THE housewife often feels that if she could bring some new and different varieties of flavoring perhaps the family would enjoy the old standbys that are served so frequently.

Try the flavoring the old-fashioned pie pudding.

No. 1. a teaspoon of grated lemon rind and one teaspoon of vanilla.

No. 2. one-half teaspoon of nutmeg and one teaspoon of lemon extract.

No. 3. one teaspoon of orange extract and half teaspoon of vanilla.

No. 4. half teaspoon each of orange and lemon extract, with one teaspoon of vanilla.

No. 5. half teaspoon each of lemon, vanilla, orange and nutmeg extracts.

No. 6. half teaspoon of raspberry and orange extracts.

The above variety of flavoring may also be used for tapioca pudding, brown betty, custards and cornstarch puddings.

The old chef has a new and delicious ginger filling for lady cake. Try it and you, too, will add to your pet recipe.

Put together with the filling and then ice with water icing.

Lemon Orange Jelly
Measure three-fourths cup and add Juice of two lemons.

Soak one envelope of gelatin in one-half cup of cold water for half an hour. Place in saucepan.

Three-quarters cup of water.
One cup of sugar.

Cook for six minutes, then add gelatin and stir to dissolve; then cool, and while the gelatin is cooling rinse mold with cold water and pack in cracked ice.

Add the orange and lemon juices to cooled gelatin and pour in mold, a layer about one-half inch deep. Now cover the chilled gelatin with thin layer of finely chopped nuts.

Cover with layer of gelatin, and when this layer is firm add layer of finely minced preserved ginger; cover with layer of gelatin and then place mold in refrigerator until needed, planning to have the gelatin stand about one and a half hours; turn on large platter, cut in slices and serve in crisp nest of lettuce with whipped cream for a fruit salad.

Sagmore Ginger Pudding
This Old English pudding is delicious, and will surely please the family. Place in mixing bowl.

One cup of brown sugar.
One-half cup of shortening.
Yolks of two eggs.
Cream well and add
Three and one-half cups of flour.
Two tablespoons of baking powder.
One teaspoon of ginger.
One-half teaspoon of nutmeg.
One-half teaspoon of allspice.
One teaspoon of cinnamon.
One cup of black coffee.
One-half cup of chopped nuts.
One-half cup of chopped raisins.

Beat well to mix and then fold in the stiffly beaten whites of two eggs; turn in well-greased and floured mold and steam for one and a half hours. Serve with angel sauce.

Angel Sauce
Cream
One cup of confectioners' sugar.
Yolk of one egg.
Two tablespoons of butter.
Now add
Three tablespoons of boiling water.
A portion of Calceonian cream.
Whip up well and flavor with two teaspoons of vanilla extract.

To prepare the Calceonian cream, place the white of one egg in mixing bowl and add

After-Dinner Tricks

No. 147—The Three Aces

The aces of clubs, spades and diamonds are exhibited in a fan. One at a time each ace is pushed into the center of the pack. When this has been done, the top card is turned over, and proves to be the ace of diamonds, which, but a moment before was lost in the depths of the pack.

The "face of diamonds" originally shown is actually the ace of hearts. By holding the cards as shown in the diagram, only the tip of the heart appears, and it is mistaken for a diamond. The real ace of diamonds is on the top of the pack all the time. The three fanned aces are turned face down before they are pushed into the pack; hence the true identity of the camouflaged ace of hearts is not disclosed.

One-half glass of apple or quince jelly.

Use Dover style egg beater and whip until the cream will hold its shape.

Spanish Chocolate Cake

Place in mixing bowl
One and three-quarters cups of sugar.
One-half cup of shortening.
Yolks of two eggs.
Cream well and add
One-half cup of cocoa.
One cup of mashed potatoes.
Three cups of sifted flour.
Two level tablespoons of baking powder.
One teaspoon of cinnamon.
One-half teaspoon of nutmeg.
One teaspoon of vanilla.
One cup of black coffee.
One cup of chopped nuts.

Beat well to blend and add
Three-quarters cup of finely chopped nuts.

One-half cup of preserved ginger, chopped fine.

Turn in two well-greased deep layer-cake pans and bake in moderate oven for thirty minutes. Then place together as follows: Whip white of one egg and one-third cup of confectioners' sugar to meringue, one teaspoon of orange extract to make filling.

For the icing for cake, place in bowl
White of one egg.
Three tablespoons of water.
One teaspoon of vanilla.
Beat and add slowly
One cup of confectioners' sugar.
One-half cup of cocoa.

Little Benny's Notebook

By Leo Pope

Me and Puds Simkins was wawking to skool, wawking exter slow on account of it being such a grata day we dident feel like wawking there at all, me saying, G, this is a peeton of a day all rite, feel that breeze, would you, listen to those berds, would you.

Who ever invented skool on a day like this? sed Puds.

And we kep on wawking and wishing we was wawking some place else, and after a wile Puds sed, Hay! I tell you lets wat, and I sed, Wat? and he sed, Lets toss up a cent weather to cut skool this afternoon or not, if it comes heds we'll go and if it comes tales we wont.

G, a rite, it wont be our fault if it comes tales, it will just be a axident, I sed, and Puds sed, Sure, we was willing to go if it came heds, wasent we?

And he took a cent out of his pants pocket and tossed it up, saying, Heds we go tales we dont, and it came down heds, me saying, Aw heck, thats a derty trick, well I tel you lets wat, lets make it the best out of it.

All rite, thats a good idee, sed Puds. And he tossed it up agen and wat did it come down but heds agen, Puds saying, Well, we'll try it just once more, we'll give it a chance.

And he tossed it up agen and it came down heds agen as if that was all it knew, me saying, Aw good nite, toss it up just once more to make it a even number, this will be the last.

Wich it was, on account of coming down tales, and me and Puds quick started to wawk out to the park, me saying, Well, it was pure luck, it aint our fault, and Puds saying, The cent did it all rite, nobody cant say it wazent just luck.
