Wool-and-fiber rugs are especially good for places that are much walked upon and they stand hard wear well. They are in various good-looking patterns and are reversible. They are about the most sightly and durable inexpensive rug made.

What visions of good times these cheery, colorful dresses bring up! Tennis courts, country club verandas, picnics and all the outdoor fun of the vacation months.

And since in every woman's vacation plans clothes play a most important part, it's safe to say that vacations are going to be jollier than ever, since such delightful Summer wardrobes can be assembled for small sums.

Morning Frocks of Gingham and Linene, $3.25 to $8. All the pretty checks one can think of among these fresh new gingham. Materials are of finer quality than any we have seen in a long, long time, and a great many imported gingham are used.

Voile Dresses $3 to $10. A wonderful group of black and navy blue voile dresses with dots of many kinds and sizes. Embroidery or white organdie lightens the collars, and the dress that is sketched at $7 is trimmed with square paillettes of white celluloid and a metal belt. It is in rose, brown or navy, with white dots.

Silk Frocks for Street or Sports Wear Special at $10. Cool striped tub-silk frocks with white organdie collars and cuffs are only $10. Frocks with skirts of printed crepe and bodices of white crepe de chine are ever so youthful. $10. Then there are dark crepes de chine and taffetas in a variety of styles. $10.

Special at $16.50. Simple, well-cut dresses of navy blue crepe de chine or castor crepe are trimmed with self-fogating and pleated side panels. Taffeta dresses are embroidered with silk or trimmed with frills.

Tailored and Frilly Blouses Special at $2.65. This is a manufacturer's clearaway of higher-priced blouses in many seasonable models. Some are slightly mussed from handling and need a pressing, but the low price more than compensates for that.

Certain Fine Coats and Capes Have Had Their Prices Lowered—Now $25 to $55. Between these very moderate prices you may choose among wraps that have been a great deal more. Of bolivia, tricotine-and-charmeuse combinations and of Poiret twill, some with throw scarfs, some heavily fringed, others in belted tailored style with loose sleeves.

Low-Priced Underthings of Silky Plisse Crepe. These are lower prices than usual for underthings of this dainty seersucker crepe of silk-and-cotton in lovely colors: orchid, honeydew, white, pink and light blue.

Couch Hammocks With the Maximum of Safety and Comfort, $10 to $30. That a couch hammock should be safe is the most important point about it. That is why we were so insistent about strong chains and strong EVERYTHING in the making of these hammocks.

Low Shoes for Discriminating Women—$6.50 and $7.50. $6.50 is the price of Mary Jane pumps of black calfskin or patent leather and of oxfords of black patent leather on particularly good lines.

Sample Dresses—Special at $25. Materials in this group are of the kinds usually found only in high-priced dresses. Of most of the dresses there are but two or three of a kind, so choosing is unusually interesting.

Capes and Dolmans Special at $15, $16.50 and $18.75. A variety at each price—velours, checked coatings, two-tone tweeds, serges, tricotines and Poiret twills. Nearly all are silk lined.

Baronet Satin Hats Special at $3.85. Beautiful gleaming baronet—in many shapes and colors—orchid, navy blue, white, black, etc., each lovelier because of the lights and shadows of the material!

Excellent Choosing at $7.50. The pump sketched is of soft tan calfskin, trimmed with lighter tan. Among them are low-heel Mary Jane pumps, in combinations of patent and soft gray leather; plain pumps of satin, patent leather or calfskin with baby French heels, and dress pumps of satin with an instep strap and French heels.

Boys' Sports Oxfords, $4.25. Sizes 1 to 6 (some men can wear these larger sizes) in sports oxfords of cream smoked leather with waistbands of brown leather and fiber soles.

Men's Soundly Good Oxfords at $6.50. They have the lines—correct in every detail. The one sketched is of sturdy tan calfskin. Another, with a perfectly straight tip, is of light tan calfskin, and a third of black calfskin. All have welted soles and broad, flat heels.

All these are low shoes of high grade—real Wanamaker quality in style, leathers and workmanship.
