"SOMEBODY'S STENOG"

By A. E. HAYWARD

The Comic with a big appeal among women, which has been such a great favorite among EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER readers, six days a week, will also be featured in a full page as a part of the ALL-STAR Comic Section of the Sunday PUBLIC LEDGER

Beginning Tomorrow, April 30

OH,
 GRACIOUS!
 WHAT'LL THOSE SUNDAY PUBLIC
 LEDGER READERS THINK?

Miss "Cam O'Flage" is highly regarded as a real, living, human character who performs daily as "Somebody's Stenog" at the head of a troupe of sprightly actors.

Camille, being a lovable young woman, comparable to Rose Stahl's famous "Chorus Lady," is invaluable to her employer, "The Boss," and by the sharpness of her tongue and by excellent application of "woman's intuition" always puts to rout her myriad of sentimental lovers and the army of grafters seeking the "Boss" sanctum.

"Somebody's Stenog" is said, by leading newspapers of this country, to be the first comic feature having a stronger appeal among women than among men. This is because it carries no salacious suggestions. Every one is in sympathy with Cam's wholesome and witty philosophy of life and her strenuous tactics in safeguarding "The Boss" against intruders.

Meet "Somebody's Stenog" every day during the week, on the Comic Page of the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER, and beginning April 30, make a "date" with "CAM" every Sunday.
