

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

THE SKYSCRAPERS ARE MISSING. A close-up of the tracks and trains at Broad Street Station as they looked on Sunday morning, May 20, 1883. The photograph was contributed by James Monaghan, of 8333 North Broad street. Mr. Monaghan, who was a Civil War photographer, made the view from a switch tower. Note the Masonic Temple, at the left. City Hall was up as far as the third floor. If you have an old-Philadelphia photograph, please send it to the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.

CLOSE-UP OF THE DELAWARE RIVER CAISSON. Ralph Terranova, a compressed air expert, posed in one of the muck locks, through which mud will be removed from the bed of the river. Over at the right is one of the chutes that will carry cement down into the huge steel box.

SOLD BROOMS AND EVERYTHING. Miss Mary Lea was working in aid of the Seamen's Institute.

HOMEWARD BOUND AT LAST. The final contingent of the American forces in Germany snapped on the march to the railroad station.

SPEED UP, GIRLS! These runners, taking part in the 300-meter race of the Ladies' Olympic Games, at Monte Carlo, represent England, France, Italy, Belgium and Czechoslovakia.

FIFTY-ONE-YEAR-OLD HORSE at New York. "Clown" of Catawissa, Pa., will attend several celebrations while "doing" Broadway.

PARENTS ENTERTAIN PUPILS. Mrs. William Winter (left), and Mrs. H. M. Frankenfield, in "The Twelve Old Maids," given at the Thomas Dunlap School.

MISS ELEANOR DUNNING (right) and Miss Banning Grange will take charge of the candy booth at the annual Rittenhouse Square Flower Mart. Mrs. Joseph Rollins (inset), of committee.

SOUTHERN NEGROES WATCH HOMES FLOAT BY. More than $4,000,000 damage was done when the Mississippi levee broke, near New Orleans.

IT WAS A GREAT DAY AT THE CIRCUS. Fifty-eight hundred children from fifty-one institutions were guests of Gimbel Brothers at the Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey show. Ellis A. Gimbel with some kiddies.

CHIEF BALD EAGLE. He came from the Far West a few days ago to get a look at the Liberty Bell.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

East Liberty street, winding a motor in the factory of... Hundreds of wires are...

WOMEN WATCHERS GET INSTRUCTIONS. "Watch for Pinchot!" was the slogan, as scores of Philadelphia women gathered in Griffith Hall yesterday to listen to instructions from Mrs. Samuel B. Scott (on platform) and Mrs. Hayes A. Clement (inset), in charge of Pinchot Vigilants. They will answer trouble calls from any division in the city.

GREAT WEATHER FOR BABIES. Charles G. Bowen, Jr., was caught in a happy mood in Fairmount Park.

RECEIVING TELLER. Walter P. Haggren, 7049 Vandike street, Tacony, is commencing with the Helmsburg Trust Company.