

ON THE LEVEE AT BEARDSTOWN, ILL. A thirty-foot wall of water is raging toward the town as the banks of the Illinois River give way. The C. B. & Q. railroad tracks, the last connection of Beardstown with the outside world, are being torn asunder

SEEK WOMEN'S GOLF HONORS. Mrs. W. M. Weaver (left) and Mrs. J. S. Diaton, Jr., awaited their turn at the Philadelphia Cricket Club, St. Martin's yesterday

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

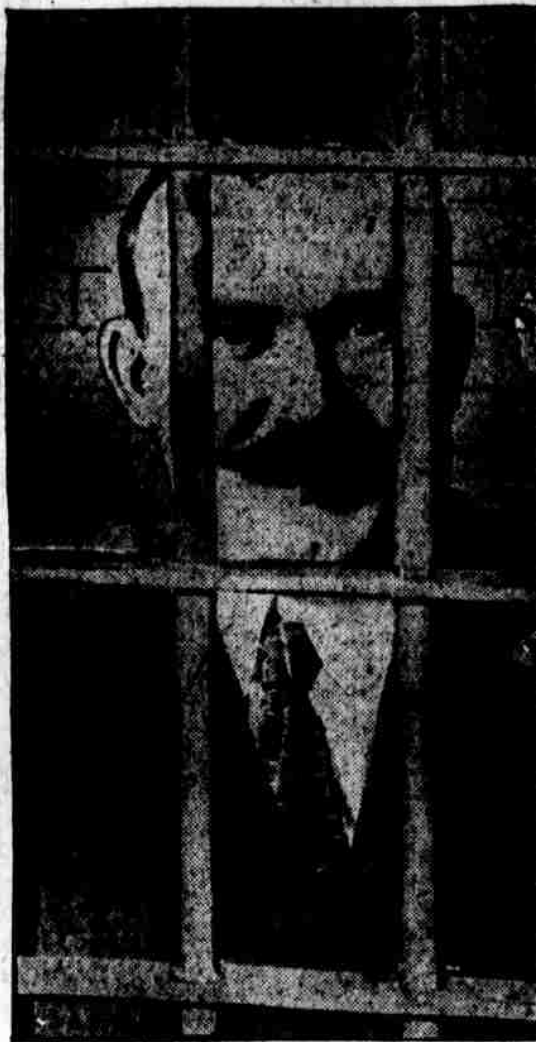

THE OLD ABBEY. This tavern is shown as it looked in 1870. It was located on Wissahickon avenue above Nicetown lane, a site now occupied by part of the Midvale plant. The contributor is Charles W. Kohl, of Milford, Del. If you have a photograph of old Philadelphia, please send it to the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER

THREE STARS AT HONOLULU. Duke Kahanamoku Hawaiian Olympic champion, greets Mary Miles Minter and Charles Paddock, world's sprint champion

MISS AGNES CURLEY, of New York. When a burglar asked her to "shake a cocktail," she said "Sure, I will," but, instead, shouted for help. The intruder was arrested

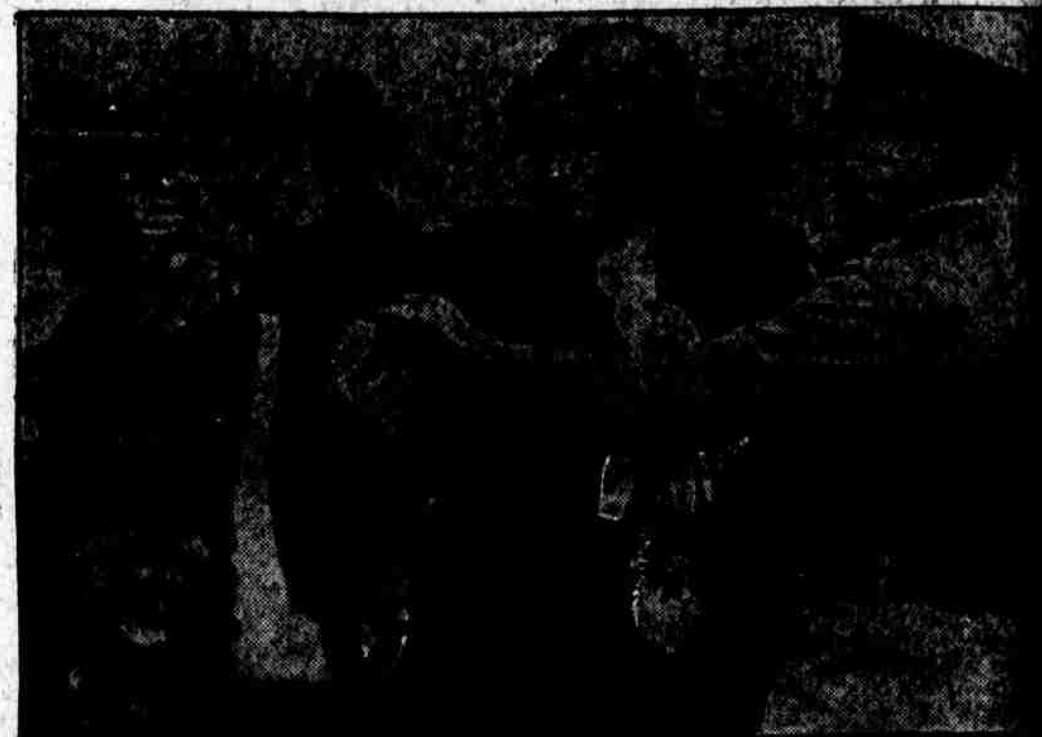

FORMER COSSACK LEADER IN JAIL. General Semenov, photographed in his cell at the Ludlow Street Jail, New York, where he is being held in default of bail in civil suit

WILL HE EMULATE "DAD"? We think not, as Walter Johnson, Jr., aspires to be a catcher. At least, that's what "Walt" has announced

GETTING READY FOR A HARD SCHEDULE. The Navy crew awaiting orders from Coach Dick Glendon, before getting into action, at Annapolis

APPEAR IN COMEDY. Miss Adelaide Barrett (left) and Miss Josephine Woltzen, of the Electric Storage Battery Company Dramatic Club

LEVY STORE'S EMPLOYEES serve as Lim'rick jury. Bottom row, left to right, E. Friedman, Madeline Scanlon, V. W. Voris, Phyllis Henery and Jean Gogel. Top row, Mrs. F. A. Williams, Mary Naguire, Evelyn Westorman and Edith Turvey

MISS CATHARINE EVERETT, of Washington, won the $100 prize for her essay on "The Arms Conference and Its Significance"

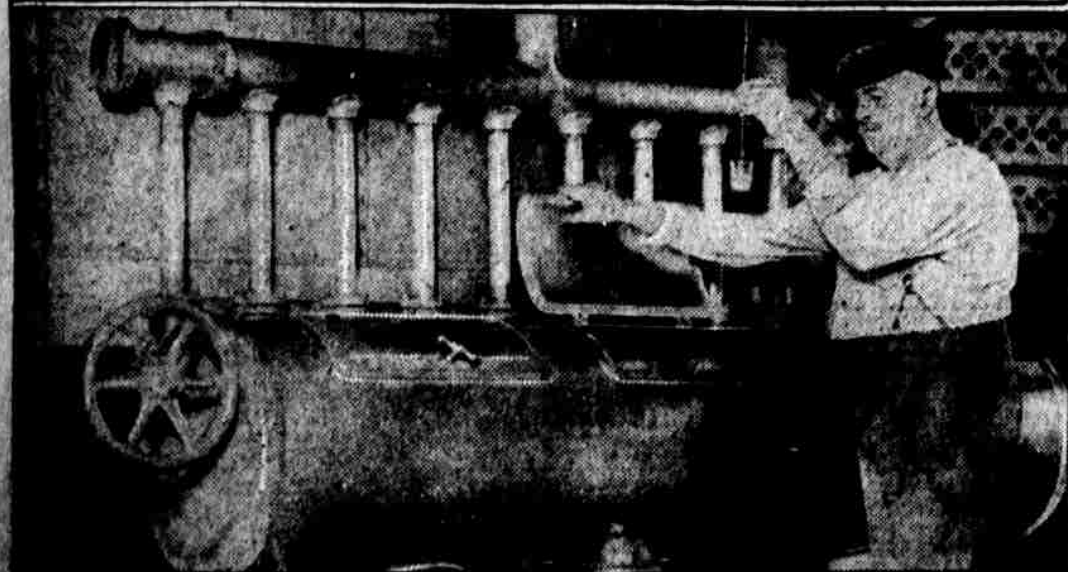

SHE'LL PROTECT A PAYROLL. New York girls connected with the paymaster's department in big business houses are learning to shoot. Army officers at Governor's Island are tutoring them

BUSY PHILADELPHIANS

MISS ELIZABETH POLLARD, a Swarthmore co-ed, appeared in playlet presented by the Little Theatre Club of the college

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

FRITZ BOTH, 1837 North Twenty-ninth street, running off malt mash from tubs in the plant of the Lobeco Malt Extract Company, Twenty-ninth and Parrish streets

TWENTY NURSES FINISH TRAINING. The 1922 class of the Lankenau Hospital Training School for Nurses was graduated yesterday. At the left, Sister Marie Koencke, in black, superintendent of nurses, is chatting with Miss Charlotte Matthews, president of class. Other officers shown are Miss Margaret W. Koch, Miss Kathryn Krauss

ASSISTANT CASHIER. Gino A. Papola, of the Sons of Italy State Bank, Broad and Tasker streets. He is married, has two children and lives at 1613 South Twelfth street. Music is his hobby