

A Most Astounding Public Response to William Hard's article "The Last of the Good Bandits." Senators, Congressmen, Members of the Legislatures of a dozen different states, wrote enthusiastically to editor Norman Hapgood about that remarkable article in Hearst's International for April!

Tremendously greater is going to be the public interest stirred up by Norman Hapgood's new

Inside Story of Henry Ford's Jew-Mania

In Hearst's International for June
And also by Gouverneur Morris's new novel "The Better Wife" asking

"Can a Bad Woman Make a Good Wife?"

also in Hearst's International for June

THESE two, together with Frazier Hunt's article on the PEOPLE of NEW IRELAND, and twenty-four other features, including another four pages of the great A. D. S. SERIAL ADVERTISEMENT, will make the new size June number of Hearst's International

Most Talked About Magazine in America

HEARST'S International is worth far more than THIRTY FIVE CENTS paid for it by people who don't care for a cheap magazine. You will find a copy on every better-class newsstand. If, by any chance, your newsdealer has not a copy for you, send us this name and address and we shall see that you get it with our compliments. But whatever you do, don't miss
