

1922 is the YEAR FOR PHILADELPHIA SUBURBS

This is an actuality, not a prediction. A wise man will plan accordingly. Home builders are seeing ahead, consequently throughout the Suburban area an unprecedented activity in building trades is apparent. All this has accumulative value for the day of the Suburbs has arrived. The abolishment of tolls—the magnificent highways—the par-excellent transit service—and the high-speed electric lines. The day is rapidly approaching when the Suburbs will honestly share with Philadelphia that world-wide slogan: "The City of Homes." The many exceptional offerings on this page grant you an opportunity to secure either a Suburban Home—Country Estate, Farm or a Building Site.
