OOKS AND AUTHORS

The First Volume of

Prof. J. Arthur Thomson's THE OUTLINE OF SCIENCE

is now on sale a magnificent work it is! GEORGE KENNAN won fame ties Company with which he was cona magnificent work it is! k, brimful of the most extraor- about the Russian exile system in according to Mr. Kennan, and he gives linary reading. The marvels of cleace, since the world to their simplest terms, and claced to their simplest terms, and described in story form so that every reader can fully comprehend the heory and evolution of all scientific phenomena. What Wells has done or history Professor J. Arthur Thomson has done for science. Adrance orders for the first volume indicate a tremendous popular interest. The Outline of Science fills an cute educational need. It belongs the home of every intelligent family, for its education, information and entertainment combined. Booksellers have Volume I on dislay. Be sure to examine it. Note

Winchester, says of "Painted

"'A Gentleman With a Duster' is a much needed benefactor; his rapier thrusts into the popu lar evils of the day call forth from the reader the combative forces of his reason and conscience."

Somebody, writing in The Cleveland Plain Dealer, has a strong conviction that Sidney Dark, Editor John O'London's Weekly, is the anonymous author of "Painted Windows," "The Mirrors of Downing Street" and "The Glass of Fashion."

He bases his assumption upon the this. It was admitted long ago. If he involved in the case because he had been this. It was admitted long ago. If he involved in the case because he had been and that the laws of God cannot be broken with impunity.

AN OUTLINE OF WELLS

Mr. Dark certainly writes with a delightful grace, spiced with swift, keen, calculated thrusts that are brilliant bits of characterization. His study of H. G. Wells is illuminating -revealing-unique. It is excellent reading, whether or not Mr. Dark is the "Gentleman With a Duster."

"Dellish"

The New York Herald rises to remark that "Dellish" be added to the list of literary adjectives descriptive of strie. No objections, we assure you, particularly as any reference to a "Dellish" book cannot fail to emphasize the original or rather the standard by which the others are judged.

Miss Dell's new book is called THE ODDS and comprises seven noveletteseach one distinctly "Dellish," with all the inimitable elements of her best novels. THE ODDS is just right for a week of "between-times" reading-eminently satisfying, versatile likely to keep the retail booksellers

Robert Gordon Anderson gathered an especially choice collection desperadoes to make life miserble for Ben and Sally in and they succeed admirably. What with mystery, intrigue, kidnapping, fights, vanishing islands, hidtreasure, gamblers, gun men. sailors, adventurers and esses, you can count on a thrill a minute in this ripping yarn.

THE ISLE OF SEVEN MOONS

SEARCH

By Margaret Rivers Larminie romance of a man's quest for sympathetic understanding!

A finely conceived delicately and intelligently worked-out thems. Wholly free from the vulgarites that mar so much society is Mark Twain's "The trated simply than any other book so far sent out by publishers. Its author, Mysterious Stranger." It has just been Maurice J. Grainger, has the knowledge. . . .

G. P. P.

-THE-RED HOUSE MYSTERY By A. A. MILNE

Author of "The Dover Road," etc HEYWOOD BROUN calls it: "The best murder story we have read since Sherlock Holmes shut up shop."

$2.00. At any bookstore E. P. Dutton & Co., 681 5th Ave., N.

THEN CAME MOLLY

Juniper and Walnut Staff

Harriet V. C. Ogden An old-fashioned romance that will be enjoyed by all who like clean, wholesome love story.

At all bookstores-$1.75 PENN PUBLISHING COMPANY Philadelphia

BOOKS ABOUT AMERICAN MEN OF AFFAIRS The Case for E. H. Harriman

Stated by George Kennan

after their death. The raid on the

But, according to Mr. Kennan, it was speculators and not Mr. Harriman who forced the price of Northern Pacific up to $1000 a share in order to get the shares which they had been selling short on the theory that there nght between two inctions of the owner to get control. He then aligned himself clated more fully than during his lifetime and much of the criticism directed vocabulary and his illustrations are no-

McFee on cessful publications Conrad Twenty-one titles are this discriminating comment to make of explained failures men react to Conrad

TO REPEAT that J. Henri Fabre

I endeared himself to thousands by his takes the reader on an intelligent journey into the life and habits of each ting insect and shows the wonders that really exist in the insect world if one will take the patience to observe. Avoidance of a heavy scientific atmosphere has always been the beauty of M. Fabre's writings, and Mr. de Mattos has preserved this quality in his translations.

already announced. The books are bound in red table for their simplicity and clarity.

was to be a slump in values.

Siberia to make it his authority, in order to protect the profitable for him investments of several old men who did to go on the lecture not want their property endangered platform. His Siberian Northern Pacific stock for control was book was an ar- the inciting cause. The Northern Seraignment of the curities Company was organized to Russian autocracy hold the shares of the Great Northern. because of the the Northern Pacific and the Burlingcruelty with which ton roads. Its shares were exchanged it treated political for the railroad shares and nearly all prisoners. Because of the shareholders consented to the plan! of it the Russian by depositing their holdings with the police forbade his new company. The company was atreturn to Russia. tacked in the courts as a combination in

He has just restraint of trade under the Sherman GEORGE KENNAN written a life of F. and trust law, and was ordered distil. Harriman, published by Houghton, solved by the Supreme Court by a vote particularly the beautiful manner in which it is made, the splendid color flustrations, and the wide range of its contents. Succeeding volumes will follow at short intervals, practically before you have entirely read Volume I. The price is $3.75 per volume, $15.00 the set.

Miffin Company, in which he has come of five to four. The majority insisted that the combination was in restraint of a successful manufacturer who straight of competition and that the law against restraint of trade was a law against restraint of trade wa Miffin Company, in which he has come of five to four. The majority insisted to the defense of one of the most czar- that the combination was in restraint The Bishop of Arkansas, Rev. James Mr. Harriman was butterly attacked as the competing business of the three hospital corps at the battle of Gettysthe great constructive forces of his the epinion prevails that if the Court and reported, time, and that the West, where he was were asked to pass on a similar issue. The book will entertain those who active in rullroad development, has profited greatly as a result of what he somewhat different. Indeed, the new will instruct ambitious young men who

When the good and evil that he did ave balanced it will be found that the good preponderates.

three famous books and Mr. Dark's J. J. Hill, who long before his death was hailed as the maker of the Northwest. Mr. Harriman's reputation durbare rivated that of Mr. Hill. Mr. Harriman did his work without any blowing of trumpets. He decided what ought to be done and did it quietly. Only those whose business it was to keep them-selves informed were aware at the time of the revolutionary methods he employed in rebuilding the Union Pacific FTWO chapters are devoted to the

Mr. Kennan tells the story of Mr. an interview between the President and tional automata. Harriman's cutrance into railroading the railroad man in 1995.

by buying a small line in New York tells the Harriman side of it, which is tery yarns there is an abundance of humor—and not merely comic relief, humor—and not merely comic relief, but the state of the property was asked for by Mr. Harriman's entrance into railroading the railroad man in 1904. Mr. Kennan sold this line to the New York Central Roosevelt in the first place and that in the Illinois Central. He wanted to appear that it was Mr. Harriman who teal, but a regular feller. And the girl connect the Illinois Central with the sought the interview. The letters that well, Evelyn will linger long in the Union Pacific and although he could passed are quoted so that the reader nor do this directly he forced his way may form his own conclusion. As Mr. absorbing conclusion, into the Union. Pacific directorate and Kennan leaves it Roosevelt does not apthe inimitable elements of her strongly reased to value and enriched their ow ners Mr. Harriman was definitely a railroad operator rather than a speculator with the faction which he thought was in railroad securities. He made his most trustworthy. His purposes, acmoney by making profitable the roads cording to his defender, were unselfish in which he was interested rather than and public-spirited. by combinations and the issuing of new securities to be unloaded on the innocent public. Mr. Kennan makes this greatness of his work has been appre. WHERE YOUR TREASURE IS. By John clear in his story.

lear in his story. Mr. Harriman, however, was hitterly attacked for various things that he did, and he let his accusers have their say without contradicting them.

The struly astonishing to find so understanding a portrayal of masculine

MR. KENNAN tells the story of the history of the development of America, in which Mr. Herricharacter as in volved. There is the Northern Securi-

Mark Twain's other stories by Mark Great Satire Twain. The others are "A Horse's Tale."

THE colorful, swashbuckling story is L coming back into its own. The Daniel, the author, has brought forth for the hidden treasures of the new world forms a background of the tale. It runs true to form and is a repetition of the synopsis of a hundred other such stories of a decade ago. The author his failed to get himself into the colorful

Radio Fans information mean the new science, Many so-called "popular" text-books have been issued, but none of them seems to get down to the "words-of-one-syl-lable" simplicity demanded by the boy enthusiast and the hard-headed bustness man who knows how to turn on an electric light, but nothing else about electricity. The principal mistakes of information about the

Brief Notes About Entertaining Books

Mysterious Stranger. It has just been far sent out by publishers. Its author, Maurice J. Grainger, has the knack

Those who do not own a complete operator, set of the writings of Twain can get from this volume a pretty fair idea of the range of his intellectual interests.

LOVERS of attractive books will be the range of his intellectual interests.

and a raste of his literary methods. Page & Co. are issuing in what they are nor interested in these Page & Co. are issuing in what they call the Lambskin Li-dependency of the parket of Coronado Page & Co.: illustrates this literary tendency almough Haw the rule.

Daniel the author has brought forth this discription commentator. Mr. McFee has something that is conventional in the Conrad: that neglecting certain easily

Cxtreme. explained failures men react to Conrac The story of Coronado and his search in direct ratio to their integrity of charfailed to get himself into the colorius mood old Mexico would seem to warrant, and as a result he has produced only a routine story, but one that keeps interest fairly alert along well-grooved of the Weevil works of the famous Frenchman as translated

WiTH the popular craze for radio de Matros. In each of the eleven coltumbs, be it "The life of the Spider."

Avancted that publishers would be quick. The Life of the Weevil." M. Fabre

The Life of the Weevil." M. Fabre

these authors are two—they cannot A. S. M. Hutchinson's New Novel seem to talk without technical terms. A. S. M. Hutchinson, author of "If and they cannot seem to illustrate by Winter Comes," has just cabled Little.

any method other than the diagram with Brown & Co. his American publishers, electric symbols which are totally untable to the novice.

"Amateur Radio" (James A. Mc-called "This Freedom." and will be Cann Company) seems to have got published in September.

society is Mark Twain's "The trated simply than any other book so

LIFE OF FARQUHAR

The York Manufacturer Has Written an Interesting Autobiography

It is unfortunate that the autobiography of A. B. Farquhar, of York, is published under the title of "The First Million the Hard-est" (Doubleday, Page & Co.). The the book about the second million and only incidentally is anything said.about A. B. PARQUHAR first million. lines formed but a small part of their burg. He was active in preventing the But Mr. Kennan has chosen to make total business and also as the combina-destruction of York by the Confederate an attempt to explain and interpret Mr. tion did not prevent the building of Harriman instead of to attack him. competing lines by any one who had the formed circles to disagree with his constant was political, growing out of the clusion that Mr. Harriman was one of aniation against his combinations and usion that Mr. Harriman was one of agrication against big combinations and went back to York without interference > railread law provides for regional com. are auxious to know what are the prinbinations of ratiroads like that provided for by the Northern Securities Company and that if the combinations are not made by the railroads themselves and that if the combinations are not made by the railroads themselves and that it is a safe rule to within a given time they shall be made.

HUMOR AND HAZARDS MARK MYSTERY NOVEL

Octavus Roy Cohen can write mighty good detective stories as well as mighty amusing Afro-American fiction. He proves it in his new mystery yarn. 'Midnight'' (Dodd.Mead & Co.). From a baffing situation he works through page after page of bazard and Railroad and in transforming its owners from a bankrupt into a prosperous man growing out of the negotiations for acters have real human characteristics and not merely the movements of figand not merely the movements of ficbut intrinsic to the people and the sit sold this line to the New York Central Roosevelt in the first place and that unitions. The detective here is not a Company and then became interested later Mr. Roosevelt tried to make it blood-justing sleuth, hard and mechanmemory after the story is pursued to its

NEW BOOKS

Fiction

And so it goes through all the activities of the man. Since he died the greatness of his work has been appearance.

H. Turner. New York: Charles Scrib-ner's Sons. A novel that has been called a witty. microus, yet sincere and deep commen-ry on modern life. against him is admitted to have been tary unjust. If Mr. Kennan has erred it has AFTERGLOW By Edith Thompson. New been on the wide of favoritism. But his book on the whole is a valuable contribution to the history of the develop.

AFTERGLOW By Edith Thompson. New Tork E. P. Dutton & Co.

The story of a fine dauntless woman set in the story of a fine dauntless woman set in the story of a fine dauntless woman set in the story of a fine dauntless woman set in the story of a fine dauntless woman set in the story of a fine dauntless woman set in the story of a fine dauntless woman set in the story of a fine dauntless woman set in the story of a fine dauntless woman set in the story of a fine dauntless woman set in the story of the develop.

tribution to the history of the development of America, in which Mr. Hyrriman had a large place.

G. W. DOUGLAS.

Entertaining Books

Entertaining Books

Description of the whole is a valuable control of the national capital in high social circles of the national capital third section of the natio BARHARA JUSTICE. By Diana Patrick.
New York: E. P. Dutton & Co.
The life of a very modern girl is drawn against a vigorous and colorful background of outdoor life and varied incident, the result being a delightful story.

included by the Harpers of keeping his explanations fairly well within the limits of the ordinary man's FRANK OF FREEDOM HILL By S. A. Dorleux. New York: Doubleday, Page A story for dog lovers of all ages. tain Stormfield's Visit to Heaven, "A Fable, "My Platonic Sweet heart," "Hunting the Decentful Turkey" and "The McWilliamses and the pany them suggest that Mr. Verrill is more of a theorist than a practical radio THE KINGFISHER. By Phyllis Bottome.

New York: George H. Doran Company.

The novel of the making of a man by the author of "The Dark Tower."

THE BRIGHT MESSENGER. By Algernor Blackwood. New York E. P. Dutter Blackwood. New York E. P. Dutto; Company
A great assmic intelligence is the base of this striking novel by a high priest of the psychic and superhuman among litterateurs

LADY BOUNTIFUL. By Geo. A. Birming-ham. New York: George H. Doran Co. A light-hearted and irrepressible story by the author of a number of fictional successes. SUNDRY ACCOUNTS. By Irvin S. Cobb.
New York: George H. Deran Company.
Another volume of this favorite writer's sterling short stories. He is a master hand at delineating American traits and picturing American characters.

THE NOTION COUNTER, Boston: Atlantic Monthly Press,
This is called "A farrage of foldles, being notes about nothing, by Nobody, illustrated by Somebody, dedicated to Everybody.
Motors, checkbooks, shoe shops and many other familiar subjects are discoursed upon quaintly and with a pretty wit and mellow, tender humor.

tender humor.

THE GREAT ADVENTURE AT WASHINGTON. By Mark Sullivan. New York:
Doubleday, Page & Co.
The story of the Conference.

THE REVOLT ADAINST CIVILIZATION.
By Lothrop Stoddard. New York:
Charles Scribner's Sons.
The author of "The Rising Tide of Color" and "The New World of Islam" herein treats of "the mensoe of the under man' and discusses the unfealized gravity of potential revolution.

THE DATA THAT ARE NO MORE.

tential revolution.

THE DATS THAT ARE NO MORE. New York: E. P. Dutton & Co. Reminiscences of Princess Pauline Metternich, a gay, with figure of the Third Empire, and a confident of the Empress Eugenie. She was the granddaughter of the celebrated Austrian diplomat. PAPER MAGIC. By Houdint. New York: E. P. Button Company.

The celebrated magician and manacle-breakes describes the whole art of performing with paper, including paper learing, paper folding and paper puzzies.

BOOK EXCHANGE

Rare First Editions

W. A. GOUGH, 41 East 60th Street, New Tork, issues a monthly fist of old, rare and curious books which he will be pleased to send to collectors on request. When writing please state your interest.

Autographed Letters TOGRAPH Letters of famous people

A trograph latters of ramous people bought and sold. W. R. Benjamin, 1476 Broadway, N. V. Pub. the Collector, $1 year. Established 1887, Samples free.

WANTED: autographed letters, MSS, Association books, of famous people or of historical interest, Harry Stone, 181 Fourth Ave., New York City.

Scientific Books

E. STECHERT & CO., 151 W. 28th St. N. Y. offer following cause: 40 Nat. Sciences: 42 Sets of Periodiceis: 43 Ene. Lit.: 44 Americans: 45 Art. & Bibl.: 46 French: 47 Medicine. Libraries purchased at highest cash value.

Second-Hand Books WILLIAM H. ALLEN, 3417 Walnut St.
Philadelphia. Second-hand books in the field of the humanities. Catalogues issued
Out-of-print books searched for and reported without charge.

Books Wanted

OUT-OF-PRINT BOOKS FURNISHED. Catalogues issued. E. R. Robinson, 410 River St., Trov. New York.

THE

By Gene Stratton-Porter

This is a long narrative poem of sustained beauty and strength, typically American not only because it exhibits the sturdy qualities which mark all of Mrs. Porter's work, but also because it is the tale of the first Americans, the

At all bookshops $1.75 DOUBLEDAY, PAGE & CO. GARDEN CITY, NEW YORK

Memories Eighty Years

CHAUNCEY M. DEPEW Second Large Printing

"I have found a great deal of inspiration in your book." -President Harding

"A book pervaded by a spirit of optimism and written by a man of sense." -New York Herald "One big storehouse of anecdote. . . . Most emphatically an entertaining

-The Outlook

At all bookstores $4.00 CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS

Read

Romance - intrigue - thrills, in this big novel, with the under-world rubbing shoulders with the darlings of fashion and the kings

At All Bookstores, $1.90 Publishers

Joanna Godden By Sheila Kaye-Smith

SAMUEL HOPKINS ADAMS says: "No woman portrait of many years stands out in my fictional gallery as does Joanna Godden. . . The tragedy and triumph of her life, so strangely intertwined, are set forth with a serenity, a breadth, an even unpalliating justice that lift the work clear above the levels of merely interesting fiction." $2.00 at any bookstore or from E. P. Dutton & Co., 681 5th Ave., N. Y.

BODY IN THE BLUE ROOK A MYSTERY STORY BY SIDNEY WILLIAMS AT ALL BOOKSTORES $1.75

AFTERGLOW

A Novel by EDITH THOMSON

An exclusive resort in the Berkshires and high social circles in Washington give an attractive setting to this appealing novel. It is the story of a woman of fine courage and unusual charm who, having risked marriage with a much younger man, needs all her power and subtlety to keep him unconscious of the dividing years. It is thus both a comedy and a tragedy, and also a social picture presented with understanding and warm sympathy.

$2.00. Any bookstore can supply it; if not, it can be had from

1524 Walnut St.

Our Entire Stock of Books Is Reduced 25%. On June 1st we are discontinuing our shop and are closing out our business. From now until that time our entire stock will be sold at a 25% reduction.

E.P. DUTTON & CO., 681 Fifth Ave., New York

Warham Bookshop

THE MEMOIRS OF THE CROWN PRINCE OF GERMANY A Suggestion of What the Book Contains

Written during his exile in Holland

This is a social and historical narrative of supreme importance. No German was more fully "in the know" than the author and at the same time so detached in viewpoint. He has written what is incomparably the most significant, as well as the most surprising, record that has come from a German source since the war.

At All Bookstores. Illustrated. $5.00

CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS, NEW YORK

Court life

An outspoken estimate of his father's character. What he thinks of Prussian standards.

His opinion of Queen Victoria.

His high admiration for Edward VII. The reasons for the defeat at Verdun.

Why he wanted to make Peace after the Marne. His travels and visits to foreign ronalties. His life in Holland.

His own domestic life. How he regards Hindenburg and Ludendorff.

Psychiatry History

H.G.Wells' New Novel

THE SECRET PLACES OF THE HEART

And now H. G. Wells, fairly bristling with a host of new ideas has proceeded to skirt with magnificent buoyancy the fascinating edges of psychoanalysis, as he relates the rambles, romance and delectable conversational exploits of a vivacious American girl and a keen-witted Englishman. A book so completely Wellsian that it makes one quiver with joy.

THROUGH THE SHADOWS

A New Novel By Cyril Alington "The charm of Sir Harry A comedy of love and manners Johnston's novel is first a good and delicious dialogue staged at story and an amazing gallery a jolly house party. A novel that of belongs in that rare category of tonishing. A treat to be antici-$1.75 pated and enjoyed."-The Inde. really humorous books.

RADIO RECEIVING FOR BEGINNERS By Rhey T. Snodgrass and Victor F. Camp

Practical, fundamental instruction for the thousands who want of cost, operation and apparatus ly contesting their views with simply answered. Ill., $1.00 his own.

ENGLISH AND AMERICAN PHILOS. OPHY SINCE 1800

THE VENEERINGS

A New Novel

By Sir Harry Johnston

characters; odd, lively, as

By Arthur Kenyon Rogers A critical review based on the to "listen in" on the astounding author's personal attitudes, rethings which are passing through viewing the philosophical systhe air every moment. Questions tems of other thinkers by frank

New York

For Sale at All Bookstores or From pendent.

THE MACMILLAN COMPANY 64-66 Fifth Avenue

GENTLE JULIA By BOOTH TARKINGTON

COMPANION book to Penrod and Seventeen. A A gay and joyous book. Julia Atwater, the "prettiest girl in town," was so devastatingly kind that each of her numerous admirers felt that he was the favored one. Each dangled hopelessly, yet hopefully. Julia was afflicted with relatives, the most trying being her niece, Florence, who, like Penrod, was immensely fertile and diabolically energetic.

From Julia with her gift for dress, her distracting coquetry and her disarming beauty, to Nobel Dill and his fellow unfortunates living in a haze of rosy infatuation, Tarkington has pictured a new group of people you will recognize at once.

At every Bookstore $1.75

Doubleday, Page & Co. & Garden City, New York

The Dark House I. A. R. WYLIE'S strongest novel

H. S. OSKISON writes:- "Miss A. HAMILTON GIBBS calls it Wylie is delightful reading aside from the story she may have to tell. There is perhaps. more of darkness and striving in this story than most readers care for, yet there is an extraordinary quality of delight in the book, too. . . . There is storm here, but there is peace

"one of the finest and completest pieces of literature that has been penned these many years. The working out of its problem is as clear-cut as a diamond and makes a fascinating and exciting book. . . From both the psychological and the fictional angles 'The Dark and leveliness, 100." - New House' is an exceptional book.' York Herald. -Philadelphia Ledger. E. W. OSBORN writes: "In many ways it is a stronger piece of work than Miss Wylie has given us before. In particular it reveals in the study of its principal character an understanding and a sympathy that seem to us phenomenally keen."-The World. $2.00 at any bookstore. E. P. DUTTON & CO., 681 Fifth Avenue, New York

DORAN BOOKS

SUNDRY ACCOUNTS

By Irvin S. Cobb

"Within two covers he has enclosed stories which range from stark tragedy to broad farce. I know of no other writer in this country or any other who possesses such scope. I believe that three at least of these stories will live long after Cobb has gone. A rich and meaty feast."-Robert H. Davis, New York Herald.

Just Published $2.00

The Bright Messenger

By ALGERNON BLACKWOOD

Author of "Julius Le Vallon." "The Wolves of God," etc. "A thread of dual personality, a touch of psychoanalysis, a suggestion of auto-hypnotism, a development of true and saving love-all these are in 'The Bright Messenger.' It is a fascinating book, and to its writing Mr. Blackwood has brought that remarkable gift for dealing with the supernormal for which among writers of the day he long has been distinguished."-E. W Osborn in The World.

$2.00. Any bookstore can supply it, if not, it can be had from

E. P. DUTTON & CO., 681 Fifth Avenue, New York