JUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE Nancy Wynne Sees Some Clever Acting at Little Theatre. She Talks of the Many June Weddings. Charlotte Cushman Club Benefit

WELL, I went to the opening perwight, and it was awfully good. Mary Brestine Coleman made a very cute beroine. She certainly can dance and you should have seen her "patter specified" with Jack Whiting. Of course, he was great and made a fine hero swrything he did was encored and the sudience seemed quite thrilled to think that he will soon be in the Ziegfield Follies, where he ought to be a howing success if last night's applause was any augur. The choruses were splendid and danced very well. The vegetable pate scene was perfect. I nearly died at Kitty Porter and Phyllis Walsh as saparagus, and Mary Fahnestock and Nancy Dunning were sweet as two young radiehes. Mrs. Harrison Chanse was a fascinating French actress and did a wonderful "tango argentin" with Bhering de Matton in a cabaret scene. He is a real Argentinian, by the way, and is a boarder at Chestnut Hill Academy now. He surely did shaka a mean foot last night. Deborah Seal was a scream singing a song to the effect that she wanted a man to take her 'round in a Ford sedan. She allow of the strength of the strengt

Absolutely everybody was there and I saw a great many I knew. There will be lots of theatre parties given for t during the week. Mr. and Mrs. will be lots of theatre parties given for it during the week. Mr. and Mrs. William McAdoo will give one tomorrow night for their daughter Peggy (who's coming out next winter and is awfully nice), and Dr. and Mrs. Wilbur Klapp will give one Friday night, and there will be a great many

THERE will certainly be a crowd of June weddings, Lenore McCall's and Norman MacLeish's will be the first as theirs will be on June 1.

That Saturday, the 3d, will be the wedding of Catherine Cassard and Thomas McKoy, Jr., Baltimore. Patty Baker's and Benjamin Grigg's, of St.
Paul, Minn., was scheduled for that day, too, but it was changed to Satwrday, May 27, the same day that Priscilla Morris and Kenton Eisenbrey have finally decided on; on June 7, Wednesday, Elisabeth Eillott Miller and Lieutenant Scott G. Lamb, United Battes Navy, of Ohio, will be married; en Saturday, June 10, there will be three weddings, almost as bad as last flaturday when there were four, Sarah Harrison and Phil Price, Barbara flargent, of New Haven, Conn., and George Grove, Jr., and Frances Leiper and Thomas Ridgway Barker, Jr.

Barbara Sargent is a cousin of Weir Barbara Sargent is a cousin of Weir Bargent, who married Phoebe Downs, and of Robert Fisher, who married Atlee Downs. She is a friend of Mar-Atlee Downs. She is a friend of Margaretta Sharpless' and has stayed with her in Chestnut Hill several times. George Grove is the son of the late Mr. George W. Grove of this city, and of Mrs. Duncan Campbell, of Woodbury. He is a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Grove, of Germantown. Their wedding will take place in New Haven. Miss Phoebe Phillips and Mr. Alfred Coxe Prime will be married on the following Wednesday, the 14th, and then, on Saturday, the 17th, will be two interesting weddings, that of Polly Thayer and Hoffman Dolan, and, in Boston, that of Katherine Coolidge and Goeffrey Smith, son of Mrs. Edward B. Smith, of Temora, Gwynedd Valley. On Monday, the 26th, we have the welding of Peggy Graham and Devereux on alonday, the 25th, we have the welding of Peggy Graham and Devereux Josephs, of Baltimore, in Newport. I suppose a great many of Peggy's friends will go up for it, That Wednesday. June 28 Jane Yeatman and Ernest Savage will be married out in Chestnut Hill.

THERE seems to be almost as much of a rush for June wedding dates exhibition of their work, followed by an informal tea, which they will give at 1700 Pine street on April 27, 28 and 29. as there is for tea dates next fall.

They say that practically every aftermoon beginning with the end of September until nearly Christmas has been taken by one of next winter's debs taken by one of next winter's debathere are over ninety already, you know, and it seems as if every one of them is planning tea. They're beginning to ask their friends to receive with them en the day of their teas, too. I heard ene girl say that three of her friends had asked her just last week.

Won't it be exciting to see all "the sweet young things" next fall? I'll sever forget how disgusted I was when some kind old lady called me that at my first tea.

MRS. FRED LEVIS, she was Louis Butterworth, you remember, is most attractive these days in a dark brown shiny straw hat, with brown and tan feathers falling over the brim en either side have you noticed how popular the combination of brown and can is this spring, and a brown cape over a tan crepe de chine dress, tan stockings and brown slippers?

THE Charlotte Cushman Club benefit THE Charlotte Cushman Club benefit at the Walnut Street Theatre this afternoon sounds most interesting. Besides the well-known actors and actresses who will he there, including Sothern and Marlowe and Elsie Ferguson, there will be tableaux of famous actresses, posed by well-known Philadelphiane. Gainsborough's Mrs. Siddona will be posed by Mrs. Sydney Hutchinson, Ellen Terry as Portia will be done by Mrs. Walter Waring Hopkinson.
Uytendale Caner will pose as Ethel Barrymore, and Mrs. George Lorimer will be Shakespeare's Catherine; Fannie Wister will represent her famous ancestor, Fannie Kemble, whom she resembles, and Fanny Davenport will be Bosed by a niece of the same name.
