

Mrs. Wilson Gets From British Isles Novel Ideas on Making Hot Cross Buns

This Cake for Good Friday Is Made One Way in Ireland, Another in Scotland and Still Another in England

MANY of our old customs have a religious significance and date back to the time when these customs ruled as a manner of satisfying the people with the impriveness of the season.

So firmly did the custom of eating hot cross buns on Good Friday establish itself in the British Isles that it has been of late years that people felt that they might forego the eating of these buns, and yet not be under a ban, as it were.

Many special secret recipes and special formulas have been featured for the successful making of these delicious buns, and as the rural communities of England abound with traditions, and folklore stories of the blessings and merits that come to those who make and bake the hot cross buns on Good Friday, I have gathered recipes from many parts of the British Isles, so that you, too, can try them on this day.

Irish Hot Cross Buns
Wash two potatoes and cut in slices. Cover with two cups of boiling water and cook until tender, turn in fine strainer, and rub through. This will remove the skins. Place two cups of the potato liquid in mixing bowl and add

One-half cup of sugar,
Two teaspoons of salt,
Six tablespoons of shortening.
Stir and cool to 80 degrees Fahrenheit, and then crumble in one yeast cake. Stir again to dissolve the yeast cake and then add
Eight cups of sifted flour, and work to smooth dough. Place in well-greased bowl and let rise for four hours. Turn on the molding board, roll out without handling about one inch thick. Cut with the biscuit-cutter and place on baking sheet about one inch apart. Cut a cross on each bun, and let rise for twenty-five minutes. Bake in hot oven for fifteen minutes and wash with a thin water icing just as soon as you take from the oven.

Scottish Hot Cross Buns
Place in mixing bowl
One cup of leftover cold cooked oatmeal
One and one-half cups of scalded and cooled milk, having the temperature about 80 degrees Fahrenheit,
Three-quarters cup of sugar,
Two teaspoons of salt,
One yeast cake, crumbling in the yeast cake.
Stir to blend, then add
Seven cups of flour, and work to a smooth dough. Now add
One cup of finely chopped citron,
Grated rind of one large orange,
Grated rind of one-half lemon,
One cup of currants.

Work the dough to distribute the fruit, and then place in well-greased bowl and set away to rise in warm place for four hours. Turn on molding board. Cut with scissors in places the size of large egg, form in buns between the hands and place on greased baking sheet about two inches apart. Let rise twenty minutes, then cut a cross on the top of each bun with sharp pair of scissors and brush the buns with a thin strip made of sugar and water. Bake about fifteen minutes in hot oven.

English Hot Cross Buns
Place four tablespoons of butter in saucpan and add
One and one-half cups of milk.
Heat slowly to boiling point and add
One-half cup of sugar.
Stir slowly to dissolve the sugar and turn in mixing bowl and cool to 80 degrees Fahrenheit. Now add
Two teaspoons of salt,
One-half teaspoon of allspice,
One-half teaspoon of nutmeg,
One-half teaspoon of ginger.
Stir to blend, then add and work to a smooth dough. Turn in well-greased bowl and let rise for four hours. Turn on pastry board and roll about one inch thick. Cut with biscuit-cutter and place on baking sheet about one inch apart. Let rise twenty-five minutes, then cut a cross on the top of the bun and place three raisins in the cut and bake in hot oven for fifteen minutes. Brush with thick water icing just as soon as you remove from the oven and dust granulated sugar over the icing while wet.

A Royal Recipe
Place in mixing bowl
Two cups of scalded cream,
Two teaspoons of salt,
One-half cup of sugar,
Four tablespoons of melted butter.
Cool to 80 degrees Fahrenheit then crumble in one yeast cake and stir to dissolve. Now add
One-half teaspoon of ginger,
One-half teaspoon of allspice,
One cup of finely chopped citron,
One cup of seedless raisins,
One cup of finely chopped nuts,
Eight cups of sifted flour.

Work to smooth dough and place in a well-greased mixing bowl and set in warm place to rise for four hours. Now turn on pastry board and roll out without handling about one inch thick. Cut and place on a well-greased baking sheet about one inch apart. Let rise for twenty-five minutes, then cut cross on top of each bun with sharp pair of scissors and brush the buns with a thin strip made of sugar and water. Bake about fifteen minutes in hot oven.

If a Thread Breaks
If you have the misfortune to break threads, making a space too wide, hemstitch each side of the drawn space, with a contrasting colored thread, and the effect will be fine. You could still set in a group of colored threads below or above the hemstitching.

The colored linen handkerchiefs with threads in contrasting colors run in are as popular as ever, and many pretty ways of making these handkerchiefs are seen. The difficult part is in not breaking a thread and thus having to pull too many and making the space too wide.

Mr. Man! It's Time for Earnest Thinking About
Your Easter Suit and This Is the Place to Get It
—Wanamaker's Down Stairs Store

To be really worth while it must be all wool.

An All-Wool Suit

from the Gallery Store for men has satisfaction and service woven into every thread and tailored into every seam. These suits are tailored, not merely pressed. No April shower, no matter how hearty, can take the fit and good lines out of one of these suits.

Business Suits at $25 to $35 are of some of the finest chevots, cassimeres and worsteds that have been used in moderately priced suits for years. All the desirable darker tones of brown, olive, gray and blue are here. Well-tailored tweeds and herringbones are in grays and tans.

Sports Suits at $25 to $32.50

Younger men, particularly, are wearing them and show preference for the coats with belted and pleated backs. Tweeds and herringbones are in various grays and tans.

A Man Can Get Really Excellent Shoes or Oxfords for $5

Conservative shoes and sports oxfords; straight-lace and blucher cut; black and tan leathers. In one thing alone are they alike—the durability of both leathers and workmanship. Some show strips of light fiber in the soles. Some have rubber heels. Others are quite conservative of cut and finish.

Fresh and Pretty Easter Hats
at $3.85

Who would believe that such pretty hats could be made for so small a sum! Such a diversity of styles, colors and shapes, too—something for every face. They are "hats that you and I would wear," as one woman put it—in good taste and very desirable.

Broad-brimmed straws, becomingly short in back and front, have wreaths of pretty flowers or bands of soft silk.

One of the small hats sketched combines bright red straw with navy silk—one of the smartest combinations of the season. Another is of silk combined with hair-cloth, giving the becoming halo edge to the brim.

Braid embroidery is used on the tailored hats and their shapes are decidedly good.

Tweed Takes Many Colors
in Women's Suits

Tan, lavender, rose, green, gray and brown—some in plain colors and others in mixtures. Both tailored and sports styles are here. Two-tone suits have checked skirts and trimming. All of the jackets are nicely lined. $15, $16.50, $23.50 to $35.

Dark Tailored Suits

of tricotine, Poret twill and serge show the new long jackets or the fuller short models. All are very well tailored and finished with great care for detail. $25, $30, $35 to $55.

(Market)

Sale of Peter Pan
Sports Sweaters
$1.85 and $5

Both models are exactly the kind that all women are wearing now. The necks fit up close under the Peter Pan collars and waists and the sleeves fit closely enough to allow cuffs to be pulled out over them.

At $5
(Average Half Price)

Soft light-weight mohair slip-ons in soft shades of buff with stripes of dull red, green; navy with cross-stripes of red and tan; brown with cross-stripes of white and orange; henna with cross-stripes of white.

Some have tasseled belts.

At $1.85

These are of light-weight wool in poppy red, French blue, jade, buff, periwinkle, black, navy, white and gray.

(Central)

Lovely Radium Petticoats Gay
as Easter Flowers

Several styles that are straight of line and graceful, just right for the fashionable skirts.

One has fluted frills, another is quilted, others are hemstitched. Periwinkle, silver, blonde, café au lait, henna, jade, tiger lily, and black and navy, of course. All at $7.50.

(Central)

Young Women's
Polo Coats and Tweeds
$16.50 to $25

For young women these are the Spring coats par excellence. Nothing else is quite so fashionable, quite so smart.

They are tailored on the lines of a man's overcoat, with notch collars, big roomy pockets and raglan shoulders. Most of them have buckled belts.

Polo coats are in soft, creamy shades of tan and herringbone tweeds are in tan and gray. All are lined with silk.

Excellent choosing at $16.50, $22.50, $23.50 and $25.

LUGGAGE

for the Easter Trip

Well designed, strongly constructed hand luggage can be had at very moderate prices in the Down Stairs Store. Every piece is dependable for service and smartly designed for appearance.

Bright Enamel Cases
$3.50

18 and 20 inch sizes in smart little cretonne-lined cases with a pocket in the lid of each.

Wide Choice at $5

Dull or bright enamel cases are in 18, 20, 22 and 24 inch sizes, strongly made with excellent catches and sewed corners.

Extra-Deep at $5

These are the black enamel cases with trays. They're 24 and 26 inches long and will hold enough for quite a trip.

Real Live
Easter Bunnies
$1.50 Each
(The Pet Store, Central)

A Gay Crowd of Easter
Handkerchiefs

All the colors of the rainbow, and some others, will be found in this collection of women's Easter gift handkerchiefs of sheer linen.

Gay-colored borders, at 25c and 35c, and bright solid colors with delicate hand-embroidery and drawn threads or dainty colored linen with edging of snowy point d'esprit, at 50c.

Plain white linen handkerchiefs are 12½c; with white or colored embroidery, 15c.

Men's Initial Handkerchiefs
Special at 25c and 35c Each

(Central)

Hand-Made
Blouses
$2.45—$3.50

$2.45 for two charming Peter Pan styles of sheer batiste.

Also roll-collar and tuxedo-front models with much hand-work.

$3.50 for nearly a half dozen dainty models with roll or tuxedo collars, all edged with real fillet lace.

Every blouse is entirely made by hand and extremely fine and dainty. All regular sizes from 36 to 46.

(Market)

Brassieres
to Wear With Topless
Corsets and Girdles

The great virtue for girdles and very low corsets has brought a need for a specially cut brassiere which will completely conceal the corset line and smooth out the line of the diaphragm.

These are called diaphragm brassieres and are cut straight across the low edge in the front. Some are even lightly boned, some have elastic inserts at the sides.

For the very stout there is a special model which has elastic webbing across the front and elastic concealed in the shoulder straps. $2.50.

Of pink basket weave, silk striped poplin and broche. 50c to $2.50.

(Central)

Prettiest Tub Frocks
for Youngsters of 8 to 14

Most interesting are the frocks with hand smocking, embroidery and dainty touches that distinguish them. Only fine ginghams are used and the dresses are the kinds that mothers like best.

A buff chambray is beautifully smocked in brown at $5.50.

A frock of buff gingham has a very deep hem of brown and growing out of it are daisies embroidered on the buff in brown, $6.75.

A gold checked gingham with black pipings is $6.

A combination frock has a waist of ecru batiste and a pleated button-on skirt of dark blue or brown gingham. $6.75.

The bloomer dress that is sketched is of blue gingham with tan pipings or tan gingham with brown pipings. The belt is of patent leather. 7, 8 and 10 year sizes at $3.85.

A checked gingham dress in red-and-white or black-and-white is trimmed with cross-stitchery. $3.

Other dresses, including Japanese crepes, priced up to $8.

Peter Pan Middies, $1.50

Of fine white jean with a Peter Pan collar, short sleeves and a red lacer. Sizes 8 to 18 years.

Polo Coats, $13.50

A double-breasted coat in dark buff is made with a raglan shoulder and three pockets. 8 to 14 year sizes. (Sketched.)

(Market)

What About the Boy's Easter Suit?

All-Wool Blue Serge Suits With Two Pair of Knickers Are $13.75

That is enough to say to mothers or fathers on the lookout for an Easter suit for the boy of 8 to 18.

These are good, 100 per cent wool suits of blue serge, and the extra knickers mean almost double wear.

The coat is a variation of the Norfolk with patch pockets, inverted pleat in back and belt, and is lined with mohair. Knickers are full cut, have taped seams and are lined throughout.

(Gallery, Market)

Mary Jane Pumps
In Six Different Styles at $9.90

Three have real buckskin backs and straps—lovely soft Spring gray combined with black calfskin or patent leather or light fawn with patent leather. Just what women want to wear with light stockings on Easter!

The other three are entirely of black calfskin, satin or patent leather. All have carefully turned soles and low covered heels.

The exquisite care with which all are finished will appeal to discriminating women who demand a certain high standard in their footwear.
