GET OUT THE VOTE, IS CALL TO WOMEN

Mrs. Warburton Says Pinchot Sentiment Must Be Translated into Ballots

A CHANCE TO SAVE PARTY

"The job now is to get Pinchot ballots into the ballot-boxes in tomorrow's election."

That is an extract from a lively call made today by Mrs. Barely H. Warburton, vice chairman of the Republican State Committee, to the women voters of Pennsylvania.

"We have the kind of opportunity that comes about once in a century—a chance to put health and vitality back into the Republican party in this State," said Mrs. Warburton. "It would be to the undying shame of Pennsylvania women, if through indifference, through insufficient work, through leaving it to our neighbor, we missed our one big chance in many years. I call upon every loyal Republican woman in Pennsylvania to come out on Tuesday and tell the contractor bosses and her Pennsylvania neighbors and the world generally that she is claiming her own title to the Republican Party."

Mrs. Warburton's communication to the women of the State is, in part, as follows:

"The real issue in the present Republican primary contest is simply: Who is to own the Republican Party in Pennsylvania? The rank and file of the individual voters or a few self-constituted leaders?"

"This is why women must do all in their power to elect Mr. Pinchot. Won't you help? There is only one way: In the brief time that remains we must get down to the business of vote-getting. Talk with and convince every woman with whom you come in contact, telephone or telegraph, but reach every one of your neighbors. "I believe there has never been a more critical situation in the political life of the State. The outcome of the Pennsylvania women's fight is being watched all over the country. I earnestly urge you to make a supreme effort to do your part."

Mrs. Warburton urges the women of every community, if they have not already done so, to organize to get out the vote tomorrow—to go early to the polls themselves—to arrange to get cars to transport to the polls the aged or infirm or those who live far away, and in every way see to it that every possible vote for Pinchot is actually cast tomorrow.

"We have the sentiment all over the State for Pinchot," Mrs. Warburton said, "but sentiment doesn't elect."

ASKS HAYS TO BAN FILMS BASED ON RACE PREJUDICE

Mrs. Anne Biddle Sterling Cites "Birth of a Nation" as Case

A ban on "sensational films appealing to race prejudice" was suggested to Will H. Hays, president of the Motion-Picture Producers and Distributors of America, by Mrs. Anne Biddle Sterling.

Mrs. Sterling is chairman of the Inter-Racial Committee of Philadelphia. She wrote to Mr. Hays at the direction of that committee, abilitated with the Philadelphia Yearly Meeting of Friends.

"Our concern is to bring about interracial understanding and good will," Mrs. Sterling wrote, "and we feel keenly the great handicap to such kindly relations which result from sensational films, appealing to race prejudice.

"As a concrete example of such mischief-breeding, I will cite 'The Birth of a Nation.' When films are ready to be shown so much money has been spent on them that it seems extremely difficult to eliminate them. Hence we are appealing to you with earnest hope and conviction that you may have the vision, the will and the power to check this class of trouble-makers in its incipient stage."

The VanSciver Rebuilding Sale Is Saving Money for Hundreds

The most important thing to us in the Furniture business at this time is FLOOR SPACE. We are handicapped at every turn for lack of room. The new seven-story, four-acre building now going up as an addition to this great plant is occupying exactly seven separate structures, which we had to demolish to make room for it. It means we have suddenly lost the use of all this working space. Actually we are in the greatest jam in years—on our Sales Floors, in our Shipping and Receiving Departments and in our great Storage Warehouses.

More space is the only solution. To make room we have got to move the Furniture, and to move the Furniture we have marked down prices right and left. Marked them at a lower margin over cost than ever before. Lower prices than any competition we know of can come down to—with the Furniture itself, and the price tags, as the best evidence of the incomparable savings.

Furniture for Bedroom, Dining Room, Living Room and Hall. For the June Bride and the Housewife. For the Seaside Bungalow and the Country Cottage. For Hotels, Apartment Houses and Institutions. A great money-saving event that arouses the interest of customers and visitors, to all of whom we extend a warm welcome.
