Shoots at Taxicab and Then Locks Driver in Cell

Veadon was tremendously stirred ap-resterday by a "bandit classe," in which two taxicals figured. There was Jackson, chairman of the Police Committee, was appealed to by residents who heard the row, and he harried out; to find one of his own patrolmen on the Locked in the little jail of the borough was a perfectly innocent taxl driver, who was loudly demanding his rights. He was freed at once with profuse apologies by Burgess. W. Vernon Phillips; then came the ticklish job of getting the gun away from John H. Paul, the offending patrolumi.

Paul, it appears, had confiscated some booch, inwardly. When the stuff began to work he went out and hired a taxicab, according to Burgess Phillips. "Paul was a perfectly good man and a fine patrolman until he got intoxicated," said the Burgess. "We were sorry to let him go, but of course we had to disjuss him.

we had to dismiss him.

"He hired a taxicab and then set in chase of another taxicab, shooting at it, and hitting it three times. Then he arrested the driver, and put him in jail. Of course, it was most unfor-tunate, but I think the man who was locked up, while mad enough at the time, sees the humor of it now. No. 1 really cannot result his name. He lived

New Summer Styles of Cool Cotton Materials

A manufacturer's clearance group bought at about half price! If you want a good-looking, dainty Summer Dress at a very low cost, come and sec this lot Wednesday-and come early, for there are only 100. Both light and dark shades in voiles and dimities; several different styles for street wear-these are not House Dresses. Wonderful values, surely!

Other Dresses, Suits, Waists at Very Low Prices

We have established this First Floor Section primarily as a "clearing house" for our regular departments. If a garment has been in stock too long, if it is a bit soiled or damaged, we bring it down to Economy Square and put a very low price on it for quick disposal. In addition, we shall have there from time to time special purchases of small lots such as the $5.00 Dresses above mentioned. You can find here many things at really remarkable savings.
