

BOOT CIGAR STORE, ROB PEDESTRIANS

Active Auto Bandits Uptown Make Off With $1000 in Booty

EVEN TAKE A LAST CIGAR

Four motor bandits with a taste for tobacco last night cut a wide swath in the northeast section of the city, holding up a cigar store and two separate and belated wayfarers, and got booty valued at about $1000.

At 11:30 they drove up to the two-story store of F. Kuhn & Bro., 437 West Girard avenue, and broke in the front door. They found $700 in the till, and on their way out annexed a box containing ten cartons of cigarettes. As they were leaving, an automobile driven by Alphonso Meyers, 1337 Germantown avenue, chanced to draw up to the curb in front of their machine. Thinking he intended to cut off escape, they fired at him, backed out and drove rapidly away. He reported the matter to the police of the Trenton avenue and Dauphin street station.

An hour later John Haggerty, 2232 Lately street, was held up at Tulip and Lately streets by five men who jumped from an automobile, pressed five revolvers against his person and asked him to relinquish what valuables he had. They departed with a gold knife, a gold watch and a gold chain, all valued at $75. He reported the loss to the police of the Front and Master streets station.

An hour after that, as Ernest Steinmeyer, 5122 Duffield street, was walking his way home, he was stopped by four motor bandits who knocked him against a wall and took a gold watch and chain, a diamond stickpin and $15 in cash. Then they found one good cigar in his vest pocket, which was lit and once by the leader of the gang. His loss, estimated at $115, was reported to the police of the Paul and Ryan streets station.

THALIAN CLUB GIVES SHOW

"45 Minutes From Broadway" Followed by Dance at Lu Lu Temple

The Thalian Club of the Episcopal Church of Our Saviour, Third, Fifth and Chestnut streets, gave an entertainment and dance at Lu Lu Temple last night.

"Forty-five Minutes From Broadway" was presented by a cast headed by Miss Mary Burroughs as Mary, and Harold Wrigley as Kid Burns. The staging and the costumes were excellent, and one was inclined at times to forget that it was an amateur production.

BIRTH OF KITTENS CAUSE OF FLAMES

Four Little Ha-has Indirectly Blamed for Chestnut Street Fire

BORN IN HUYLER'S CELLAR

When the four little kittens of Minne-ha-ha became old enough they probably be proud of the excitement caused over their birth—for their arrival in the world this morning was the indirect cause of a fire in Huyler's ready shop, 1320 Chestnut street.

Minne-ha-ha, a rather sober-minded cat, makes her home in the cellar of the store and, although conservative, is well liked. When the store opened this morning George Maxwell, an employee, heard Minne meowing. It was not a wail of woe, but one tinged with pride. He struck a match and found Minne in merry mood. Nestled close to her were four little Ha-has, who seemed to be glad they had been let into the world.

While Maxwell was admiring the family the lighted match fell into a pile of waste paper. Smoke quickly obscured the little family while flames jumped from pile to pile of paper. Maxwell quickly carried the Ha-ha family to safety and spread the news: "The employees who had just reported for work a few minutes before 9 o'clock kept cool and went quietly to the street."

Chestnut street was soon clogged with fire apparatus, trolley cars, mounted policemen, automobiles and "strangers." The blaze, which was the second in this establishment during the last two weeks, was soon subdued with small loss.

Minnie and her little Ha-has were singed, but safe.

FELTON ELKINS TO WED

Plans to Marry California Divorcee, Says Rumor

Rumor has it that Felton Elkins, a son of the late William L. Elkins, of this city, is soon to marry Mrs. Lansing K. Tevis, a divorcee. Both Mrs. Tevis and Mr. Elkins are at present making their home in New York.

Mr. Elkins inherited a fortune from his father, who was a member of the Widener-Elkins syndicate that amassed huge fortunes in street railways. Mrs. Tevis was formerly a Boston girl, but has been living for a number of years in California.

Doctor Conwell's Earnest Appeal to the Generous People of Philadelphia

AN OPPORTUNITY such as no city ever had is now yours. For thirty-five years you have maintained the Temple University until it has furnished an education of College grade to more than 100,000 industrious students. The time has now come to give its great advantages to all the young people above the common school grade. In its success Catholic, Protestant and Jew are alike to be benefited. With its full-time and half-day departments for working people and present enrollment of 8100, you now have the chance to make Philadelphia the best educated city in America. Each of the following departments needs at once another building:

- The College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- The Teachers' College
- The College of Commerce
- The School of Law
- The School of Medicine
- The School of Dentistry
- The School of Pharmacy and Clinical Research
- The School of Music

Who will construct a memorial or endow one of these buildings? President Conwell will be glad to confer with any generous citizen concerning this great object.
