Commander Thompson Finds Posts Have Particular Place in Each Community
SPECIAL AFFAIR PLANNED

Activities of the Legion Posts in Pennsylvania constitute a large part of the community life, according to Department Commander Joseph H. Thompson, who has just completed a survey of reports regarding these activities at the headquarters in this city.

As a result of the survey, Commander Thompson announced that the posts of the Keystone State are more active than the post of any other State. "There has been found in every community a particular place for the activities of the American Legion," he said, "and these activities are of a very diversified nature. From conferences with leaders elsewhere I know that they surpass those of other States."

In the various phases of Boys' Week celebration, fostered by the Rotary Clubs of the State, the Legion members were found to have been extraordinarily active.

Ten new members will be admitted to George H. Imhof Post at a meeting on Saturday evening in P. O. H. of A. Hall, Dauphin street east of Twenty-ninth. The post will attend memorial services in Bethlehem Baptist Church, Eighteenth and York streets, on Sunday evening, May 28. A memorial display of historic war relics will be held under the auspices of the post at Oit's, Bouvier and York streets, May 29 to 31. A "puff and blow" social was conducted by the auxiliary last week, and proved quite a success.

KILLED IN COLLISION
Mrs. Alice Northrop Fatally Hurt When Train Hits Auto

Mrs. Alice Northrop, sixty-one years old, president of the School Nature League, was killed, and Mrs. Richard Hirsch, treasurer of the league, was seriously injured, and a man named Sexton, who was to have conducted a summer camp for York league near Mount Washington, Dutchess County, was hurt when their automobile was struck by a train on a grade crossing at Mount Higa, north of Millerton, N. Y., on Saturday.

Mrs. Northrop lived at Yonkers. She was the widow of John I. Northrop, formerly a professor at Columbia University, who was killed in a laboratory explosion while experimenting about ten years ago.

Mrs. Northrop and Mrs. Hirsch, with Mr. Sexton and a chauffeur employed by Mrs. Hirsch's husband, left New York Saturday morning to go to Mount Washington to inspect the site for the proposed camp, which was to have been opened in July on property near a country home belonging to Mrs. Northrop.

Watchman Discovers Blaze at Sixteenth and Reed Streets

Fire early today slightly damaged the interior of the M. Kalikman paper box factory at Sixteenth and Reed streets. The flames were confined to several bins where waste paper is stored.

It was shortly after 3 o'clock that the night man, while making his rounds, detected the odor of smoke. He found the paper in the bin, which is located in the rear of the first floor, on fire. He turned in an alarm. The loss, according to factory employes, is slight.

AUTO HITS GIRL; 6 RIBS SNAP
Miss Margaret McLoughlin Carried into Sister's Ward in Hospital

Miss Margaret McLoughlin, twenty-one years old, 1908 Harlan street, was struck by an automobile at Seventeenth and Girard avenue yesterday afternoon and was carried into St. Joseph's Hospital, one block away, and placed in a ward in which her sister, a nurse, was on duty.

Her injuries consist of six fractured ribs. The driver of the automobile, Handel Lieber, 1703 West Dauphin street, was arrested.

TO HALT LEGAL ACTION
Will Proceed Against Dead Husband's Relatives

Legal action by the young widow of Thompson McClure, wealthy publisher, to question the manner in which she was kept in ignorance of her husband's whereabouts, will be pushed regardless of his death.

Mr. McClure, who was seventy-two years old, died in the Pennsylvania Hospital for Mental Diseases.

Mrs. McClure closed yesterday her large house at Woodlyn, N. J., and will, she said today, she prefers not to discuss her plans.

Mr. McClure was taken several weeks ago to the West Jersey Homeopathic Hospital in Camden on advice of physicians. He disappeared from there April 12, and the Camden County authorities were asked by Mrs. McClure to aid in locating him. The search began at once and led all over the eastern part of the United States. One clue after another was followed out without success. Finally the aged man was located in the institution here. Habeas corpus proceedings had been instituted by Mrs. McClure several days before his death.

Golden Anniversary
 Upon the completion of half a century of consecutive business in this city we take pride in announcing that

Wednesday, May 10th, 1922
 marks the Fiftieth Anniversary of the founding of this establishment.

On May 10th, 1872, the late Samuel Kind started this business in a modest way at 241 Market Street, Philadelphia. He remained actively at the head of the business through its many years of progress until his death in 1915. The business is now being conducted by three sons of the founder, who have associated with them a highly trained and efficient group of loyal employes, many of whom have been with the firm for more than a quarter of a century.

We feel sincerely indebted to the thousands of customers of the old days, as well as the new, who have shown by their continued patronage (in many cases two and sometimes three generations of the same families) their fidelity to this firm.

A cordial invitation is extended to all our friends, customers and others to visit our store on Wednesday.

The honor of your presence will be greatly appreciated.
