SLIGHT ADVANCES RECORDEB ON CURB

Market Fails to Keep Step With Vigorous Gains on Stock Exchange

New York, April 22.—Price movements on the Curb market were irregular today, the market failing to keep step with the vigorous advances on the New York Stock Exchange. While some stocks made advances, the gains were of only moderate amount and without special importance, except in a few issues.

Hudson's Company preferred was one of the strongest features, continuing its upward movement and selling at 109¾, a new high record. Durant Motors was firm with early trading at 38¼, and the Indiana stock was actively traded in, ranging from 16¾ to 16¼. Continental Motors was firm, selling at 8¼ to 8⅛. Reo Motortruck was traded in on a large scale at 24½ to 25.

Petroleum stocks were without special change, Standard Oil of Indiana advancing from 95⅝ to 96¼. Mexican Seaboard was a prominent feature, moving up from 41⅝ to 44. Fensland sold at 13⅞ to 14¼. Simms Petroleum ranged from 11 to 11⅝.

HERE'S THE "CONSOLATION" LIM'RICK TO END CONTEST

The other contestants who won places on the ballot and can therefore compete for today's Consolation Lim'rick are: John Whalen, Jasper and Ontario streets; Eleanor Evans, 1245 South Twenty-third street; John Humpton, Parkesburg, Pa.; M. E. Teal, 6023 Westminster avenue; C. H. Renshaw, Phoenixville, Pa.; E. B. Hause, 1819 Chestnut street; Raymond Hazlitt, 639 Belgrade street; H. Lloyd Waller, Lancaster, Pa.

The winner got two lines on the ballot so there are only eight other names.

The jury was composed of the employes of the Fleck Brothers Company, who make plumbing supplies and live at 50 North Fifth street. After going up steps and turning many corners, we finally found Miss Uhlman, who in turn took us around a great many more corners until we found the jury. And they were a very nice jury, and we were sorry they were our last.

Those who served are: Harriet Alburger, Westmont, N. J.; Edith Willet, 201 North Horton street; Elizabeth Buggy, 1224 North Fifty-third street; Marion Coll, 1017 South Sixtieth street; Elsie Uhlman, 4620 Wayne avenue; Mrs. H. B. Dohner, Llanerch, Pa.; Edith Lutz, 653 Preston street; Bessie Cocker, 1206 Holton street; Mae Riemer, 1224 Sergeant street; Emily Cocman, 1808 North Fifteenth street; Helen Beers, Norwood, Pa.; Bertha Hamilton, 1337 North Fifty-eighth street, and Oscar Willet, 730 North Thirty-eighth street.
