wind is not blowing on him too hard; that if it gets colder he has more covers thrown over him, and that no flies or mosquitoes are around him.

MURDERER-SUICIDE INSANE, POLICE SAY

Laurel Springs Man Who Shot Daughter, Child and Self Once in Asylum

TRIED DEATH TWICE BEFORE

Joseph Sparks, who murdered his daughter, Mrs. Edna Tolbert, and her ten-month-old child and the committed suicide in his home at Laurel Springs, N. J., Saturday afternoon, was insane, Camden County authorities said today.

The officials found that five years ago Sparks was sent to the State Asylum at Trenton after he had tried suicide twice. On one occasion he was cut down while hanging to a rafter in his barn. He was released from the asylum three years ago, but had been acting strangely of late, relatives said.

Marie Smith, eighteen years old, Fifth street near Berks, only eye-witness to the fatal shooting of Mrs. Harry Warren, an actress, by her husband, in their rooms, at 717 North Eleventh street, Saturday night, was arrested yesterday in a safe near Fourth and Kaighn avenue, Camden.

When the girl was examined detectives found she was suffering from bullet wounds in the right hand and chest. They sent her to Hahnemann Hospital and she is being held as a material witness.

Harry Warren, a war veteran, killed his wife, police say, in a quarrel over money matters. She was a vaudeville actress and came to Philadelphia from New York to spend the week-end.

Miss Smith said she was merely a visitor at the house at the time of the shooting. A half dozen roomers in the house are held as material witnesses.

Warren was given a hearing yesterday before Judge Fitzgerald, and was held without bail to await the action of the coroner. Warren declares that he pointed the gun at his wife because of a "dare" and did not mean to shoot.

In memory of the Rev. Holmes F. Gravatt, who was for many years pastor of First Methodist Episcopal Church, Camden, a tree will be planted this afternoon in Johnson Park by members of the Woman's Club of Camden.

The oration will be delivered by S. Conrad Ott and Levi Farham, city engineer, will plant the tree. The junior choir of First Methodist Episcopal Church, under direction of Prof. Powell K. Fithian, will sing favorite hymns of the deceased pastor.

Mrs. Miriam Lee Early Lippincott will read "The House by the Side of the Road." The committee in charge of the exercises follows: Mrs. Oscar J. Clair, Mrs. William B. M. Burrell and Mrs. S. Conrad Ott.

In an early morning raid yesterday on the home of George Martin, 224 Line street, Camden, Police Commissioner Shute and Fisher arrested Mrs. Martin, fifteen inmates and Mike Muckeloh, a Camp Dix soldier. The soldier, who changes his name to "George," is held as a witness. The Martin woman will be given a hearing this morning in Camden Police Court before Recorder Stackhouse.

Falling down the stairs in her home yesterday, Mrs. Bessie Walskovich, of 1916 Filmore street, Camden, received a fractured skull. She was taken to Cooper Hospital, where physicians say she will probably recover.

Supreme Court Justice Katzenbach in Camden tomorrow will hear argument by counsel for Luke L. George, L. Ware and James Adams, all of Berlin, who seek a writ of mandamus to compel the authorities of the Berlin public school to permit their children, George Bruno, ninth and Bainbridge streets, and Nicholas Pantalone, Bancroft near Morris street.

Detectives Cappalano, Guida and West of the Seventh and Carpenter streets station, happened to see the boys assault McLaughlin. At first they thought it was just a "friendly fight," but after seeing the boys rifting the pockets of the prostrated man they gave chase.

Upon seeing the detectives approaching the boys ran. Pantalone, but after seeing the fleeing boys, but he did not heed them. He fell exhausted from running before he was caught.

Chinese Merchants Here Delegates From Twenty Cities Open Annual Convention

16-Year-Old Bride

MRS. ROBERT C. BIALY, Collingswood, N. J., high school student and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Addison, starting out to buy hubby his first dinner after their elopement.

SAYS WOMAN HE SLEW WAS CHILDHOOD SWEETHEART

Man Held in N. 11th Street Shooting Declares It Was Accidental

Harry Warren, when grilled by Detective Bolshaw today, said the woman he shot and killed at his home, 717 North Eleventh street, Saturday night, was Mrs. Bessie Dorn, Newark, N. J., a childhood sweetheart.

He said he forgot the woman after she married Dorn, but later met her here when she told him she had left her husband after a fight, and that she then went to live with Warren.

Three shots in all were fired, two of them wounding Miss Marie Smith, Fifth street near Berks, who had been invited to the party. She died after the shooting, but was later found by police at a Camden cafe. She was brought to this city and is now in the Hahnemann Hospital. She is held as a material witness.

ARREST BOY BANDITS

Police Fire 15 Shots in Nabbing Pair Who Attack Pedestrian

Two eighteen-year-old boys were arrested shortly before 11 o'clock last night after they had been caught robbing a pedestrian at Eighth and Montross streets. Fifteen shots were fired at them before they were captured.

The man who was held up is in the Pennsylvania Hospital, suffering from the treatment given him by the boy bandits before they were caught. He is James McLaughlin, forty-one years old, 2432 North Seventeenth street.

The boy bandits are Joseph Bruno, ninth and Bainbridge streets, and Nicholas Pantalone, Bancroft near Morris street.

Detectives Cappalano, Guida and West of the Seventh and Carpenter streets station, happened to see the boys assault McLaughlin. At first they thought it was just a "friendly fight," but after seeing the boys rifting the pockets of the prostrated man they gave chase.

Upon seeing the detectives approaching the boys ran. Pantalone, but after seeing the fleeing boys, but he did not heed them. He fell exhausted from running before he was caught.

CHINESE MERCHANTS HERE

Delegates From Twenty Cities Open Annual Convention

The eighteenth annual convention of the Chinese Merchants' Association opened its sessions this morning at 232 North Ninth street, with 200 delegates from twenty Eastern cities. The convention is to last three weeks.

"American methods of doing business will be carefully studied at the business sessions," said Joseph Pang, secretary of the association. "Our people must come out into the open and show that their friendship is real and lasting. We all know that America is the best friend we have. Our method of doing business will serve to cement that friendship."

"The Chinese are getting away from the laundry business," Mr. Pang continued. "We have Chinese bankers, importers, exporters and merchants generally."

Kong Wah, of New York, is the general president of the association and is presiding. The entertainments will be held at 907 Race street.

GIRL ELOPER QUITS SCHOOL FOR HUBBY

Mrs. Robert C. Bialy, Collingswood, N. J., Says Home Is Married Woman's Place

AND SHE'S ONLY SIXTEEN

Mrs. Robert Bialy, who a week ago was translating Virgil and delving into the realms of higher mathematics at the Collingswood High School, started out this morning with a market basket on her arm to choose the best delicacies obtainable for hubby's first meal of home-cooking. She is all of sixteen years old.

Before her marriage last Thursday, Mrs. Bialy was Miss Alice Addison, a senior at Collingswood High School. Then she eloped with her husband to Elkton, and after a few days' absence, returned to receive the blessings of her parents, not that morning became a full-fledged housekeeper.

Robert Bialy, the bridegroom, is twenty-four, and also of Collingswood. He is vice president of the Collingswood Coal and Supply Company, of which his father, H. L. Bialy, is president.

"Married life is way ahead of high school," said Mrs. Bialy. "Robert and I have known each other for a long time, and we've been engaged for several months, but we intended to wait until June, when I would graduate from the high school. However, we changed our plans and went to Elkton, and now we're back again."

Mrs. Bialy and her husband are living with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Addison, 206 Park avenue, Collingswood, and this morning the bride set hubby to work while she took charge of the house.

Housekeeping, she says, is a married woman's duty, and while she could go back and finish her studies, she feels that her place is in the home.

Mrs. Bialy has other sensible notions, too. In fact, she is almost "old-fashioned."

"I never cared for bobbed hair," she said. "It may look well on some girls, but they are very few. I prefer the good old style."

Mrs. Bialy is a blonde and has beautiful hair.

"We intend to have a home of our own," she said, "but we were married so unexpectedly we didn't have time to make any preparations. We will live here with my parents until we are able to find a suitable home. Then we'll take up housekeeping all by ourselves."

EVOLUTION IS HUMBUG. SAYS BAPTIST MINISTER

Hartsville Pastor Talks Sharply to Followers of Darwin

All talk of evolution is sheer nonsense, according to the Rev. Benjamin M. McKee, pastor of Hartsville, Pa., who addressed Presbyterian ministers today at their weekly meeting in the Witherspoon Building.

"Evolution is an untrue theory," he declared. "Most of the great teachers of evolution were atheists. Evolution, in its radical form, discards God. Its exponents produce proof that man came from the lower animals—we have the right to deny this theory."

"There are men in our colleges and seminaries, so fascinated with the importance of the hypothesis of evolution that they have wandered from the right way and see nothing but chance and spontaneous generation, or a few primordial genes. Their fancy leads all the fascination to poetry to their corrupt and unattractive teaching."

TODAY'S MARRIAGE LICENSES

Edmond J. Naylor, 2112 Torresdale ave., and Mary A. Green, 2321 Jones st., William B. Robinson, 3130 W. Norris st., and Margaret A. Green, 2205 Franklin st., June 2, 1922.

Edmond J. Naylor, 2112 Torresdale ave., and Mary A. Green, 2321 Jones st., William B. Robinson, 3130 W. Norris st., and Margaret A. Green, 2205 Franklin st., June 2, 1922.

Edmond J. Naylor, 2112 Torresdale ave., and Mary A. Green, 2321 Jones st., William B. Robinson, 3130 W. Norris st., and Margaret A. Green, 2205 Franklin st., June 2, 1922.

Edmond J. Naylor, 2112 Torresdale ave., and Mary A. Green, 2321 Jones st., William B. Robinson, 3130 W. Norris st., and Margaret A. Green, 2205 Franklin st., June 2, 1922.

BAILEY BANKS & BIDDLE CO. JEWELERS SILVERWARE STATIONERS. EASTER CARDS and NOVELTIES. Now ready for selection. Wedding Invitations and Announcements. Correct for Quality and Style.

They last as long as the house. THE NEXT TIME you pass a fine old dwelling which is being torn down, note the radiators. We are willing to let the reputation of our new products rest on the service our oldest have given. A letter or telephone call will put a heating expert at your service. For every heating problem this Company has a heating product. AMERICAN RADIATOR COMPANY. IDEAL Radiators and AMERICAN Radiators for every heating need. Display Room, 1711 Chestnut St. Philadelphia, Pa. Offices, 25th & Reed Sts.

This English Tweed SPORT COAT at $45. is such an extraordinary value that we take this space just to invite you to come see it. It certainly is a "smart" model. The Fur & Millinery Shop, Inc. 1423 Walnut St.

Big Cop—"See that fellow with the Moon? Well, he hasn't missed a day with that car since I've been at this crossing." Open Cars... $1785. Closed Cars... $2785. The Moon display rooms and demonstrators welcome you day time or evening. MOON Motor Cars. The car of the ten power units. MACKIN MOTORS, Inc. J. Jay Vandergriff, Pres. 855 N. Broad St. Phone, Poplar 7386.

Franklin Simon & Co. A Store of Individual Shops. Fifth Avenue, New York. Announce an Exhibition in PHILADELPHIA, PA. Spring Fashions For Madame and Mademoiselle. BELLEVUE-STRATFORD RED ROOM. Monday, April 3d. Tuesday, April 4th. Wednesday, April 5th.

THE FRANKLIN SIMON & CO. FASHION EXHIBITION IS RECORDING SPRING FASHIONS ACCORDING TO PARIS. For those who have no time but late in the evenings in which to take exercise and baths, we have room enough "to put them up for the night." Clients' comfort always has been a Collins slogan. COLLINS INSTITUTE OF PHYSICAL CULTURE 31-33 N. BROAD STREET.

Just What Men Want—Fine Quality Clothes Moderately Priced. Perry's SUPER-VALUES. $28 $33 $38 and $43. THE MEN who appreciate our Super-Values the most are the ones who have been to other good stores and compared. Almost always they come to Perry's and say that our clothes are from $5 to $12 less than anywhere else. And that's a fact too, not just advertising talk. Come in and make us prove it. PERRY'S. New Spring Suits. Light-Weight Overcoats. To wear an overcoat or not to wear one—that's the question these early Spring days. Too fresh to go without a top coat and too balmy for a heavy one. A light-weight Spring Overcoat just fills the bill. Coverts, gabardines, knitted fabrics, herring-bones and diamond weave chevrons. Top coats to suit every fancy at our Super-Value prices, $28, $33, $38 and $43. Junior Suits for the young fellow's first long trouser togs—same style as big brother's, but built especially for boys of 14 to 17 years old. Our Super-Value prices for Juniors are $20, $23, $25, $28.

PERRY & CO. 16th and Chestnut. SUPER-VALUES in Clothes for Men.

There Is a Price Danger Line. We particularly stress the money-saving feature of buying at Reeds. We do not and will not handle poorly made or inferior clothing simply to have goods to sell at a low figure—there is a price danger line below which a reputable merchant dare not go. But for men who see the wisdom of buying goods that will give service and satisfaction and which will ultimately establish their value, we present opportunities unequalled by any other house. We especially commend our Suits and Top Coats at $40, $45 and $50. JACOB REED'S SONS 1424-1426 Chestnut Street.