

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

DO YOU EVER WATCH THE KIDDIES PLAY AT WATERVIEW RECREATION CENTER? Etching shows how the site looked in 1904, long before work was started to improve it. The playground is located at Haines and McMahon streets, Germantown, covering a five-acre plot. Miss Margaret Williams, 1254 South Forty-fifth is the contributor. If you have an old-Philadelphia photograph, send it to the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.

HARVARD'S ONE GOAL WAS PLENTY. The camera caught a little action during the lacrosse match between the New England team and Penn on Franklin field yesterday afternoon. There was action everywhere all the time. At the right we show you T. C. P. att, winning captain.

IT MUST BE GOOD. Lloyd George is telling one on a London taxi driver. N. Barhou, of France, pays strict attention. They're at Genoa. Keystone View.

MARCH WINDS IN APRIL. It is too soon after Easter to buy new hats, so the girls held on tight, as they went to lunch.

LISTENING IN. Betty Compson, movie star, listens to reception given one of her new pictures on a first night in San Francisco. A radio outfit did the trick. Underwood & Underwood.

MISS LOUISE GIFFORD

MISS JERRY MEYER

HE'S SIX-FEET-SIX. James Gleason, attorney of Clearfield, snapped on Broad street.

THEY SURE CAN PLAY. H. Roby (top) and William Grady, laddermen of Truck No. 4, Fourth and De Lancey streets, are members of the company's jazz band.

THEY DEFEATED PENN AND OXFORD. Stallard, of the Cambridge relay team, taking the baton from Seagroves as they had a comfortable lead in the four-mile International relay race. U. & U.

HARDWICK & MAGEE EMPLOYEES SERVE AS LIM'RICK JURY. Bottom row (left to right), Esther Allebach, Marguerite Heiprich, Margaret Blase and Roscoe Hunter. Top row, Walter Waldie, Gertrude Doroshow, James Conley, William C. Moore, Norman Greene, Arthur Hurth and Charles Gray, Jr.

VERY YOUNG. Police dogs owned by Mrs. Albert De Wolf, of 828 East Price street, Germantown. They were born a month ago.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

EDWARD HOLZER, 2331 South Seventeenth street, operating a lens-grinding machine in the factory of D. V. Brown, manufacturing optician, 738 Sansom street.

Senora Dona Ana de Diaz, of Honduras

Madame Vallejo, of Argentina

Madame Bonet, of Cuba

Miss Manuela Lloveras, of Argentina

RECEIVING TELLER. Harry A. Benson, of the Tradesmen's National Bank. He is married, has one child and lives at Haddon Heights, N. J. Motoring is his hobby.

ENTERTAINING THEIR COUNTRYWOMEN. Four members of Washington's diplomatic circles, hostesses to Pan-American Conference of Women delegates. Harris & Ewing.