JUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE

Nancy Wynne Speaks of Miss Thayer's Return From Abroad and the Meeting of General Dabney H. Maury Chapter, D. of C., to Be Held at Bellevue-Stratford

I SAW Molly Thayer the other day and she was looking very well. You know she has just come back from a trip abroad with Isabel Rockefeller and some other New York girls, and I'm sure she must have had a wonderful time. When I saw her she was wearing a dark brown velour coat with a chinchilla collar and cuffs and a beige-color straw hat with dark blue beads making spidery designs around the crown.

Have you read the story of Molly's in one of the magazines this month? It's really more of a sketch than a story, however, and it's most attractive and well written. After her trip abroad she'll probably have lots of material for new stories. She certainly has a great deal of ability in many lines, don't you think?

WASN'T it interesting to hear that Margie Tyler was crowned Queen of the May at Bryn Mawr College? From what I heard it must have been a very pretty scene with all the girls dressed in white dancing on the "green" as they wound colored ribbons around the Maypoles (each class had one) and sang "To the Maypole Let Us On, the Time Is Swift and Will Be Gone." Margie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Corydon C. Tyler, of Chestnut Hill, and went to Springside to school out there. Her older sister, Mary (who was one of Edith Page Starr's bridesmaids on April 22), went to Bryn Mawr, too, and was also popular there. Of course, it is a big honor to be chosen May Queen and every one will feel proud of Margie.

DID you hear about the rummage sale that is to be held tomorrow and Thursday at 1710 Market street? The Junior Civic Club is giving it.

Mrs. Howard Ford Hansell, Jr., is the head of this organization and the sale is to raise money for a memorial to Ernest L. Tustin, who was Director of Public Welfare.

I SAW Amelie Seixas a few days ago in a gray suit and a most unusual hat. It was of black straw and was trimmed with a wide black grosgrain ribbon, which was arranged so that it fell off the brim at the back in the shape of wings. It was most striking and becoming.

THERE will be an interesting meeting of the General Dabney H. Maury Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy at the Bellevue-Stratford next Tuesday (the 9th) at 3 o'clock. Mrs. Francis du Pont is president of the chapter in this city. It will be the last meeting of the year and will be followed by a tea for the members.

NANCY WYNNE.
