Duration of Mining Strike is Doubtful
We can tell you, however, that our stock of coal for delivery now, or during suspension, is carefully selected according to "American" standards, is all fresh-mined and well prepared.
You will find it quite different from the "storage" coal some dealers will use.
When ordering the ton or two that you may need for the rest of the season you can depend fully on our quality and service. Is it not a good time for you, if not a regular customer, to try us?
Our advice to customers is to buy for present needs only and leave next winter's order until the new prices are effective.
The opinion we have formed is that the strike will last from one to three months, that a substantial price reduction will result from the new agreements, and that freight rates will be lower by at least fifty cents per ton.

DEATH A SACRIFICE, CHARLES DECLARED
Kingdom for His Eldest Son
HUNGARIAN ROYALISTS ACT
By the Associated Press
Funeral, Madeira, April 8.—"O God, Thy will be done. Into Thy hands I commit my soul and the care of my wife and children. I offer Thee my life as a sacrifice for my people."
Thus spoke ex-emperor Charles, serene and calm, at the moment of his death.
The body of Charles, dressed in the campaign uniform of a field marshal, lay today in the house that has been his residence since he came to Madeira in exile. After embalming, the body was placed in a leaden coffin with an outer shell of mahogany. The Bishop of Funchal said mass in the mortuary chapel yesterday.
The body will be removed tomorrow to a private chapel in the Cathedral, pending transfer to a mausoleum in the cemetery of Monte Campo.
It was learned yesterday that Charles had been ill for ten days before a physician was called to attend him.
Budapest, April 8.—(By A. P.)—"Prince Otto is the hereditary King of Hungary; this is the only legal way to view the situation," declared Count Albert Apponyi, former Premier yesterday. Count Julius Andrássy and Count Hunyady made similar declarations.
It is said that Legation Deputies intend to move in Parliament a bill for the immediate return to Hungary of Otto and for his education under Hungarian teachers.
While M. Banffy, Foreign Minister, stated that no delicate situation would not be changed by the death of Charles, various politicians hold the view that a possible compromise between those favorable and unfavorable to Charles has been facilitated by his death.
The monarchists express the hope that Prince Otto can be restored to his former rank, with the present regime continuing in power during the minority of the one-time heir apparent to the throne. In all events, the death of Charles is expected to exercise great influence in the elections in favor of the Hapsburgs.
Day of Mourning Declared
The Government decreed yesterday a day of national mourning. All theatres and other places of amusement were ordered closed, flags were half-masted and music was suppressed.
Admiral Horthy, the Regent, and Count Stefan Bencur, the Premier, telegraphed condolences on behalf of the Nation to ex-Queen Zita.
"The young King's life," said the message of Regent Horthy, "has been extinguished by an unfortunate destiny. Hungary is profoundly grieved and shares his family's sorrow."
The marriage of Paulette Horthy, eldest daughter of Admiral Horthy, to Lieutenant Daniel Feny, which was to have occurred in the Royal Palace today, has been indefinitely postponed on account of the death of Charles.
Most of the newspapers yesterday were devoted to the funeral arrangements. The last resting place of Charles must be on Hungarian soil, not in the Vienna vaults, because it must become a place of pilgrimage for the Hungarians.
The leading adherents of Charles will hold a big meeting today. They have sent telegrams to the followers of Charles throughout the country to attend.
Vienna, April 8.—No political reaction in Austria resulting from the death of Charles is yet apparent. It is generally felt that the monarchists of Austria will follow the lead of Hungary.
In monarchist circles here the proposal is being discussed that Prince Sixtus of Bourbon-Parma, an Italian and brother of former Empress Zita, legally adopt Francis Joseph Otto, making him a member of the Italian house of Parma, and thus evade the ban on the Hapsburgs.
The voluminous obituaries and appreciations of the former Emperor-King which fill the press are colorful, but kindly. They dwell on the virtues of Charles as a man, husband and father, but excuse him as a statesman, for being well-meaning but an unfortunate ruler called to the throne at a time when greater men than he could not have done more for the people. The circumstance of his death in exile and poverty elicits a note of pity.
The monarchist retrospect in a panegyric accuses the Entente as being directly responsible for the death of Charles by exiling him to the tropic island of Madeira.
There is considerable speculation as to whether Charles' widow will attempt to take up her residence in Austria, inasmuch as the banishment decree includes neither Zita nor her children.
The general belief prevails that the body of Charles will be allowed to lie with his ancestors in the Church of the Capuchins.

Seen in Chestnut St. Shops
When purchasing furs, you will, of course, visit the store of J. Habisreitering, where you will find furs of only the finest quality and texture.
Deborah Seaman

NEVER have I seen such exquisite furs as I saw this morning at the store of J. Habisreitering, 1911 Chestnut Street. The Fisher skins were of an unusually dark rich shade of brown and wonderfully glossy in texture. And now is just the time when you need a small scarf to wear with your street suit or dress. As for the Russian Sables, you will agree with me that these at Habisreitering's are unequalled in quality and beauty. But if you are looking for a moderately priced fur, you will be amazed at the Baum Martens, which are delightfully soft and very like Sable in color. They may be had as low as $55 and up.

THIS is the day of specialization. In the olden days practically everything was done at home; now, most of our wants are supplied from the outside, from factories, etc. And so you will find that your rugs may be cleaned much more thoroughly by a firm which has made a specialty of this kind of work than you can possibly have them cleaned at home, even with the latest modern devices. Such a firm is that of Barg Bros, Dyers and Cleaners, 1113 Chestnut Street. Not only will you be delighted with the appearance of your rugs after having them cleaned by Barg's but when every bit of grit and dirt is removed they will wear much longer.

MISS BAKER EAGER TO WED
After Balking Several Times, She Rushes to Join France
Los Angeles, April 8.—Declaring she was in the best of health and eager to reach Europe in order that plans for her marriage to Allister McCormick, wealthy young Chicagoan, might be completed, Miss Lancelotti Baker, society girl of Santa Barbara and Chicago, left Los Angeles yesterday for New York, where she will board the Aquitania on April 11 to sail to meet her fiancé.
In a hurried interview she said that no definite plans for her marriage to McCormick, which were disrupted suddenly in Chicago last winter when Miss Baker became ill on her wedding day, had been completed, and probably would not be until after her arrival in France.
Miss Baker said she would proceed directly to Paris, accompanied by her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred L. Baker.

KLANSMEN INVADE CHURCH
White-Robed Procession Offers Gift to Baltimore Pastor
Baltimore, April 8.—Into the midst of last night's services in the Boundary Methodist Episcopal Church in Watery came a procession of twenty-two hooded figures, draped in the robes of the Ku Klux Klan.
Members of the congregation stood in wide-eyed wonder at the men before the altar the klansmen stood silently while the pastor, Dr. Daniel L. Ennis, accepted from one of them an envelope understood to contain money to go toward the church charity fund.
A. C. Wroten, treasurer of the church, objected to the men's entrance, but in vain. He blamed Dr. Ennis for the lack.

Cold Falls to Injure Orchards
Woodbury, N. J., April 8.—While there was ice in many low places in the county last night, little damage was done to fruit trees, owing to the high winds. Orchards were examined yesterday, but no damage could be found, for while the trees have started their shoots, none are in blossom. There is every indication that the peach, pear and apple crop will be heavy this year.
