Nancy Wynne Talks of a House Party in Wilmington in Easter Week—She Reminisces About Various Former Philadelphians Living There

I HEAR the Felix du Ponts will give a large house party down at Elton, outside of Wilmington, the week-end after Easter. "Dick" Chichester will remember as "Dick" Chichester; her name was Mary Richards. Chichester. Before her marriage Mrs. du Pont, who is a Virginian, lived up here with her sister, Mrs. William Muir, who died about ten years ago. Mrs. Muir was 141 Chichester and was an attractive woman. Her husband was a brother of Jack Muir, who married Mary Brinley. Mrs. du Pont married an ardent tennis player at the time when Mrs. Thomas David, Mrs. George and Mrs. Thomas Chase and T. Rowland, Miss Clara Chase and ever so many others were the leading players of the day. "Dick" married in Haverford. Since "Dick" married Felix du Pont she has lived in Wilmington, though they have spent a good many summers in Cape May and at Head.

One of the Philadelphia girls who is going down to the house party I hear is Margaretta Harrison. ANOTHER very popular girl who is married a du Pont and who was a Philadelphia was Josephine Brinton. She is Kitty Brinton's oldest sister and was one of the greatest belles of her season. Josephine has golden hair, blue eyes and deep dimples. Her sister, Harriet, who was a perfect dear, married a Boston man, and Albert, who married golden tresses, were married seven years ago. George Sturani about seven years ago. To go back to Josephine, she married Ernest du Pont, and they have a handsome place on Kennet pike, in Wilmington.

THE final meeting of the Supper Club is to be held at the Bellevue-Stratford on April 22. April 15 is omitted because of Holy Week, but the last meeting will be held on Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Scott always invites the members of the first series to come to the last meeting as her guests, so it will be quite a large meeting. The club numbers more than 250. It has been positively decided to keep the club up next winter, and the first meeting will be held early in November, though I have not heard the number, though I have not heard the number, though I have not heard the number.

I WAS so delighted to hear of the birth of Isabella Cummings' little daughter yesterday. You know, Isabella Wamaker married Howell Cummings last spring, and they are living in their dearest place, which they named Isabella Cummings, out in Wynnewood. Isabella Cummings is awfully popular because she is so sweet in manner and always has such charming things to say about the other things. I think I'd rather have some one say that I do mean what I say than anything else to the world, don't you? It's a great thing to tell only the nice things about the other things. I don't mean to exaggerate or say things about people for the mere sake of saying nice things, but I do mean what I say about something pleasant about another. It's well to tell it, and that's what Isabella does.

THERE will be, as I said, no gayety in this week, but tomorrow evening a great many of us will go to the Republican Women's Club's first political dinner and conference, which is to be held in the ballroom of the Bellevue-Stratford. Governor Sproul is to speak, and Mayor Moore, Mrs. Harriet Taylor Upton, Miss Alice Robertson, Mrs. Nedell McCormick and Senator Pepper, besides a number of other distinguished men and women. It is going to be a very big thing and wonderfully interesting.

BOBBIE, who is three, has a great habit of getting down on his knees to run his engine around the room. And the consequence is his stockings are full of holes week in and week out. There have been several heart-to-heart talks with mother on the subject and Bobbie tries his best to remember. The other day, seeing grandma mending a pair of grandma's socks, he advanced upon his unsuspecting grandfater and, taking his rough hand to grandma's hair, said: "Now, now, naughty boy, you run around the floor on your knees."
