By Mrs. M. A. Wilson Copyright, 1922, by Mrs. M. A. Wilson. All rights reserved.

THE housewife realizes that the warm weather is just in the offing, and unless she is willing to take a little extra time and trouble the family will show signs of spring fever or languor. The menu this week will be a vegetable one, and will include some special recipes that even the most confirmed meat-eater will enjoy. Suggestive menu for three meals on Sunday:

The market basket will require: Grapefruit, oranges, strawberries, celery, radishes, green peppers, tomatoes, eggplant, new potatoes, watercress, peas, parsley, can of corn, onions, eggs, bacon and the usually weekly staples.

Grilled Tomatoes
Wipe tomatoes with damp cloth and cut in half. Dip lightly in flour, then in melted butter and broil, or pan.

Stuffed and Baked Green Peppers
Select medium-size peppers and remove seeds. The tomatoes for the evening meal may also be prepared and baked at the same time. To prepare the filling place in mixing bowl:

One cup of canned corn,
One tablespoon of grated onion,
One tablespoon of flour,
Two tablespoons of finely minced parsley,
Two tablespoons of fine breadcrumbs,
One teaspoon of salt,
One-half teaspoon of pepper,
One-quarter teaspoon of thyme,
Three well-beaten eggs,
Three tablespoons of melted butter.

Mix and fill into the prepared peppers, and place peppers in baking dish, adding one-half cup of boiling water to dish to prevent peppers burning while baking. Bake in moderate oven.

Use same filling for the tomatoes, and about five minutes before serving lay a thin slice of bacon over each pepper. Pare eggplant and cut in thick slices. Sprinkle lightly with salt, stand aside for one hour, then wash and wipe dry. Dip in flour, then in a dip made of beaten egg and milk; then roll in fine breadcrumbs. Fry in golden brown quickly in smoking hot fat, and place in oven for ten minutes to finish cooking. To serve, lift the baked pepper on slice of eggplant and pour over the pepper three tablespoons of parsley sauce.

Strawberry Whip
Wash berries and lay on cloth to dry. Now stem and cut in bits. You will require:

One and three-quarters cups of oat berries.
Add
One orange, cut in bits,
Two tablespoons of candied ginger, cut in bits.
Place on ice to chill.
Place in bowl
White of one egg,
One-half glass of quince or apple jelly.

Whip, using Dover-style eggbeater, until the mixture forms a perfect meringue. Now fold in one cup of whipped cream and the prepared berries.

Sponge Cake
Place in mixing bowl
Three-quarters cup of sugar,
Folks of two eggs,
Cream well and add
Four tablespoons of cold water,
One cup of sifted flour,
Two level teaspoons of baking powder.

Beat to blend, then fold in the stiffly beaten whites of the two eggs. Turn in well-greased and floured pan, with tube in center, and bake for thirty minutes in moderate oven.
