

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

ALONG THE SCHUYLKILL RIVER IN 1884. The picture shows the old Columbia Bridge, which was removed about a year later to make way for a steel construction span, recently replaced by a handsome concrete structure. Miss Balle Houston Greene, 279 West Tulpehocken street, sent the photograph for this pictorial feature. If you have an old Philadelphia view, please send it to the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER

ONE PERSON was killed and many injured on the steamship Island Queen, when a deck collapsed while the boat was on its way from Cincinnati to the Grant Centenary at Point Pleasant, O.

MOST PHOTOGRAPHED back in America. The camera's eye has "seen" the back of Miss Flo Cunningham 2146 times

VISITING PHILADELPHIA FOR A WEEK. Denver Otto, the biggest of the many elephants with the Sells-Floto Circus

"JUST THREE CENTS SHORT." That's what "Tommie" Clark told the photographer after the boy was snapped in front of the circus billboard

SUNDAY AFTERNOON ON BROAD STREET. Miss Frances Swalm was in the throng seen near Columbia avenue

OH, GIRLS, WHEN WILL YOU STOP? Mildred McKay, of Milwaukee, has startled the folk of that Wisconsin City by painting on her leg a picture of her beau

PADEREWSKI, the Polish pianist, as he "looked" when he was eighteen. The doll likeness is in the hands of the creator, Madame Paderewska

THEY HAD A WONDERFUL TIME HUNTING EGGS. Scores of children took part in the egg hunt in the garden of Mrs. Henry Ross, at St. Martins, on Saturday afternoon, Julia Biddle Henry (left) found the egg in one of the contests. The other guests shown are Marion M. Rivinus, Bodine Moon, Anne Louise Ross, Anne C. Callahan and Nona M. Martin

CRIPPLED CHILDREN AT KEITH'S. A special performance was given for them on Saturday in connection with the thirty-third anniversary week program

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

THEY'VE PLAYED CRICKET FOR MANY DAYS. Charles H. Braithwaite (left) has bowled many victories for the Ardmore Cricket Club. The batter is John E. Pike, also of the Ardmore Club. They were caught at practice

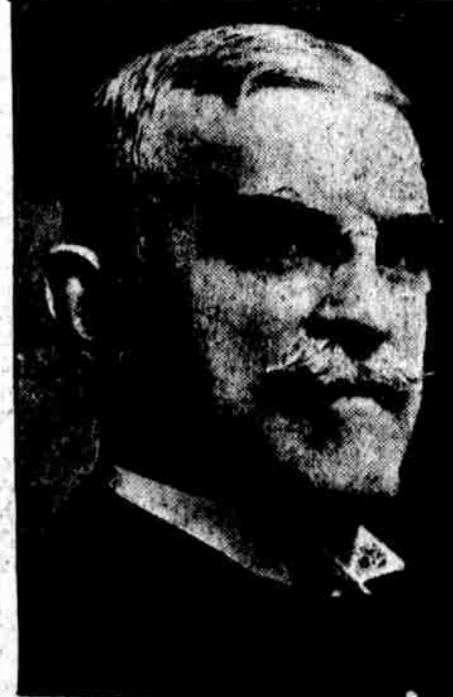

CALLED AT THE MAYOR'S OFFICE. Sophia Rosolowicz in a demonstration for freedom of Ukrainians

IRELAND STILL GRIPPED BY STRIFE. Special officers of the Irish Free State were snapped as they went through a training stunt

BUSY PHILADELPHIANS

DR. JAMES M. ANDERS talks of Health Day in Editorial Page interview

ASSISTANT CASHIER. William H. Thomas, 4812 Garden street, who is connected with the Second National Bank of Frankford. Music is his hobby

MILL WORKERS PRESENT BIG SHOW. "Let's Go," a musical comedy, was given by the S. B. & B. W. Fleisher players at Mercantile Hall. Some of the cast were (left to right) Geraldine H. Jackson, Edna J. McClure, Mae A. Trudel, Marie J. Sweeney and Anna S. Dugan

LUMBER PILE. Patrick McMahon, 2601 Grays Ferry avenue, lumber thirty feet high in Gibson-Walker Company's lumber yard, at 2569 Grays Ferry avenue