> "The latter, the course pursued in the case of the Board of Prison Inspectors under discussion, seems to be preferable because of the way it places responsibility. Council has gone on record as willing to accept responsibility for the amount it has appropriated. If additional sums are collected by mandamus, the responsibility for that clear-ly is upon the Board of Prison In-spectors. It may be a responsibility which they will not care to assume. DELAY ARMY-NAVY BILLS

Saving of $10,000,000 Expected Through New Pay Basis Washington, May 4.—(By A. P.)— he intention of congressional leaders to delay passage of the army and navy appropriation bills until the new pay schedule for the military services is enacted into law was made known today by Representative Mondell, House Republican leader, and Senator Wads-worth, in charge of the army and pay bills in the Senate.

The new pay basis, Mr. Wadsworth estimated, would save more than $5,000,000 in the next fiscal year on an army of 150,000 and in a corresp saving in the navy pay appropriations. MINERS' FAMILIES EVICTED bles" in Fayette Region niontown, Pa., May 4. - (By A. P. First evictions of striking miners and their families in the Fayette coke region took place today at the mine of the Dr. Amend Coal and Coke Company, near here. A dozen families, it was reported to the county authorities, had een moved from company houses, and their belongings set out in the road. This, it was stated, was the begin-ning of a movement by operating companies to reclaim houses now occupied by what they termed "undesirables."
