aul and Virginia By HELENA HOYT GRANT

Vice the Seedling

WL, dear, what was it you said simple oatmeal and a coffee substitute was enough, and she exulted that by remember. What was it?"

"I've forgotten exactly." confessed Virginia, "but it occurred to me today that there are a good many people who many people who transform a virtue into a-well, an aw-fully solemn failing.

if not exactly a vice."
nodded, half asleep. Guess that's so," he mumbled, Mabel Brown is getting to be a great Mabel Brown?" Oh, you know, dear-Will Brown's Ble called this afternoon. She's and about putting something away or a rainy day

"You mean saving money?" Well, I thought you were an enwerry about our getting over-supplied with cash. Not with the car sitting up on its hind legs and begging for more." "Mabel confesses she never buys a new dress any more. She saves the money and goes without. And as for hats! She sat right in this chair and "That's almost sacrilegious," agreed

The Unconscious Sinner

By HAZEL DEVO BATCHELOR

Cleo Ridgefield is the type of girl unconsciously tempts men to love to her When she refuses Wheeler, he attempts to commit suicide, and is saved by the ap-pourance of his guardian, Carey Phelps. Believing Cleo to be a solution adventuress, Carey decides to win her love for the purpose of paying her blick in her own coin, but on the night of their first meeting. Cleo receives a proposal from Bob Elliscorth, a man she has never thought of seriously. Carey loses no time in beginning his campaign, and asks Cleo if he may call. On the might that she is expecting him. Bob errives and the two men recognize each other in the hall.

The Breaking Point

OB went out into the night, a sudden hatred of Cleo burning in his beart. He was convinced now that he iberately encouraged him to make love to her, and a sick disillusion enveloped him. But unlike Dick, he was not tempted to do anything rash. More than anything else his pride had been hurt, and because he had idenlized Cleo and the had proved unworthy, faith in all

As for Carey, his heart had leaped sultantly. He had caught the siren processing her wiles. This nice boy, as broken, and no doubt she had done this because a new victim had loomed up on the horizon. He, Carey Phelps, was that victim, and if anything had been that victim, and if anything had been that victim. to spur him in his intentions. this was the necessary stimulus.

Almost noiselessly he entered the livod in the center of the room just ps must see that something was ughter and enthusiasm. As it was, was only a frightened girl, nghast at the amount of heartache she had awittingly caused

She tried to smile, but for the first failed to respond. She had a sudden sensation of faintness as though a black curtain had suddenly dropped between herself and the light, and then as she

Carey Phelps was suddenly conscious of the stillness of the place. They were alone, and he hadn't a doubt in the world that Cleo had done this deliberately. He had a contempt for women who fainted, it was just one of their many tricks, and in Cleo and set the usual time for the head a contempt for their many tricks, and in Cleo are set to the usual time for the head and set the contempt for their many tricks, and in Cleo are set to the usual time for the head and set the contempt for the leavest is the usual time for the head. comen who fainted, it was just one of heir many tricks, and in Cleo's case lever and up-to-date as this modern to show.

But Cleo's lashes did not lift, and face was of a uniform deadly pallor faint seemed real enough, and Carey not want to believe this. He did t want to believe this. He did twent to Believe Cleo capable of thing real or genuine. Seen this the seemed very young and fragile and not at all the worldly young thing hat he chose to believe her. His keen y eyes swept her face and lingered her mouth.

ly seemed that she was breathing. ous of the fact that what so many had desired he now held in his Dick had been on the point of this life because this privilege had withheld from him, and that i-faced boy he had met tonight in the ball. He had been desperate enough to do anything, and all because this made a practice of playing at love.
Was she so desirable? And if so orein lay her power? He, Carey ope, held her in his arms cradled helps, held her in his arms crudled rainst his breast, and yer he had only mpt in his heart for her.

Tomorrow-"I Want You te Go!"

What to Do

one drawback to crocheting.

And they decided that a breakfast of other night about people of their vices?"

The lord of the establishment yawned and I imagine Mabel and I imagine Mabel is first in line to deposit every Monday morning when the saving bank opens."
"They'll be pretty well fixed by the time they're fifty, going on at that rate," ruminated Paul gravely

nated Paul gravely.

B u t Virginia's smooth brow was ruf-

"But will they be well fixed, dear?" she countered, "They will have the money, of course, but don't you think that after twenty-five years of stinting they will have fallen into the groove—a habitual miserliness that will have taken away all the happiness that money is supposed to bring?"

"They'll be safe from want," said Paul thoughtfully. "But what's safety without enjoy-ment of life?" Virginia regarded her husband through narrowed eyes. "A man in prison is safe enough—he knows

"Certainly I'm an enthusiast. Do I core fail to make the deposit in the bank every week? But saving is a virtue up to a certain point and after that—well, it makes one a slave to money. Money is supposed to be the servant, I think, don't you?"

Paul chuckled.
"You're getting to be mighty wise. boney. But I don't believe you need werry about our getting over-supplied with each. You with the care sixting and supposed to be mighty wise."

But I don't believe you need werry about our getting over-supplied with each. You with the care sixting and serimping and going without and I'm afraid they'll not care much for each other by that time."

By Jove, I believe you're right, Viryes, If this girl has been subjected to

"we must never fail once The almost-perfect husband laughed told me she didn't even get a new hat cheerfully and pinched her cheek as he for this last Easter."

Tomorrow-Those Provocative Fashions

Through a Woman's Eyes

Little Mother's Rag Doll In the children's ward of a large hospital in New York, where toys are counted upon to add in making sick children well, there was held recently a by popularity contest to determine thich toy held the greatest appeal.

With the little girl, of course, nothing was expected to stand a chance against the doll, which frequently must "go to bed" with her to help put her to sleep. But what specific kind of doll stands first in her affections, the test had to disclose.

There was the big doll that stood almost as high as her prospective say "mother." and the tiny doll in long who baby clothes; there was the beautiful doll with red hair that did not come There was the wender talking doll that could say 'Yes' and 'No' and 'Mamma,' and could open and close her big blue eyes. And the walking as Bob had left her, and she wheeled around as Carey entered. Bob's visit most intensely attached to the least to the breaking point, and she was herribly conscious of the fact that Carey.

And while this is true, who can deny accountable to you are for her, and marry and bear marry and b that "God's in his Heaven, all's right with the world"—a world where our mothers love us for our needs instead ould have turned delightedly from one of our attractiveness, and even the ictim to another. She would have been petential mother hugs tightest to her had with success, bubbling over with baby bosom the old rag doll! "Bachelor" Writes From New York Madame Cynthia—By way of variety the writer decided to address you thusly.

Odd Facts

The distinction of being the only woman to be married in a blazing church probably belongs to a recent bride in England. party arrived at the church they found the building ablaze, and a small army sayed to take a step forward, she of firemen deluging the flames with rumpled up in a heap in the middle of water. Nothing daunted, the prospecshe would not leave the church unwed.

cears is the usual time for the be-her slim young body was limp in his better if it was saided up a interpolation of the property of the document of the property where am I?' Although he imagined want to do this again just as soon as that phrase too worn out for any one as ever the first bit of tarnish commences people have acquired the habit of using finger-bowls at the home table. Yet they should know how to use these dainty adjuncts when they are away from home, whether at a private house, or in a hotel, restaurant or dining car. It is not correct to immerse the hand as though the finger-bowl were a washbasin. The proper way is to dip the tips of the fingers into the water, one hand at a time, and then to dry the finger-tips with the table napkin held in the lap. Finger-bowls are served after a formal dimer, or following a fruit it is false pride to be asha

WHAT'S WHAT

Please Tell Me What to Do

'Two Collegiates' Approve of 'Paul' Dear Cynthia — In accordance with "Paul," we wish to say that we certainly acquiesce with his idea of the "Modern but you don't."

From Paul's letter, we judge that he is a man—well-bred and upright! We would be giad to hear the opinion of one whom we esteem a gentleman.

A New Bit of Rudeness

TWO COLLEGIATES.

Dear Cynthia—Your criticism about just Stepping Out's" whistling being it of tune, or blowing the girl's hair, it believe, not the real reason in its instance for the girl's remark of

Yes, if this girl has been subjected to tuch rudeness as you describe, with other boys, it would be only natural for her to suspect any one who started whistling. le dancing with her. This is another of the innocent getting the snul guilty deserves. Any girl is

A Comeback From "Doc" Dear Cynthia—Reading your column I saw that a "Mother of Three Daugh-ters" refuted some of my statements. I think that she did not write facts, but nerely stated her opinion of what things think that she did not write laces, should be.

No, I do not expect to find Quaker girls in the cabarets, as there are few Quaker girls in the city. Philadelphia girls cannot be called Quakers merely because the city was founded by William Penn. Quaker girls would not associate with your Philadelphia girls.

I did not say that drinks were served, but there is plenty of liquor to be had.

The truth is that the girls are more enthusiastic over the liquor than the boys. I hope you will get to a dance where the truth of this can be seen. What mother can say the morals of a girl are not lowered by wearing short?

Cycling is good exercise for the legs. Its advantage over walking is that the same amount of effort carries one further and, in that way, adds to the interest of the outing.

It is inferior to walking in that, in cycling the pelvis is held fixed and the trunk and arm muscles get very little. cigarettes. norals would not be lowered? As to where I come from, I can say that it is the section of the country where mothers do not go to dance halls,

Lets the Girls Decide About His riding. Looks

There was the could say "Yes" and "Y But the old rag doll that had nothing but them, the poor pitiful little beggar that was all needs, they loved.

We have heard it remarked, some-

Madame Cynthia—By way of variety the writer decided to address you thusiy. I cannot regist the temptation to reply to "A Pennsylvania Girl." As I am a constant reader of your column, I trust you will industry the same and the constant reader of your column. I trust you will induige me as you did last summer by publishing my note when replying to "Somebody's Stenog," who was so worried herause of the desire of "viveline-haired, lazz-erazed, dance-hail Johnnies" to kiss a girl when they had seen her to her home.

"A Pennsylvania Girl." That title means more than words. From her letter replying to the empty nut who signed himself Sir Galahad I would tell the round-eyed world that Miss A. P. G. is a real girl, a live wire, but why wish anything like that shell on the theatrical profession, which as is well known, is the most liberal and fair-minded of any profession in the world? We all know there are numerous undesirables who are making their living in the world of make-believe, but they, too, have to live. There their many tricks, and in Cleo's case be was certain that she tried it whenever abe felt it would gain her semething.

He hesitated for only a minute, then he strode across the room and lifted her up in his arms.

How slight she was! He had not moticed this so much when he had been deading with her as he did now that her slim young body was limp in his arms.

A slight smile curved his lips as he had seen the small time for the better than fixed in Afghanistan.

A Hint on Cleaning

If you happen to have a small coin purse made of silver cloth, it's more than fixely that it would look much better if it was 'shined up' a little, because they do turnish so quickly. But you are wondering just how you can do this, aren't you? Well, it's very easy

Another Ashamed of Her Home

Dear Cynthia—I have never had the surage to write you before, but as I sud some one's answer to "Downheart-i" I thought I would just ask you to what you told "Downhearted as my case is similar to case is similar to hers er and fittier, who give me all they can afford to, but it's just this. We have a store, not a large one, and our house is not what it should be. I have never t any gentlemen friends to my but of late have met so many nic men that by turning teem down s reason have made myself miser e and lonesome. I am nineteen and the girl friends that I have of this all the girl friends that I have of this ige are keeping stendy company, while all I do is either go out myself or stay in the house, and I am sick and tired of it. I think I must be too self-conscious, because I think most girls would not stop for this reason. If I could only not think about the home and not care I know I would be much happier, but every time a young man wishes to call that is the first thing that enters my head.

Oh. Cynthia, I did not read what Downhearted" wrote or your answer

REVIVING AN OLD CUSTOM

Hand-weven, crocheted and knitted rugs are staging a come-back. This is a splendid way to use up your pieces and at the same time to brighten up some corner with brilliant colors and a fanciful design that you have composed all yourself. Ancient silk stockings, no matter how big their holes, make beautiful strips for crocheted or braided rugs. One or two of these rugs on your summer porch would add both decoration and

PHYSICIAN SAYS GIRLS SHOULD PLAY

Do you still think that their trunk and arm muscles get very little Walking does not exercise the muscles of the back and arms as much as they should be. While it jolts the liver more than cycling does, it is far less helpful oil daughter's stockings and light their garettes.

Drilling and gymnastics are good, es-games generally extended over a period by for her She has seen large numbers of them her, and marry and hear families, and she is certain that playing games in youth had not lessened the fitness of women for

The woman of today is a better physibrilliant, but he is very direct and sincere. You'll make a mistake if you sincere. You'll make a mistage in the indirect methods with him. He is one of those plain, reasonable, well-balanced individuals, with whom you better go straight to the point in the most natural way you know how. Tomorrow—Selling the Broad Roman Nose

Things You'll Love to Make as though the finger-bowl were a wash-basin. The proper way is to dip the tips dark. T

The Woman's Exchange

A Dance In May To the Editor of Woman's Page:

Dr. W. A. Evans, of Chicago, gives an interesting talk on the opinions of Dr. Crow, a woman physician, about play for girls.

Dr. Crow helds that walking and cycling are both good, so far as they go.

Cycling is good exercise for the legs.

Its advantage over walking is that the same amount of effort carries one further and, in that way, adds to the interest of the outing.

It is inferior to walking in that, in cycling the pelvis is held fixed and the blows. Or have the circles and appropriate name for a dance to be given during the me an attractive and appropriate name for a dance to be given during the me an attractive and appropriate name for a dance to be given during the me an attractive and appropriate name for a dance to be given during the me an attractive and appropriate name for a dance to be given during the me an attractive and appropriate name for a dance to be given during the me an attractive and appropriate name for a dance to be given during the me an attractive and appropriate name for a dance to be given during the me an attractive and appropriate name for a dance to be given during the me an attractive and appropriate name for a dance to be given during the mean attractive and appropriate name for a dance to be given during the mean attractive and appropriate name for a dance to be given during the mean attractive and appropriate name for a dance to be given during the mean attractive and appropriate name for dance of this gorgeous stranger.

A May Blossom Ball would have a qualit sound, don't you think? Decorate with May blossoms and clusters of given, or of dogwood, if you still can find some. In the woods you will also find lots of feren, white the properties name and becomes just a hat beside the radiance of this gorgeous stranger.

And then you search about for some-thing to console yourself with.

Well, anyhow, you find at lest, we doesn't have the club dues that you have to pay, and so, of course, she can afford to buy a new hat.

That being appropriate name of course with the propert blows. Or have the girls at one end of the room and the boys at the other, and have each one dash for a partner. At the beginning, each time, march around two by two. If you want some games for your party, send a stamped, addressed envelope, and I can let you have some good ones. The descriptions are too long to print in the column.

Journalism

You can get a course of the kind you want at the University of Pennsylvania. The length of time varies, according to just what you wish to specialize in, and naturally the tuition varies, too. You could consult the dean about this, and he would advise you about your indi-

Adventures With a Purse FEEL reasonably certain that you will like the bracelets, provided always, of course, that you have a soft spot in your heart for this form of jewelry. They are made of a scries of square blocks, each containing mystic and decorative Chinese figures. The blocks themselves resemble porcelain, and the bracelets come in several colors.
I saw jade green, lavender and old rose,
Perhaps since they cost only fifty cents each you could afford to have more than one color—one to match or contrast with your summer dresses. They are strung on rubber, which means that they should fit the arm well, and stay where they are placed. I really think you will like them,

In the first place, I liked the way the shampoo was gotten up, and sec-ondly, I liked the scent, and third. I was convinced by the circular which accompanied it that it is a very good thing to use when washing the hair. It was just four months ago that I met a very refined young man whom I knew I could care for and still do. He asked me if he could call, but I refused as usual. A few weeks later he met another girl ric is still going with her. That shows how miserable we can make ourselves, so what is one to do? If you will answer this, dear Cynthia, you know how appreciated it will be. Thank you.

LONESOME.

A DARNED-MESH SCARF is a simple but effective way of making scarfs for the summer bungalow or home. Make the foundation scarf of a home. Make the foundation scarf of a coarse mesh net. Choose wool of a coarse mesh net. Ch

For names of shops address Woman's Page Editor or phone Walnut 3000 or Main 1601 between the hours of 9 and 5.

Mother Said Two Narrow Ribbons Would Make One Wide One Together

But When There Are Two Little Girls in One Family They Have to Take the Narrow Sashes—It's So All Through Life

MOTHER, I wish I could have a can be soothed.

The woman who must skimp and save funny and her's are wonderful.

Couldn't I?"

and part and consolation.

Her neighbor across the way starts out in a limousine at the same time that out in a limousine at the same time that

"No, dear," replied mother, busily tying and patting and smoothing and straightening. "The wide ones are too expensive."

The wide ones are too expensive."

The wide ones are too basket, and, like Dorothy, she wishes she could have something like that.

But then she remembers the fun that straightening. "The wide ones are too expensive."

"Ah, mother!" coaxed Dorothy. "I love nice wide ones. These are so stringy—couldn't I?"

"No, dear," said mother again, just as caimly. "Nellie's are wide because she's the only one. If you put yours and sister's together they'd be just as wide as hers, but you have to split them because there are two of you. Do you see?"

she could have something like that that But then she remembers the fun that the three children had the night before with the dog that always seems to be hungry, and the way they go through all the clothes all the time, and she found her reason for the "narrow sash." Had three hungry, and sister's together they'd be just as wide as hers, but you have to split them because there are two of you. Do you see?"

Dorothy saw and somehow it made tentedly. the narrow sash just a little easier to

It always is that way.

You can say, "Of course this sash is very narrow and all that, and yours is nice and wide, but then my sister has nice and wide, but then my sister has nice and wide, but then my sister has nice and wide. to have one, too; so mine is narrow, that's the reason. If you had a sister you'd have a narrow sash, too. By the time you get through the other person is pretty sorry she has a wide sash instead of a sister. T SAY "person" instead of "child"

I for the simple reason that we all carry this kind of self-consolation on into the time when we cease to be called "child." and admit even to our-selves that "person" is more appro-

Some one else, for instance, arrives at church of a fine Sunday morning with a previously unannounced new hat on.

You feel stunned.
She didn't tell you anything about that! The idea! Where did she get it, and when? And isn't it becoming?
Your own "very nice looking? best hat which is beginning to get accustomed to you and therefore rather willful about choosing its own angle instead of your loss its last remaining charm.

Can You Tell? By R. J. and A. W. Bodmer

What Happens When Our Hands Chap The sensitive parts of our skin are protected by a thickened form of tissue but the structure beneath this protecis the main motive.

Baseball, basketball, tennis, golf, am not heavy on my feet. In fact, have been complimented by dancing partners is forbidden for girls.

How does one acquire tact, and how this condition and regular chapped this condition and regular of oil in put it in practice?

When introduced is it correct to offer my hand? Sometimes the party introduced to me half hesitates between offering it to me and withholding. Should, I then offer mine, if I notice this hesitates with tancy?

this condition and regular chapped hands are cured by a coating of oil in the form of a good cream. When you apply this oil to the chapped skin you simply give it a new covering and at the same time provide the glands with the same time provide the glands w sed I rise when introduced to a new oil, since the oil glands have been dried up. Great care should be taken the face powder with a creamy base so that it cannot roughen the skin or clog the pores. So fine it adheres longer than any powder you have ever used. Exquisitely fragrant with MAVIS perfume. White, flesh, rose, rachel and the new duo-tint. VIVAUDOU'S

POUDRE CREME

SWIMMING AND TENRIS

For Women and Girls Instruction by experiment
New classes start every week
Begin summer sports now.
(Send or call for details) West Bids., 524 & Sansom Sta. Corth Bids., 1013 W. Lehigh Ave THE Y. M. C. A. OF PHILA

PROPERLY

Milmere Farm, Hatfield, Pa.

Dinnerware

125 Patterns

106 Pieces, $45 to $550

ALL "OPEN STOCK"

Wright Tyndale & van Roden 1212 Chestnut Street

Remember The Name

TWO narrow ribbons always make

POMPEIAN

Sold Everywhere

ITS STRENGTH, PURITY AND FRAGRANCE ARE UNEQUALED

The Sealed Packet is your safeguard

"THINGS GOOD TO EAT" FRED P. BELL

Since 1896 we have maintained a reputation for offering to the public only the very best Meats, Groceries, Fruits and Vegetables

SERVICE STORES 63d and Lansdowne Ave. 6380 Germantown Ave. 52d and Spruce Sts. 5012-14-16 Baltimore Ave. 43d and Baltimore Ave.

23 S. Lansdowne Ave. 3204 Woodland Ave.

2542 Germantown Ave. 2822 Germantown Ave. Belmonte Roast 22c lb. Shoulder of Spring Lamb .. 30c lb.

NON-SERVICE STORES

1339 So. 58th St.

4828 Woodland Ave.

Ridge and Girard Aves.

Pork Shoulders 20c a lb. City-Dressed Bacon, in the piece30c a lb. We Solicit Your CHARGE ACCOUNT for Our Service Stores

PROMPT DELIVERY SERVICE FARMANNAM "THINGS GOOD TO EAT"

clean CLEAN

Pots and Pans Painted Woodwork Steel Knives & Forks Marble, Tile and Linoleum - Kitchen Utensils of Copper
Tin and Aluminum

SCOUR POLISH