

GIRL IS HELD AS 'LOOKOUT' AT SHORE

Police Charge That She and Man Attempted to Rob Store. Companion Arrested

BOTH CAUGHT AFTER CHASE

Atlantic City, April 6.—The police are holding Grace Breen, eighteen years old, and William Froud, nineteen, following a sensational attempt to rob a store at Florida and Atlantic avenues yesterday. Froud was detected trying to enter the store from the rear of the establishment and it is charged that the girl, standing guard in an alleyway, attempted to interfere with pursuers. Several pistol shots were fired before the couple were apprehended. The girl, according to the police, recently was arrested in Philadelphia. The authorities also arrested Charles Harris, her companion at that time, and the matter is now awaiting consideration of the Grand Jury.

Petitions seeking the renomination of United States Senator Joseph Frelinghuysen made their first appearance yesterday at City Hall. There was no rush to sign them on the part of attaches and the officers with whom they had been left by Frelinghuysen campaign managers did not go out of their way to push them. The local Republican organization is awaiting the arrival of the senator here next week, when he is to address the County Executive Committee and political chieftains of South Jersey. Until that time the matter of open endorsement, because they are not entirely satisfied with the "dry" stand of the candidate, and there is open hostility among many of the war veterans because of the Senator's stand against the Bonus Bill.

Mayor Bader has tossed his hat into the ring for in advance of city campaign time. At a meeting Tuesday night the resort's Chief Executive announced he would be a candidate to succeed himself two years hence.

One hundred candidates will be initiated at an Odd Fellows' ceremonial Saturday night. The degree staff of Mill Lodge, Philadelphia, will give the degrees. Delegations of lodge men from all parts of South Jersey will participate.

Circulation of petitions seeking presidential intervention in behalf of Samuel Singer, convicted bootlegger now serving eighteen months in the Federal prison in Essex County and under indictment in Philadelphia as the result of the scandal that also brought about the indictment of former Federal Prohibition Agent McConnell and forty-seven others, has aroused the ire and official protest of the Ministerial Union, a body composed of the pastors of local churches.

The petitions appeared here a week ago and are in quiet circulation about the city at the present time. The petitioners and "sinister persistence of political influence" to help the convict, who is credited with reaping a huge fortune from his traffic in illicit liquors, were freely discussed by the dominies in their regular monthly meeting. Following this the set of resolutions was adopted.

The annual pre-Easter clean-up of fortune-telling establishments was started here today when Detectives Webb and Gilbert, members of the vanguard, descended on two "futures." Mary Jones, thirty years old, a Serbian, was the first prognosticator to fall under the ban. Shortly afterward, Lena Williams, twenty-eight, also a Serbian, joined her in the city jail on a similar

CHARLES IS BURIED IN PARISH CHURCH

Faithful Friends Follow Body of Ex-Emperor to Temporary Mausoleum

HEART SENT TO AUSTRIA

By the Associated Press
Funchal, Madeira, April 6.—Perfect weather marked the funeral of former Emperor Charles of Austria-Hungary yesterday. The coffin, covered with the old Austria-Hungarian flag and smothered with floral wreaths, was conveyed in a hearse to the temporary mausoleum erected in the parish church. The ceremony was impressive and was attended by members of the former royal family and their suite. The service was conducted by the Bishop in full robes and his attending clergy.

The route to the church was lined with people, and nothing but respect was shown as the procession passed. All business was suspended for the day. A plaster cast of Charles' features was made Tuesday by a Portuguese artist. The heart of the ex-Emperor Charles has been removed and will be sent in a glass jar inclosed in a silver casket to Austria. The present intention is to send the body to Hungary.

The local authorities and King Alfonso of Spain sent wreaths to be placed on the casket. The floral piece of Alfonso bore a ribbon on which was inscribed, "From Alfonso XIII to Charles of Hapsburg."

Former Archduke Felix, son of Charles and the former Empress Zita, who is ill, was reported as improving.

Uncommon Sense : When You Are Sorry for Yourself

By JOHN BLAKE

AS LONGFELLOW poetically observed, "Into each life some rain must fall." He states this well-known and not at all disturbing natural fact by way of consolation. The nature of the poem he was writing prevented him from adding that it would be a very barren life indeed if some rain didn't fall into it, and if some days were not dark and dreary.

THE poet meant well, however. It was his purpose to cheer up the self-pitiful, although he would have done better to take the other method and laugh at them.

For self-pity is really a vice, and deserves no sympathy. Steffanson, the explorer, has written a book he calls "The Friendly Arctic," wherein he relates in a cheerful matter-of-fact way experiences which would make an ordinary man's hair stand on end.

Moved solely by the desire to add to the knowledge of humanity about the world in which it lives, he crossed Arctic ice, drifted helplessly about on detached floes, lived wholly on seal meat, and underwent the most extreme privations.

He had no luxuries of any kind. He had few of what most people regard as necessities.

FRENCH MAIL THEFT FOILED

Genoa or Other State Documents Were Not on That Train

London, April 6.—(By A. P.)—No important British Government documents were in the mail bags stolen in yesterday's sensational train robbery in France, it is authoritatively stated. If the robbers expected Foreign Office documents relating to the Genoa conference, a theory advanced by the French police, they overlooked the fact that important papers are never sent in regular mail bags, but always by courier.

Attention, Ford Owners!

Ford parts, like almost everything else worth while, are counterfeited. The manufacturers of these imitation parts are obviously not as interested as we are in maintaining the high standard of quality and the complete satisfaction of Ford owners. Imitation parts are manufactured to sell at the highest possible rate of profit and the grades of steel used are consequently not the same high quality, specially heat-treated alloy steels specified in Ford formulas for the manufacture of GENUINE FORD PARTS.

Don't be misled—Insist upon GENUINE FORD PARTS made by the Ford Motor Company. By so doing you will get from 35 to 100 per cent more wear from them, and you will pay the lowest possible cost—the same everywhere.
