

BLUE RIBBON WINNER. Sidney Sharp was a busy little lady during the pony and dog show in Wynnewood yesterday. The judges picked her Ginger Ale as the best of one of the many classes

ANN MOORE, of Haverford, is riding the donkey which is being guided by Miss Margaretta Large Harrison. IN THE FASHION SHOW. Miss Catharine Knight, a model CAUGHT BY CAMERA AT WYNNEWOOD DOG, PONY, BABY, DOLL AND FASHION SHOW

IN FASHION SHOW YOUNGEST BLUE RIBBON SOLD CIGARETTES. Mrs. Persifer GROUP. Miss Jeanne de WINNER. She is Edith Earl Frazer was a very busy person Rousse Lee WINNERS AND AN AIDE AT WYNNEWOOD DOG AND PONY SHOW IN AID OF CHARITY

E. LAWRENCE FELL, talks of registration in Editorial Page interview

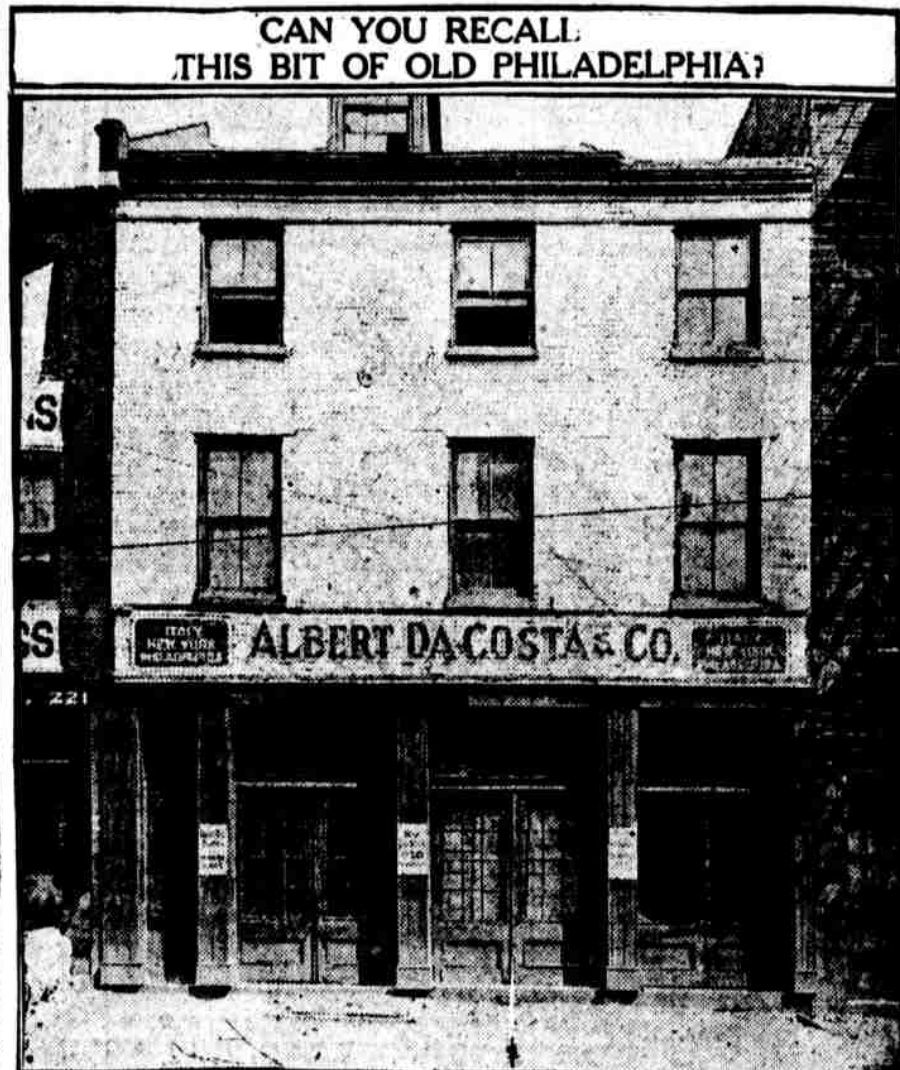

THEY WERE POLITICAL ENEMIES—NOW THEY ARE POLITICAL FRIENDS. W. Harry Baker, secretary of the Republican State Committee, congratulates Mr. Pinchot and starts plans to elect him

ARE THEY HAPPY? YOU BET THEY ARE! Gifford Pinchot and Mrs. Pinchot heard the news at the Bellevue-Stratford

MRS. DILLINGHAM, wife of theatrical producer, off for London with husband

THE APPROACH OF THE DELAWARE RIVER BRIDGE WILL COVER THIS SITE. This building, which was at 219 North Front street, was originally the property of the descendants of General Muhlenberg, of Revolutionary War fame. Mrs. A. E. Higgins, 4529 North Front street, who owned the property, contributed the photograph

MRS. ROBERT GRAVES, formerly Miss Lorraine Miller and later wife of Kingsley Swan, whom she divorced, sails for Paris

BEAT DRUM AND HELPED BEAT THIRD BATTALION. M. Armstrong, a fire fighter, was assisted in the drum work by Eddie McConaghy before the first and third battalions battled in the Firemen's League

AERIAL RUM RUNNER CRASHES IN NEW YORK STATE. This big airplane came to grief on a farm near Croton. When the farmer arrived he found the machine laden with Scotch and Irish whisky. The aviators escaped. State police believe that the plane was used in running liquor from Canada. They are examining the contraband

MISS BLANCHE MINNAUGH, 2004 North Third street, assembling photo mounts in the plant of the A. M. Collins Manufacturing Company, 226 Columbia avenue

MEMBERS OF THE WOMEN'S ORGANIZATION OF THE UNITED STATES VETERANS' BUREAU in the cast that will present "The Readers" at La Lu Temple tonight. From left to right: Reba Kretzge, Edith Large, Violet Ordish, Marjorie Leverett, Katherine McCutcheon, Florence Lowden (pianist), Virginia Smythe, Ann Coplin, Tillie Beerman and Lillian Tais

RECEIVING TELLER. Charles S. Barrett, of the Bank of North America, where he has been for twenty-one years. His hobby is automobiling