

FAMILY OF THREE HURT IN CRASH

Mother, Father and Daughter Victims of Auto Collision at Broad and Germantown

TWO DRIVERS ARRESTED

A mother, father and their daughter were injured last night when an automobile driven by the son crashed into another machine at Broad street and Germantown avenue.

The injured persons are Israel Barenbaum, fifty, of 923 North Fifth street; his wife, Jennie, aged forty-five, and their daughter, Edith, aged twenty, Samuel Barenbaum, the son, was driving the car.

According to eyewitnesses, a car driven by Benjamin R. Stevens, of 453 West Brighthurst street, was coming south on Broad street when the car driven north on Germantown avenue by Barenbaum crashed into Stevens' car. The Barenbaum family was hurled into the street, but the drivers of both cars escaped injuries aside from a few scratches.

The injured were taken to the Samaritan Hospital, where it was found that Mrs. Barenbaum had two fractured ribs and internal injuries; the daughter had three fractured ribs and a possible fracture of the skull and the father internal injuries.

Samuel Barenbaum and Stevens were arrested and at a hearing before Magistrate Belcher in the Park and Lehigh avenue station were held under $300 bail each for a further hearing June 1. Both were allowed to sign their own bail bonds, pending the result of the injuries to the Barenbaum family.

MRS. C. F. BERWIND LEFT ESTATE WORTH $200,000

Will Be Divided Equally Among Four Daughters

Mrs. Charles Frederick Berwind, of Philadelphia, who died in Paris April 20, left an estate valued at something more than $200,000, which, according to her will, probated today, is to be divided equally among her four daughters.

Mrs. Berwind was the widow of Charles Frederick Berwind, millionaire coal operator. She was a daughter of Cheney and Mary Hickman, of West Chester.

The surviving daughters are Mrs. H. Herman Harjes, of Paris; Mrs. Robert E. Straubridge, of New York; Mrs. Edith Berwind, and Baroness Gertrude von Bocklin, formerly Miss Gertrude Berwind.

Mrs. J. Swenson, 1819 South Broad street, whose will was probated today, left $120,000 to her four daughters. In the will of Joseph B. West, who died in the Philadelphia General Hospital, after private bequests are made, a memorial to his mother is left to the Mercy Hospital, provided by the residuary of his $50,000 estate.

The will of Nathan Than Leventhal, 6211 Ellsworth street, whose estate is valued at $13,000, was also probated.

ALLEGED MOTOR THIEF NOW IS CALLED BIGAMIST

Daughter of Brooklyn Policeman Says She Was Duped

Discovery by Marie Lepore, a Brooklyn police lieutenant's daughter, that she was not the only woman who claims Samuel Sofia, twenty-eight years old, of Girard avenue near Broad street, as husband resulted in his being charged with bigamy today. He is under an indictment also charged with auto-stealing.

Miss Lepore said she married Sofia in February, but learned he had a wife and three children living in Brooklyn.

WINS VERDICT FOR U. S.

Praises Efforts of Assistant District Attorney Joseph Kun

United States District Attorney Cole today praised the efforts of one of his assistants, Joseph L. Kun, who yesterday won a verdict for the Government involving a million dollars.

The Government was sued by William Carnell, Rydal, Pa., for the return of the motorboat "Carnell," according to Mr. Cole, was owner of the Hill Oil and Gas Company of Oklahoma. The Government tax experts levied an additional tax upon Mr. Carnell after investigating the case.

There are a score of like cases pending in the country and the Attorney General selected this district to try his test case. The jury returned its verdict for the Government.

GIRL CALLED SHOPLIFTER

Tears Fail to Make Impression on Magistrate Coward

Catherine Lester, Fortieth street near Pine, was held in $500 bail for the Grand Jury by Magistrate Coward today, charged with stealing a dress valued at $40 from a department store near Ninth and Market streets.

The girl, dressed in the latest finery, wept copiously when ordered fined.

Girl Golfer Weds

MILDRED CAVERLY MARSHALL, who was married today to E. E. Marshall, well-known clubman and horseman, who was divorced recently

MISS CAVERLY IS BRIDE

Girl Golfer is Married to Edward E. Marshall

The wedding of Miss Mildred Caverly, well-known golfer, and Edward Everett Marshall, president of the Huntingdon Valley Hunt Club, was solemnized in the Huntingdon Valley Episcopal Chapel yesterday.

Robert B. Caverly, of 6013 Emolen street, Germantown, gave the bride in marriage. The officiating clergyman was the Rev. H. H. Bird, of the Abington Presbyterian Church.

Mr. Marshall is president of the American Manganese Manufacturing Company. His first wife, who was Miss Sarah Tyler, of New London, Conn., obtained a divorce about a month ago, alleging desertion.

The couple will live in Meadowbrook. While the marriage was being solemnized, Mr. Marshall's horse Yagie was winning the fourth race at the Phoenixville Hunt.

HELD FOR MOTOR WRECK

Driver of Bus Says Fatal Accident Was Unavoidable

Burton Fish, driver of the Camden-Brooklyn autobus that was wrecked Tuesday, causing the death of one man and the injury of thirteen other passengers, was held today under $1000 bail for a further hearing by Mayor Anderson, of Gloucester City.

Fish said the bus overturned when the axle broke. The Gloucester authorities have taken steps to prevent speeding of buses through the city.

Louis Crowder, the man killed, will be buried Saturday afternoon from the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Hella C. Crowder, Gloucester City.

COMPLAINS OF PRISON

Mrs. Polak Says Hospital at Holmesburg Is Inadequate

A complaint that hospital facilities at the County Prison in Holmesburg are inadequate was made today by Mrs. Marion L. Cohen Polak, executive secretary of the Big Sisters.

Mrs. Polak said she has an affidavit from a former prisoner setting forth names and dates concerning prison inmates who were neglected during illness. Mrs. Polak also protested against the food served the prisoners.

ROGERS PEET AIM AT THE "GOLDEN MEAN"

Styles that are up-to-the-minute, yet never extreme—the sort that belong in a gentleman's wardrobe.

Knox straw hats.

FERRO & COMPANY Rogers Peet Clothes Chestnut St. at Juniper

ROGERS PEET CLOTHES

MATINEE MUSICAL CLUB OPENS ITS MAY FESTIVAL

Noon-to-Midnight Affair is at the Bellevue-Stratford

An astonishing display of seasonal and extra seasonal flowers, lingerie, luncheon napkins, homemade cakes and charming smiles was to be found in the Bellevue-Stratford today, where at noon the Matinee Musical Club opened its annual May fete.

There were also a cafeteria, serving special dishes, a fish pond, a fortune-teller and a soft-drink stand.

The fete will continue until midnight and in the course there will be a ballet by members of the Mask and Wig Club and fashion tableaux with a prologue called "Youth," and general dancing from 9 o'clock until 12.

The proceeds of the fete are to go to the Philadelphia Music League.

DIPLOMAS FOR NURSES

Hahnemann Training School to Have Exercises Tonight

Graduating exercises for the class of 1922 of the Hahnemann Medical College and Hospital Training School for Nurses will be held at 8 o'clock tonight. There will be musical selections by the Hahnemann Orchestra and Glee Club, besides several solos by well-known artists.

Diplomas will be awarded by Charles D. Barney to E. Matilda Boose, Dorothy E. Lichtenwalner, Anna G. Montgomery, Sarah A. Anderson, Marguerite E. Kimmel, Jane F. Phillip, Emily S. Davidson, Marie E. Schaeffer, Mary A. Bartleb, Thelma E. Greyboard, Genevieve Zlobocki, Helen A. Dorgan, Margaret Zimmerman, Edna Mock, Lillian Carlos, Winifred M. Meyer, Myrtle B. Prescott, Florence D. Hammer, Martha H. Morris, Marian A. Davis, Myrtle E. Seal, Anna F. Wakefield, Lois M. Temple, Arisob W. Eaton, Edith P. Coulter, Thelma E. Hawkins, Anna E. Johnson, Emily J. Axinger, Anna M. Sweney, Mae S. Smith, Eleanor S. Spengler, Florence Morrett, Isabel M. Selator and Gertrude A'Vil.

UMBRELLA CAUSES MISHAP

Diamond Street Man Failed to See Auto and is Injured

Hugo Eberle, 1738 Diamond street, was seriously injured early today when he was hit by an automobile at Broad street and Columbia avenue.

Eberle was holding an umbrella to protect himself from the driving rain. He did not see a machine driven by Joseph Donnelly, 414 Summerville street, Olney, and before the driver could turn aside, Eberle had walked directly into the car.

The injured man was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital where it was found he has a fracture of the left leg and possible internal injuries. Donnelly was arrested and at a hearing before Magistrate Belcher was held under $300 bail. He was allowed to sign his own bail bond.

MAN ENTICES CHILD AWAY

Little Girl Returns Later and Police Are Now Hunting Him

While standing at Thirteenth and Diamond streets last evening, Emma Schwalb, seven years old, 2100 North Thirteenth street, was spoken to by a man who she says persuaded her to go to Hunting Park. She didn't return home until 11 o'clock.

Detectives are looking for the man who is about forty-five years old, gray-haired, and who wore a blue suit, black shoes and soft hat.

Emma's parents died several years ago and she lives with Mrs. Agatha Wilhelm. The child was not harmed.

FINE FRAMING Etchings—Prints Water Colors—Paintings THE ROSENBACK GALLERIES 1320 Walnut Street

BOYS Today is Thrift Day

Begin now and be thrifty, save a few cents each week—see how these cents will grow to dollars. Open your account with us today. We pay you

4 1/4 % Interest

We Accept From One Penny to $5000

First Penny Savings Bank

21st and Bainbridge Sts. Branch, 1343 Chestnut St.

JOHN WANAMAKER, President.

Late 1921 Oakland Six Touring. New Last October. Private Owner

Three cord tires and one new fabric. "Twinlock" carrier for two spare tires. Equipment intact. Body paint has original lustre. Excellent nickel appointments. Run 6500 miles. Holds six comfortably. 34-D model. $675. Demonstration can be arranged for Thursday or Friday evening between 5:30 and 8:30 o'clock. Call Poplar 2590-W.

MacDonald & Campbell

New Tweed and Homespun Suits $30 to $65

New Tweed and Homespun effects, many imported. Made in all the approved models, with patch-pockets, and quarter lined. Wonderfully stylish suits that reflect the very genius of tailoring, and that will please you greatly. A delightful change, and most comfortable.

Note: Many Spring Motor Coats for owners of cars

1334-1336 Chestnut Street

Build for long service Shoddy in building becomes painfully evident in a very short time. A good architect and a good builder safeguard you against it. F. L. HOOVER & SONS Incorporated BUILDING CONSTRUCTION Since 1889 1021-1023 CHERRY STREET

GLASS FOR AUTOMOBILES PROMPT SERVICE REASONABLE PRICES Founded 1864 HIRES TURNER GLASS COMPANY 3074 & WALNUT PHILADELPHIA

It's a Miller Box! THE shelves are empty—All them with new goods in new boxes. WALTER P. MILLER CO., INC. 448-452 York Ave., Phila. Manufacturers of SPECIAL PAPER BOXES

The development of business-building ideas is one of the features of The Holmes Press service. 100% selected new rag stock 121 years' experience Bank notes of 22 countries Paper money of 438,000,000 people Government bonds of 18 nations THE HOLMES PRESS, Printers 1315-29 Cherry Street Philadelphia

DRESSES Dry Cleaned By Us Look Like New Our Cleaning and Dyeing Methods Are Dependable Over 100 Years of Service Barrett, Nephews & Co. Old State Island Dreins Establishment N.W. Cor. 12th & Sansom (118 S. 12th) Phone 4025 Walnut

Are You One? Some few friends don't know we've moved; and either go to or send letters to our old address. Please note our new location. THE CHESTNUT STREET ENGRAVING CO. INC. 7 E. COR. 11th & CHESTNUT STS.

Who Put This Sign on Your Desk? You did! And you live up to it. That's the trouble. And you put up pithy little maxims around the office like "Be Brief" and "Don't Park Here" and "Time is Money" and "Minutes Count"—but while you're trying to save a few minutes a day that way, your stenographer spends hours making funny little marks in a note-book—hours that you are paying for—hours that she ought to be using for producing letters. Take that sign away. Get posted on how Mr. Edison, with the new Electrip Ediphone, has helped make every business day a full business day. Take 10 minutes (you've been squandering millions of them since you first began with shorthand dictation)—and find out about this. We will call but once unless you ask us to return. Telephone, Spruce 8340, Race 2738 GEORGE M. AUSTIN 1627 Chestnut Street THE NEW Ediphone with Electric Control

BAILEY BANKS & BIDDLE CO. For Weddings OLD ENGLISH, FRENCH AND COLONIAL SILVER Reproductions of rare beautiful examples of the Silversmith's art Tea and Dinner Services Single Pieces Knives, Forks and Spoons Special Exhibition of Silver throughout the week

A MILLION PILES OF MAIL EVERY day upon millions of flat top desks is laid a pile of mail. In this big country letters are more often the means of contact than personal interviews. Often the whole responsibility of representing a house adequately rests upon letters. In each one of those million piles of mail there are certain letters that impress themselves. This impression is made up of the message, the way it is written and the paper. A succession of such letters in time builds up a favorable prejudice in the mind of the recipient, as surely as dropping water wears a hard stone. A favorable prejudice toward a firm is the first step toward a valuable good will. 100% selected new rag stock 121 years' experience Bank notes of 22 countries Paper money of 438,000,000 people Government bonds of 18 nations

Crane's BUSINESS PAPERS This Office Does Not Open Until 11 A.M.

There's no use talking—about low priced clothing if it doesn't mean fine quality, too. It's too risky to buy clothes for low price alone and too expensive to buy where fine quality means a prohibitive price. Here at Perry's our Super-Value policy has made it possible for you to buy fine quality clothes at very reasonable prices. AND to prove that's a fact and not just language—we want you to go around and see what other good stores are asking for clothes of similar quality before buying. Then come to Perry's. Our Super-Value prices on every article in our store mean a very definite saving of money on anything you purchase. PERRY'S

Our Super-Value Prices on Spring Suits Are $28 $33 $38 $43 Our Super-Value Prices on Junior Suits (14-18 Years) Are $20 $23 $25 $28 Our Super-Value Prices on Summer Tropical Suits Are $14.50 $17 $18 $20 $23 $25 $28 etc., etc., etc.

PERRY & CO. 16th and Chestnut SUPER-VALUES in Clothes for Men

The Investment the Public is Buying 6% Safety—Equal to Guaranteed Yield Government Bonds GENERAL MORTGAGE FINANCING CORPORATION Ridge & Girard Aves.

Men's Suits That are unmatched elsewhere at the price Unfinished worsteds, silk mixtures, chevots and tweeds—all sizes. Reed's Standard of Tailoring. A concrete illustration of real values in real clothes. JACOB REED'S SONS 1424-1426 Chestnut Street

BROWNING, KING & Co. Announce SPECIAL SALE Retailing at Wholesale Prices Men's Fancy Suits Oxfords, Blue Serges and Crash at $24.50 Worth 33% More In all prevailing models and a wide selection of materials and patterns. These suits are manufactured by us and their values guaranteed. Manufacturers and Retailers of Men's and Boys' Clothing Stores From Coast to Coast 1524-26 Chestnut St.