Three tucks.
Six branches of parsley.
Two green peppers.

Sufficient chives to measure one-half cup when chopped fine, cover with boiling water and cook for five minutes, then drain and turn on cloth to absorb the excess water.

Now place five tablespoons of butter in a skillet and place on stove where the heat will be moderate. While the skillet is heating, separate six eggs, placing the whites of the eggs in the largest bowl, beat until the whites of the eggs are stiff, now add to the yolks.

Three tablespoons of cold water.
One teaspoon of salt.
One-half teaspoon of white pepper.

Beat to mix, then add part of the yolks and part of the herbs and fold in to the stiffly beaten whites of eggs; repeat, using the balance of yolks and herbs, and turn at once into the hot skillet, place in moderate oven and bake for twenty minutes. Cut and serve in five portions with nicely browned bacon for garnish.

To pan tomatoes, cut tomatoes in half, removing the stem part, and dip in flour, brown nicely in hot bacon fat, and serve as a garnish for the omelet.

Strawberry Dumplings
Place in mixing bowl
Two cups of flour.
One-half teaspoon of salt.
Two teaspoons of baking powder.

Sift to mix, now rub into the flour eight tablespoons of shortening and use six tablespoons of cold water to form a dough. Divide into three parts and roll each part out about one-half inch thick, and to form an oblong. Cut in two pieces and fill center with nicely cleaned berries, and fold the pastry about the berries, place on baking pan and brush well with cold water, and bake in moderate oven for twenty minutes. Serve with vanilla sauce supreme.
