WOMEN VOTERS FLOCK TO POLLS TO LICK BOSSES
Registration in West Philadelphia and Germantown Districts is Heavy

Voters Register Today!
To the women of Philadelphia: Forget shopping—Forget husband—Forget everything—JUST ONE hour TODAY and REGISTER!
If you were not registered for the November election of last year you cannot vote May 16 unless you register at your polling place today—the only day in Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Scranton, April 26 for all other cities.
A vote gives you a voice in YOUR State Government!
The hours for registration are from 7 A. M. to 1 P. M. and from 4 to 10 P. M.

Women voters surged to polling places today to register for the May primary, their number being especially heavy in Germantown and West Philadelphia, independent strongholds.
At the headquarters of Gifford Pinchot, independent candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor, the campaign managers expressed delight over the early showing in many wards.
Reports from most of the forty-eight precincts indicated that the lackadaisical registration of last fall was not being repeated today when the voters are challenged by the slate-making bosses.
And while all was activity at the many registration places, two of the Republican candidates for Governor were addressing two large groups of professional and business men and women.
Gifford Pinchot spoke at a luncheon at the City Club, and said the State government was now a poor business organization, with "public officials spending the people's money for their personal aggrandizement." Mr. Pinchot pledged himself to remedy this condition if elected Governor.
State Banking Commissioner Fisher, one of Mr. Pinchot's two rivals for the Republican nomination, spoke at the same time before the Rotary Club.
Up to his appearance at the Rotary luncheon, Mr. Fisher had been in seclusion for twenty-four hours, giving little to reports he was about to withdraw.
In a statement before the luncheon the State Banking Commissioner said nothing to dispel that belief. On the contrary, his manner and remarks made his imminent withdrawal seem strongly probable.
The registration totals are being driven upward by the three-cornered fight within the Republican Party. The contractors' combine here is working to register what it can of the regular Republican vote. The effect of the effort is in the interest of Attorney General Alter, the machine candidate.

At the top appears Paul Flagler Turner, Haverford College student who was accidentally killed by his chum, George Thomas, 4th, shown below.

In Student Tragedy BOY HEARTBROKEN AT KILLING CHUM BY GOLF CLUB BLOW
George Thomas, 4th, Haverford, Fully Exonerated in Accident to Paul Turner
MIDIRON HIT QUEER NERVE THAT PARALYZED HIS HEART
George Thomas, 4th, Haverford College freshman, who accidentally struck his classmate, Paul Flagler Turner, with a golf club yesterday, killing him almost instantly, was too overcome with emotion today to more than mutter "I'd give anything if it hadn't happened."

Thomas was exonerated by both the college authorities and the County Coroner. He is on the verge of a nervous collapse with worry and remorse over the accident. "It is a terrible thing—if only it hadn't happened," he said over and over again today.
The boy's grief was completely accentuated by the fact that the faintest blame, during the "follow through" after Thomas had swung with a midiron, Turner, entering the room, stepped into the swinging club.
Blow Was Extraordinary
It was an extraordinary accident, as the blow struck at the one point where it could cause death—the pneumogastric nerve. It is the nerve that causes a "knockout" when a boxer is struck on the point of the jaw. The boxer gets a distributed shock—the unfortunate freshman was struck on the nerve itself. He died from acute dilatation of the heart and paralysis and collapse of the lungs, caused by the nerve's action.
The accident was the one topic of Haverford students today, as it was last night when a swing club did his best to make young Thomas feel that all sympathized with him, and that none blamed him. He is trying to face the thing out, attending classes today as usual.
Turner, who was nineteen years old and the son of Mrs. Albert E. Turner, of Haverford, was with five classmates practicing a few indoor golf strokes in Barclay Hall preparatory to going out to the links. The young men are all members of prominent families.
Thomas took a swing, which he followed through with the iron he struck Turner on the neck below the left ear. Turner had just stepped through the door from the next room, where he had been putting on his golf clothes. He

SHOT, HE FIGHTS OFF 2 HIGHWAYMEN ALONE
Hits Bandit in Jaw — They Flee After Shooting
Charles Strickland, 3348 Alfred street, a Negro insurance agent, fought off two armed highwaymen at midnight last night at Coulters and Newhall streets.
Strickland was shot in the thigh, but saved more than $100 he had in his pockets. His wound is not serious. The insurance agent had just left the home of a prospect. As he passed through a patch of heavier snow away from the corner street lamp, the two men jumped out from the darkness and ordered him to hold up his hands, one of them thrusting a pistol in his face.
Strickland, who is young and husky, replied with a stiff right to the highwayman. The two closed with him and for five minutes the three men rolled about the street. Finally the man with the pistol fired, the bullet entering Strickland's thigh, but not taking the fight out of him. The two highwaymen were frightened by their own shot and fled.
A patrolman attracted by the shot struck Strickland to the hospital. The bullet was removed and he is expected to go home.
BALFOUR AN EARL
King George Confers New Honor on Noted Diplomat
London, April 12.—(By A. P.)—King George has conferred an earldom upon Sir Arthur Balfour, who is officially announced today.
Until recently, Sir Arthur Balfour was a commoner, despite his long and notable career in British public life, and was known throughout the empire as "Mr. Balfour" in the British peerage.
Recently, however, King George conferred upon Balfour the Order of the Garter, the highest honor within the gift of the Crown. This made the recipient a Knight with the title of "Sir."
Now, presumably, Sir Arthur becomes Earl Balfour. There is one other Balfour in the British peerage, Baron Balfour, of Burleigh.

TARIFF MAY CEASE TO BE PARTY ISSUE THROUGH NEW BILL
Adjustable Rate Plan Believed to Be Workable for Either Republicans or Democrats
FORDNEY TO WAGE FIGHT FOR AMERICAN VALUATIONS
By CLINTON W. GILBERT
Staff Correspondent Evening Public Ledger
Copyright, 1922, by Public Ledger Company
Washington, April 12.—The tariff bill, which was reported in the Senate yesterday, will furnish the principal issue of the Republican Party, if the Republicans can hold together in the Senate and if they can get the schedule accepted by the country, they will be in a strong position when the election of 1922 comes around. If not, tariff legislation will prove as dangerous to President Harding as it was to President Taft.

Prince of Wales Receives Royal Welcome to Japan
Roar of Guns and Shrieks of Sirens Greet Heir to English Throne as His Ship Enters Yokohama Harbor
By the Associated Press
Yokohama, April 12.—The Prince of Wales arrived today for his official visit to Japan. Thousands greeted him as he landed from the British battle cruiser Renown, which brought him from India. His reception was carried out according to the program, to the minutest detail, as is the Japanese custom. Yokohama's welcome was noisy, judging by American standards, as the students who lined the streets were disciplined to silence. The picture they made with thousands of waving flags in the brilliant sunshine was inspiring.

NEGRO MINER'S HOUSE DYNAMITED
BECKLEY, W. VA., April 12.—The house of James Penn, a Negro miner employed by the Raleigh Coal and Coke Company in Sylva, was damaged today by an explosion of dynamite. The explosive had been placed on the windowsill of the kitchen, plastered with mud and then exploded.

Government forces have occupied Timayast, capturing artillery and ammunition.

Machine Keeps Anxious Watch
The Vore-controlled City Committee keeps anxious watch on enrollment through the city. The machine leaders are anxious to find out if the registration estimates, Harry C. Davis, executive director of the committee, are correct.
Out of this statement:
The 14th election divisions reports I have received show that the regular Republican vote is 730 to 300, apart from princes of the blood. It also contains a provision for the creation of peers for life, with inheritable titles and privileges.

Lost! Big Reward!
Somewhere on Broad street last night, between the hours of 7 and 8:30 and 11 and 12, personal memorandum book of greatest importance to me, but of no intrinsic value, and speculation, which would be of no use to a finder. Liberal reward if returned to me at once and no questions asked. Finder will please not read it. It is merely jotting down of my experiences and conclusions, which no gentleman would want to read.

JURY OF LIMRICK WINNERS TO JUDGE "CONSOLATION"
Those Who Have Received Prizes Will Award Final One to Some Lucky "Honorable-Mention" Fan
Well, fans, we surely hope you are working hard, 'cause Saturday ends it, you know, and if you would enjoy your summer vacation with that HUNDRED DOLLAR Limrick check, you'll have to hustle.
And particularly, you fans who have been mentioned on the ballot must look out for the Consolation Limrick which will be printed on the 22d. We have debated with ourselves for some time about the jury, but that problem was solved for us today by a letter from another fan.
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—In regard to the Consolation Limrick, I have a further suggestion. When you select a jury why not select a number of Limrick winners? You could invite them through the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER or by mail. The Limrick winners could assemble at the LEDGER office, or somewhere, and vote.
From a loyal Limricker,
JAMES WINTON.
(I am not a Limrick winner.)
We think that's a fine idea, and so the names of all of the winners will be put in the brown derby, shaken up, and then chosen from them. We will ask
