

Spring Weather Seems to Double the Charm and Loveliness of Women's New Dresses, Suits and Coats—Wanamaker's

Down Stairs Store

200 Sample Wraps—Special at $18.75

Just one or two and scarcely more than four of a kind, so you can imagine the great variety. There are wraps and capes of velour in reindeer, Pekin, navy, henna, mahogany and light tan and capes of navy serge. Some show deep borders of embroidery; some have wide sleeves, braided or embroidered and often finished with heavy silk tassels. Every one is lined with silk. Savings of $6.25 to $10.

Tweed Sports Coats, $10

Herringbone coats in gray, shot with color, are made with buckled belts, muff and patch pockets and raglan shoulders.

Sports Coats and Capes, $15 to $27.50

$15 for some of the prettiest herringbone capes we have ever seen. They are very soft and of a silvery gray, beautifully cut and finished with leather buttons.

$27.50 for coats of the same materials, lined throughout with silk. Wonderfully smart and coats to be proud of.

$22.50, $23.50 and $25 for light and dark polo coats with box-pleated backs, raglan shoulders and buckled belts. Silk-lined and generously pocketed.

Beautiful Wraps at $25

Light tan capes of fine Poiré twill, with heavy silk fringe trimming the throw scarf, are wonderfully smart and expensive looking.

Another plain cape, of Bolivia, is also in the fashionable cafe shade. Bolivia capes, with heavy silk fringe used at the arm-openings, are in navy blue.

Capes of reindeer velour are gathered at the shoulder and trimmed with silk stitching.

All of these are silk-lined, some are embroidered or button-trimmed and many have throw scarfs.

At $35 to $75

there are all sorts of luxurious wraps and capes—just one or two of a kind and all of the most fashionable materials, beautifully lined.

Boys' All-Wool Suits With Extra Knickers, $10.75

Splendid value—any parent who buys boys' clothing will appreciate getting an all-wool, two-knicker Wanamaker suit at this price.

The outstanding facts about these suits are: 100 per cent wool materials. Good gray cassimere and cheviot mixtures; excellent for school wear.

100 per cent tailoring. Norfolk coats have patch or plain pockets and are lined with mohair. Both pairs of knickers are fully lined, every seam is taped and reinforced; that will insure good, long service.

Sizes for boys of 7 to 17 years. (Gallery, Market)

Beaded Handbags Are Much Lower in Price

Pretty ones can be had for as little as $2 or $2.50 and at $5 and $5.50 there is a really excellent selection.

$5 bags have imitation shell frames, bead handles and taffeta linings.

$5.50 bags have the fashionable draw-string tops and are in exquisite blues and greens, amber tones and dull reds.

A wide variety of interesting imported bags at prices ranging upward to $12. (Central)

Central Aisle New Leather Vanity Cases, $2

Flat ones in envelope shape with braided silken cords and tassels. Each one is fitted with a large mirror, but the flap fastens over so firmly that the case is neat and compact. Made of morocco in gray, red, brown or blue; calf in gray, brown or heaver; seal in black.

Full-Fashioned All-Silk Stockings, $1.75

Pure silk clear to the top! And the heavy firm kind that has such a rich luster. Black only and with slight imperfections that lower the price without really impairing the beauty or the wearing qualities.

Underclothes in Delicate Shades, $1.50

Sets of chemises and step-in bloomers are of the silky plisse crepe in orchid, flesh, honeydew and white, $1.50 a garment.

Nightgowns of soft batiste are in rose, flesh and orchid, $1.50. Envelope chemises of white or flesh nainsook have lace tops and embroidery medallions, $1.50.

6 1/2-Inch Moire Ribbon 42c Yard

All-silk moire with a satin edge—the kind used now for sashes and hat trimmings. Excellent colors, such as navy, black, brown, light blue, pink, old rose, Copenhagen, cardinal and white.

Men's All-Wool Clothing Is the Only Kind Worth Buying

A sweeping statement, but as true as it is inclusive. Men's outer clothing to give the best appearance, the best service and the best all-around satisfaction must be all-wool.

That is the standard of the Gallery Store for Men—all-wool fabrics and sound tailoring. It is because we are so sure of our quality that we can unhesitatingly recommend:

Men's all-wool business suits of tweeds, cassimeres, worsteds, serges and chevots at $25 to $35.

Men's all-wool sports suits with fancy backs, of tweeds, herringbone weaves and cassimeres at $25 to $32.50.

Men's all-wool trousers to complete old suits and bring them into service again. $1.50 to $7.50. (Gallery, Market)

Men's Half Hose, 50c

Men have proven the durability and lasting good appearance of half hose made of plated fiber silk. These feel and look like silk and are heavy in weight and finely knitted. Toes, heels and tops are of mercerized cotton for extra wear.

In black, cordovan, navy, gray and Palm Beach. (Gallery, Market)

Men's Percalé Shirts, $1.50

Plenty of pin stripes and other narrow stripes in black, blue, brown and the colors men like. The percalé is good and will launder well. Shirts are cut on Wanamaker dimensions, which means the maximum of comfort and serviceability.

Spring Pajamas, $2.65

Of smooth, closely woven, mercerized cotton in tan, blue, lavender or pink. (Gallery, Market)

Men's New Brogue Oxfords, $6.50

Just arrived and ready for the men who have been looking for just such Oxfords at just such a low price!

They have straight or semi-wing tips and perforations. Of black and tan calfskin of sturdy quality; they have thick welted soles for real service.

The Music Makers by DADDY

CHAPTER V
Fred the Fiddler Makes Foes

Jack and Janet thought they now could end quickly the singing war. They would leave to Fred the Fiddler the decision as to which were the better music-makers, the birds or the frogs.

"Fred the Fiddler, not being under the spell, as were Jack and Janet, understood what the birds and frogs and birds are making a because they are at war," said "They are at war because the claim they are better music-makers than the frogs and the frogs are better music-makers than you. You know all about music; you settle the matter for a short time." Fred frowned a moment and answered.

"Fred the Fiddler couldn't understand the threat but Jack and Janet could. He worried them for they did not want the sweet tunes of Fred the Fiddler to be away before he could catch them and give them to the world. "Now hear us sing," boasted General Purple Swallow. "We will show you that for music-makers we are." General Swallow turned to the birds. "Go!" he screamed. The birds thrilled and screeched and rattled and hooted. Again Fred the Fiddler covered his

Adventures With a Purse
The way of it was this. I needed a pair of gray silk stockings, and when financial difficulties which we all have more lightly made it necessary for me to find the most inexpensive pair compatible with the most appropriate. I told the obliging shop-keeper my trouble and my need. Out came a pair of silk stockings, of heavy silk and good quality, with a red and tan hem built up the inside of them. "Don't!" I gasped in horror. "It's quite all right," she smiled. "There are lots of indestructible silk." I asked that they can be had in most of the standard colors, including black and are specially priced from now till the first of May at $1.45 a pair.

WHAT'S WHAT
By Helen Dece

When a girl without an escort calls on her friends in the evening, the friend who is to take her home should not be in a hurry to get her out of the house. It is better to wait until she has had a chance to get her things together and to see that she is really ready to go. If a telephone call comes during the visit, the girl's family should be notified so that they will be ready to go out alone at night. The girls of limited leisure have to make the most of their calling occasions.
