

GIRL DIES AS AUTO PLUNGES OFF PIER

Miss Catherine McCormick, 1636 South 16th Street, Drowns at Navy Yard

CHUM ESCAPES LIKE FATE

Seated in a driverless automobile, Miss Catherine McCormick, seventeen years old, 1636 South 16th Street, was carried to her death yesterday afternoon as the machine plunged off the edge of Pier No. 1 at the Philadelphia Navy Yard.

Scores of visitors at the navy yard saw the car fall into the river. In an instant half a dozen marines and sailors were diving in an attempt at rescue, but their efforts were in vain. Miss McCormick was seated in the seat of the machine and is believed to have been trapped as it made the plunge. The car started as it was being driven by C. J. Turner, fifteen, secretary of the United States tug Nautilus, owner of the car and Miss McCormick's escort. Miss Clara Mallin, eighteen, 1531 Tasker street, a friend of Miss McCormick, was standing on the running board, and by jumping narrowly escaped being carried along.

The machine fell into the river between the tug Nautilus and the cruiser Rochambeau. Had the car been headed a few inches in either direction it would have struck one of the vessels instead of falling between them. The river at that point is about thirty feet deep. The body was recovered by Police Patrol No. 2. Miss McCormick was the daughter of Thomas V. McCormick, a real estate dealer.

Eleven Others Hurt in Mishaps

Eleven other Philadelphians were injured in automobile accidents in and near the city yesterday.

Two men, occupants of a machine that crashed into a pillar under the Pennsylvania Railroad bridge at South Chester and Chester pike, Glendon, and then sideswiped another automobile coming in the opposite direction, are under arrest under separate charges.

SEARCH FOR STUDENT

Central High Boy Missing Since Thursday

Search is being made for Irving Wainick, fifteen-year-old Central High School student, who disappeared from his home, 851 North Tenth street, Thursday morning, when he left for school.

Inquiry by the boy's father, B. Wainick, brought out the fact that the boy had appeared in school that day and had attended all his classes. The parents are at a loss to account for the boy's disappearance. The youth looks several years older than he really is. He is five feet, seven inches tall, weighs 140 pounds, has brown hair and wears a dark blue suit and a brown hat when he left home. He is in the freshman class at Central.

STOTESBURYS MAY MOVE

Said to be Considering Purchase of $1,000,000 Home in New York

Purchase of a million-dollar home on Fifth avenue near the handsome Gary mansion is contemplated by E. T. Stotesbury, according to word received from New York today. Mr. and Mrs. Stotesbury recently made a very thorough inspection of the house, it is said, and expressed themselves as highly pleased.

WOMAN, 61, VANISHES

Mrs. Elizabeth Beuteo, 2221 N. Hancock St., Last Seen on Trolley

Search is being made today for Mrs. Elizabeth Beuteo, sixty-one years old, 2221 North Hancock street, who disappeared last night after she had visited the home of a friend at Fifth street and Rising Sun avenue.

"EMPTY-GUN" VICTIM DIES

Nowell House Is Held for Coroner in Victor Scott's Death

Victor Scott, who was accidentally shot by a friend in a restaurant at York road and Windsor avenue Saturday while being shown an automatic pistol, died today in the Jewish Hospital. He was thirty years old, and lived at 2158 East Sixth street.

Nowell House, 2945 Harper Street, Held by Magistrate Lindell Today to await the action of the Coroner.

GIRL CHUCKLES AT EASE IN FOOLING BOY PARADERS

Only Bobbed Hair Gave Her Away, Says Florence, Who Won Prize—Kid Brother and Mother Only Ones Who Knew of Masquerade

It is conceded that judges are wise, be they a judge on the bench or of the parade which, on Saturday, marked the beginning of Boy Week.

But the wisest of them all can be fooled by a woman as proven by Florence Di Gaetano, of 416 Preston street, who marched as one of the boys on Saturday afternoon and fooled 'em all, right down the line.

Her small brother George, as Jackie Coogan, was in the parade, too, and was awarded a prize. But he kept the secret of her identity, although she was a bit afraid that he would let her name slip.

Boys to the left of her and boys to the right of her, she strutted along, a feminine Wesley Barry. With a generous sprinkling of freckles on her face, even as big and numerous as Wesley's, her short red hair tucked under the soft hat, not even her fellow marchers suspected that this sturdy bundle of thirteen years of wisdom was a mere girl.

"I've always wanted to be a boy, anyhow," she said today. "An' just 'cause I'm not I didn't see any good reason why I shouldn't be in the parade. I've played boy parts in movies, and, my land, I've brothers of my very own."

"No about noon Saturday I slipped into the house, climbed into the old suit, an' away I went. Of course, I had to tell mother where I was going because she might have worried. But no one else at home knew it except my kid brother George."

"At first I was kinda scared. Seemed like there were so many boys and only me. I scratched my head and I remembered in time and said, 'Al Starn, a regular rough and ready boy, and I might just as well pretend to be one.'"

"So I just strolled up to the rest of the boys, they all knewed that no regular fellow my size would be wearing bobbed hair, and that gave it all away. But I did fool them, an' had packs of fun."

Florence is in the sixth grade at the Belmont School, at Forty-first and Aspen streets.

FLORENCE DI GAETANO

stand some man came up, looked at me kinda funny, and said, 'Say boy, are you a girl?' Course my heart took a turn, but I swallowed it and said, 'Nope, I'm a tomboy.' "He smiled as if he didn't believe me, and told me to go ahead and make the judges think so. When we got to the stand I pulled out my gun and began doing one of Wesley Barry's stunts. I wasn't one mite scared. "One of the judges asked my name, and I almost told him Florence, but I remembered in time and said, 'Al Starn.' So he wrote it on a card and said I would be given a bicycle. "Of course, some one discovered my hair, and they all knewed that no regular fellow my size would be wearing bobbed hair, and that gave it all away. But I did fool them, an' had packs of fun."

SAVES PATROLMAN'S LIFE AS COMPANION OPENS FIRE

One of Four Men in Speeding Car Freed in Ridley Park Shooting

Patrolman Walter Kline, overseas veteran of the 108th Infantry and member of the Ridley Park police force, exchanged shots Saturday morning at 2 o'clock with a Negro in a speeding motorcar, which a moment later went into a ditch along Chester pike above Morton avenue.

Kline, at the risk of his life, arrested four Negroes, who at first were suspected as possibly having knowledge of the brutal murder last Tuesday night at Glendon of Patrolman Blair McGovern. The Ridley Park police, however, were unable to connect them with that crime.

The men arrested are James M. Ricky, Samuel Martin, Franklin Martin and Joseph Burton. All gave addresses in South Philadelphia. Burton, who saved Kline's life by knocking up Samuel Martin's arm, was left go, when the four were given a hearing Saturday night before Justice of the Peace Buchanan.

It was alleged Franklin Martin offered to pay Kline to let him go. He was given $10 for attempted bribery, Ricky, who drove the motorcar, $10 for attempting to aid Samuel Martin to escape. The last named, who is accused of having fired the shots, was held in $500 bail.

13 MISSIONARIES GRADUATE

Class of Women at Presbyterian School Largest of Any Year

Thirteen women graduates of the Philadelphia School for Christian Workers of the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches received their diplomas this afternoon at commencement exercises in the Oxford Presbyterian Church, Broad and Oxford streets.

Dr. R. Bruce Taylor, president of the Queen's College, Canada, the principal address. Master of ceremonies was the Rev. Joseph B. C. Mackie.

This is the largest class to be graduated in any year from this institution. Two of the graduates expect to go to Japan and China.

The graduates are Misses Kathryn Y. Allenbach, May R. Alloway, Helen F. Dlabrow, Laura E. Harbough, Rose L. Heine, Gertrude C. Heydeger, Shizu Hikaru, Christine Juliana, Lenore V. Lloyd, Caroline L. Schuler, Edna C. Spiers, Lillian C. Wunsch and Myrtle L. Work.

Helping Pony Show

MRS. GEORGE DALLAS DIXON, JR. Who is taking an active part in arranging the entertainment to be given at Wynwood May 17 on the William J. Clothier estate for the benefit of the Welfare Federation

COOLIDGE COMING HERE

Vice President and Wife to Ride in Moore Tally-ho

Vice President and Mrs. Coolidge who will be the guests of Senator and Mrs. Pepper at the Devon Horse Show next week, will be driven from Devon station in the famous tally-ho of Judge William H. Moore.

Judge Moore is one of the country's most noted breeders of blooded horses, and is especially proud of his matched tally-ho team of four dappled grays. Saturday of next week, the day of their visit, he will drive to Devon Station, where his distinguished guests and their party will take them to the Pepper box at the horse show, driving into the oval.

Gloucester Man Missing

Police have been asked to look for John Boylen, fifty-three, of Gloucester, who disappeared Friday. He has been seen wandering about in the central section of the city. Boylen came here with his wife Tuesday from Gloucester to undergo treatment for a nervous trouble and stopped at a boarding house near Twentieth and Race streets. His wife left him for a short time in the waiting room of a railroad station. When she returned he had gone.

CHURCHES "DIE WITHIN"

Some Fall to See Changing Needs. Baptist Pastor Told

The church that laws is the one that adjusts itself to the needs of the community, said the Rev. Dr. E. E. Crowther, pastor of the Arch Street Methodist Episcopal Church, speaking at the meeting of the Baptist ministers in the First Baptist Church.

Dr. Crowther said he had studied some of the churches in the city and found that those that had failed had "died from within," rather than any outside influence, because the men who had charge of the affairs of the church failed to see the changing needs.

Slayer of Sweetheart Must Die

Justice Frazer, of the State Supreme Court, today affirmed the conviction of Joseph Dreher, a Negro, of murder in the first degree, and ordered that he be remitted to the latter court for execution of the death sentence. Dreher killed his sweetheart, Ethel Warren, September 3, during a quarrel at Forty-second street and Woodland avenue.

Two Women Report Robberies

Mrs. Paul Green, 1312 Pine street, reported to the police today that her apartment was robbed of $200 worth of clothing while she was away from home yesterday. She said her apartment was entered by use of a false key.

Miss Anna Christian, 2355 South Eighteenth street, also reported a robbery at her home. The rear door was jimmied and $20 in jewelry stolen.

Fight Fatal to Actor

St. Louis, May 15.—(By A. P.)—Albert McGinniss, a vaudeville actor of New York, appearing at a local theatre, died at a hospital here yesterday of injuries received Saturday during a quarrel with a chauffeur over a taxicab fare.

HARRISON GEM SUSPECTS MAY WED IN JAIL

$40,000 Worth of Jewels Recovered. On Trail of Rest

Gems valued at $40,000, part of the $70,000 collection of jewelry and precious stones lost by Mrs. Mitchell Harrison en route from Knoxville, Tenn., to New York, April 30, have been recovered, and the police know the whereabouts of the rest.

Ruben Beebe, of Chicago, was arrested for the theft of the jewels in Harrisburg Saturday. Miss Ruth Haydn, his fiancée, also was taken into custody, as were David Business and John Garlin.

The four are in jail in the Tombs, New York, and Beebe and the girl are planning to get married today in jail if the authorities will permit. The police say they will try to prevent the marriage, as they believe it is a ruse to delay Miss Haydn from testifying against Beebe as her husband.

Beebe declared to the police that he had not meant to steal the jewels; that they had been placed in his taxicab by mistake by a porter in New York, and he had succumbed to temptation when he opened the handbag containing them.

The girl insisted that Beebe was telling the truth and said that she would stick by him and marry him. The other men were employed as salesmen, Beebe said, by a candy firm for which he was sales manager. He said he had planned to return the jewels and would spend his life making restitution.

FUNERAL OF J. E. LENNON

Services for Former Councilman Held at St. Luke's

Many prominent Philadelphians were present at the funeral this morning of James E. Lennon, former president of the old Select Council, and widely known in political circles here. Services were conducted in the Church of St. Luke and the Epiphany, Thirteenth street below Spruce, by the Rev. David M. Steele. The interment was in Mount Moriah Cemetery.

The honorary pallbearers were former Governor Edwin S. Stuart, Francis Shunk Brown, Samuel Bell, Jr., Hampton L. Carson, George J. Elliott, Dr. Robert A. Harsh, William H. Kingsley, William Potter, Murtha P. Quinn, Owen J. Roberts, Max S. Sulzberger, Dr. Chesman A. Herrick, Charles B.

SLAYER PAYS PENALTY

Philadelphia Negro is Electrocuted at Bellefonte

Earl Carter, also known as Egan French, a Negro, of this city, was electrocuted at the Rockwell Penitentiary today for the murder of Richard Brown, of Philadelphia, in February, 1921. The motive for the crime was robbery. Carter made no statement before he was strapped in the chair. The body of the slain man is unclaimed.

Lucky Strike Cigarette

It's toasted. This one extra process gives a rare and delightful quality—impossible to duplicate. Guaranteed by The American Tobacco Co.

A new clothes-buying idea in Philadelphia

FOR months we have been advising Philadelphia to "shop around" before buying clothes—to look at other good stores before finally buying here.

Hundreds of men have taken our advice. Every day it is recorded that customers come in and say: "I'm taking you at your word. I'm going to see what I can do at So & So's and So & So's." It is also recorded that they return here to buy.

Your New Spring Suit. Strictly Summer Suits. Palm Beaches, superior in trimming and tailoring. Silky mohairs, single or double breasted. Featherweight tropical worsteds, 2-piece suits, some with vests. Super-Values $17, $18, $20, $23, $25.

Sports Suits. Summer Raincoats. for energetic men. Over light-weight rubberized fabrics and gabardines. Super-Values $13.50 upwards. White Flannel Trousers. Three-piece suits $25, $33, $38. Extra knickers $3. Value price—$8.25.

WE depend for success on pleasing and satisfying our customers. Our salesmen, therefore, by nature and training SERVE rather than SELL.

PERRY & Co. 16th and Chestnut SUPER-VALUES in Clothes for Men

Advertisement for Ground Gripper Women's Oxford shoes. Includes text: "No handsomer shoe than this 'TYPE 3' GROUND-GRIPPER WOMEN'S OXFORD".

The key to your clothing problems—Rogers Peet clothes! Quality! Style! Economy! The best is cheapest in the long run!

Knox straw hats. FERRO & COMPANY Rogers Peet Clothes Chestnut St. at Juniper

Late Comer—"I'm sorry, gentlemen. I was taking a demonstration in that new MOON model and—I forgot about the time. However, I bought, so I'll be on time hereafter." Open Cars $1785 Closed Cars $2785 Prices F. O. B. Factory Display rooms open evenings MOON Motor Cars The car of the ten proven units MACKIN MOTORS, Inc. 855 N. Broad St. Phone Poplar 7588

Collins New Service. When you face a strenuous tomorrow and feel as if you had lost your "grip" on your work, come in and we'll help you get a "new hold." Collins New Service—every day except Sundays, steam and electric baths, massage, shower, alcohol rub, etc., is the real invigorator and restorative for tired business men. Absolutely no tipping. COLLINS INSTITUTE OF PHYSICAL CULTURE 219-25 N. Broad Street

The Corto Radiator advertisement. Includes text: "The Corto Radiator. GRACEFUL, slender, compact, the Corto Radiator is not only the finest radiator; its greater heating service makes it the most economical as well. It is a working aristocrat—a little more costly but much more efficient. Send for an illustrated booklet about it." AMERICAN RADIATOR COMPANY 1711 Chestnut Street Philadelphia, Pa.

JACOB REED'S SONS advertisement. Includes text: "NO one can really afford to wear 'cheap' clothes. Some people imagine that they can't pay the price for good clothing, and buy poor stuff because it's low priced—which is pure extravagance." 1424-1426 Chestnut Street

QUAKER CITY CAB CO. advertisement. Includes text: "Going To The Theatre Tonight? IF SO, ride in a Quaker City Taxicab, be certain of safety, and at the same time enjoy Pullman Car service in a Quaker City-Cab. Call Spruce 1700 There's a Quaker City Stand near you and service will be prompt. QUAKER CITY CAB CO. (Low Rates)