"THE HUMAN ANGLE OF SPORTS"
CULLEN CAIN'S human-interest sports stories show you the spirit back of American sports. Those tense, powerful or pathetic incidents that are so frequently not known or pointed out. They play a vital part in all athletics. We commend to you the writings of Mr. Cain every morning in the PUBLIC LEDGER. "Make It a Habit."—Adv.

Metropolitan Edison Company

Cumulative Participating Preferred Stock

Annual Dividend $7.00 Per Share

Application will be made to list on the New York, Philadelphia and Boston Stock Exchanges

Territory: The company operates electric light and power properties in Reading, Pa., and 64 other communities directly, and 30 other communities indirectly.

Earnings: Net earnings for twelve months ended March 31, 1922, after fixed charges, were $580,952, not including $294,000 surplus earnings of the Pennsylvania Edison Company, the common stock of which is owned by this company, while the dividends on the entire issue of preferred stock are $191,240.

Valuation: The value of the equity in the property, based on reproduction cost, as of average prices from 1917 to 1921, is equal to $415 per share of this preferred stock.

We recommend this stock at the market to yield about 7.29%, plus the possibility of additional income because of the participating feature.
