There will be no ushers. At the same hour there will be the Page-Starr wedding in old St. Peter's Church, at Third and Pine streets, where Edith Page's sister Mary and John Platt were married on February 15. There was quite a snowstorm that day, too. I am glad Edith is having a better day, though the bad weather did not seem to keep any one away from the first Page wedding. St. Peter's has an especially fine choir, and I hear that they will sing this afternoon at the wedding. I remember at Evig Smith's (Mrs. Harry Adams' daughter) and Freddy Lee's marriage at St. Mark's the year before last there was some lovely music, and also at the Packard-Church wedding last June

There can be no doubt that the American and British peoples are linked together by more than ordinary ties of friendship, and the petty prejudices of a few can, fortunately, have but little bad effect.
