Nancy Wynne Tells of Many Doings Which Interest Society Today—Harvard's Dramatic and Musical Clubs to Appear Here This Week

WHAT with Betty Welsh's wedding this afternoon, the Mask and Wig tonight and one thing and another, we are going to be busy little beings, it seems to me. And then there's the Philadelphia Dancing Class meeting at the Ritz for the married set, and those beyond the debutante stage.

The Welsh wedding will take place in St. Paul's Church in the afternoon. You know Betty is marrying Arthur u know Betty is marrying Arthur ul, a brother of Ted Paul, who mar-Paul, a brother of Ted Paul, who married Adeline Pepper, and of Dr. John Paul, whose engagement to Mary Leita Harlan, of Baltimore, was announced on Saturday. Another brother, Bill Paul, is engaged to Adelaide Newlin.

Betty Welsh is the youngest of the Welsh family. Her younger sister, Katherine, you remember, died of influenza during the epidemic. Her elder sister, Maris Welsh, married Louis Madeira, and another sister, Emily, is sister. Maris Welsh, married Louis Madeira, and another sister, Emily, is now Mrs. Billie Myers.

Emily Thayer Dixon's little daughter, Elise, is going to be a little flower girl at the wedding. She is about four years old, and as cute as can be. Her father was Bo Dixon, who was killed in the war. Betty Welsh's mother married Mr. Henry Dixon, you remember, so Bo Dixon and Betty Welsh were step-brother and sister. His widow was Emily Thayer. was Emily Thayer.

Where is my wandering boy tonight?

With the echo of the tremendous applause of thousands of New Yorkers still ringing in its ears and direct from its sensational success at the famous Criterion Theatre, Times Square, Manhattan, comes the picture magnificent - "WHERE IS MY WANDERING BOY TONIGHT?"-the picture with the heart punch, the picture of smiles, tears, laughter, joy, sorrow and happiness all entwined around a beautiful love story.

You'll love the wayward boy, you'll love his mother and his sweetheart. You'll love the picture. It's great. Filmed from the old song of the same name, it presents the cutstanding melodramatic success of the present season. EDNA WALLACE KINNEY, Contralto
