

THOUSANDS JOIN IN PAYING HOMAGE TO GRANT. The parade is shown as it passes along Pennsylvania avenue in Washington on way to Botanical Gardens where exercises were held. The Treasury Building is shown in background

DENIES SHE IS ENGAGED. Mrs. Enrico Caruso, widow of the famous tenor, was to marry Commander Arthur Wagstaff, U. S. N., according to rumor. Wide World

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

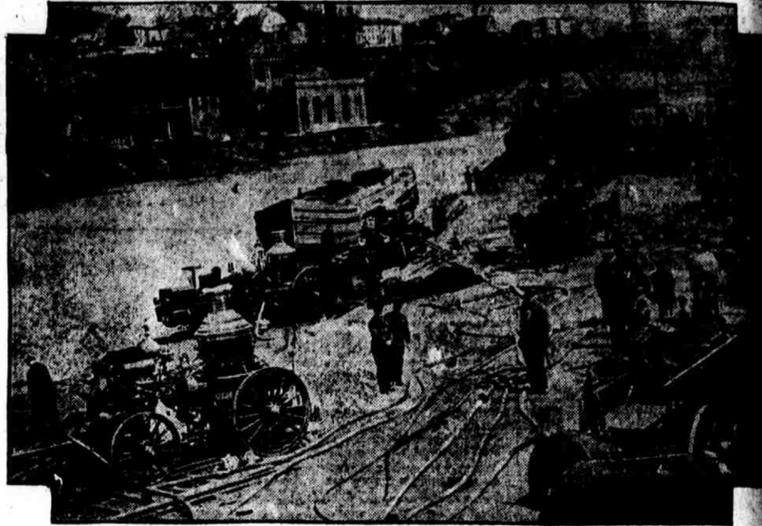

THE MARGEE HOUSE ON THE WISSAHICKON. It was used by the Century Wheelmen as a club house in 1895. The photograph was made during that year. C. H. Miller, of 3215 North Park avenue, is the contributor. If you have an old Philadelphia photograph, please send it to the EVENING PUBLISHERS

IT WAS A BIG DAY. Members of the Philadelphia Racquet Club held their annual spring golf tournament at Pine Valley yesterday. We show you Thomas M. Rival (left) and George L. Thompson

VOLLEY BALL EXPERTS. Miss Edna Case and Miss Edith Owens at the Kensington Y. M. C. A., 1081 Lehigh avenue

AT THE FIRE IN MANAYUNK. Several fire engines pumped water from the Manayunk canal as the firemen fought the $1,000,000 blaze in the Nixon Paper Company plant yesterday

JOHN MAXWELL. One of the Racquet Club star golfers caught in action

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

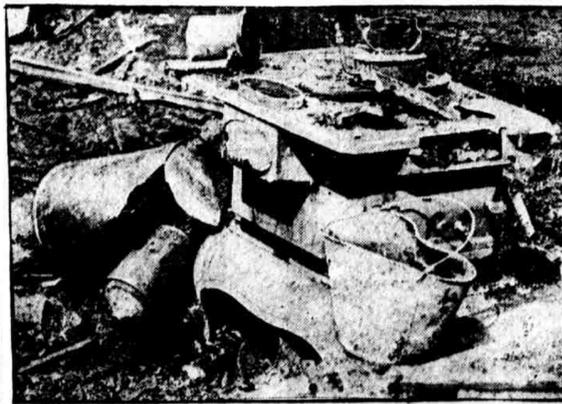

FRANK J. SMITH, 3812 Race street, repairing a punctured tire at the plant of the Roney Tire & Rubber Co.

NEWTON WYMAN, captain of the P. M. C. baseball team. He plays second base

PICKING VIOLETS IN HER VIOLET DRESS. Mrs. George A. Huhn, 3d, has volunteered to serve as a model during the fashion show to be held in connection with the dog and pony show in Wynnewood May 17

BOY BURNS TO DEATH FOLLOWING EXPLOSION. The etching shows stove damaged by explosion in the cellar at 1820 South Water street. At the right is Charles Idmets. He was in the cellar when his brother John was fatally burned

AT ARABIAN NIGHTS MASQUERADE BALL. It was held in New York. Miss Malda Merchant in costume

SHE HAS WON SIXTEEN BLUE RIBBONS. Mary Louise Bobb, of New Orleans, claims the beauty championship of the South P. & A.

BUSY PHILADELPHIANS

MISS RHODA BROOK will be one of the aides at the Indoor Horse Show

CASHIER. Frank Adthead, of the Second National Bank of Frankford. He is married, has two children and lives at 1014 Herbert street. His hobby is automobiling