How Does It Strike You?

Speaker's Recruit
Helping the Boys
Meadows' Superstition

THIS SPEAKER exhibited a youthful but by no means inexperienced hurler to the gaze of the populace yesterday afternoon at Shibe Park. His name is James K. Lindsey.

It was the first big league game for this Lindsey person, but he didn't look the part of a tenderfoot. Rather he conducted himself like a veteran.

Lindsey did not last the entire game. He gave way to a pinch-hitter in the sixth inning, but he might have continued. He still had plenty of the stuff that good pitchers are made of remaining in his system.

Another member of Wilhelm's staff came through yesterday when Jess Winters got credit for beating the Cubs, but his teammates had to sit idly by to get the victory. Hubbel, Meadows and Ring won all the other Phil triumphs.

Helping the Boys and Helping the Game
A SERIES of four tennis tournaments have been arranged by the Philadelphia and District Lawn Tennis Association for the boys during next week.

Junior and boys' tennis has thrived in this section because of the interest taken in it by the officials and star players of the game.

CAPTAIN BILL MAHER, of the Penn baseball team, writes in to support the sentiments of Label Goldblatt in regard to Dr. Walter Cariss, their coach.

Superstition of Lee Meadows
ABOUT a week or so before the baseball season opened, Lee Meadows was asked if he was going to pitch the inaugural game.

THE return of Reb Russell to the big leagues at the fabulous price of $20,000 proves that even a pitcher may be a ball player.

BIG SCHOOL GAME FOR CITY CROWN

Germantown High and Episcopal Academy to Battle at Pencoysd May 25

BOTH TEAMS CHAMPIONS

By PAUL PREP
Germantown High Schools will oppose Episcopal Academy in a baseball game at Pencoysd, Monday, May 29.

The fact that these two teams are going to play against each other is a sufficient inducement to draw one of the largest scholastic crowds of the season.

Both Episcopal and Germantown are champions. The churchmen have capped the Interacademic League title for the last two years.

There has been a big demand for a game between these two lines lately, but no one thought the teams would meet.

Then the big question was discussed: "Where will the game be played?" Both schools wanted to know.

As usual, Capt. Gene Barrett, of the Green and White, would not make a statement as to which team he thought would win the game.

The Interacademic Baseball League will close its season this afternoon when St. Luke's School meets Episcopal Academy and Germantown Academy opposes Haverford School.

The Interacademic League games are on the card for the afternoon. Frankford High will meet Germantown High in their inter-sectional feud at Pencoysd.

St. Joseph's Prep will oppose West Catholic High in a Catholic League contest and Ambler High meets Perkasie High in a Box-Moon League game.

Penn Charter will meet Camden High in an Interacademic League tennis match and Pennington School will vie for honors with Swarthmore Prep on the track.

The track meet at Queen Lane yesterday afternoon between Penn Charter and Haverford proved one of the best of the season.

sticks in 16 2-5 seconds, two-fifths of a second better than the previous record.

Penn Charter won the meet, 55 1/2 to 48 1-3.

Eleven Errors
Northeast High probably established a record for the season in its game with Southern High yesterday afternoon at Twenty-ninth and Clearfield streets by making eleven errors.

Captain Howell established a new mark in the 120-yard high hurdles. He negotiated the distance over the high any both won their Interacademic League tennis matches from Haverford School and Episcopal Academy, respectively. The score of both meets was 5 to 1.

Caldwell Outing Tomorrow
The J. E. Caldwell Association will hold its first annual outing tomorrow at the Philadelphia Rifle Club grounds, consisting of field sports, handball, volleyball and tennis.

"THE HUMAN ANGLE OF SPORTS"
