This Great Rebuilding Sale Teems with Opportunities
Chiefly because the reductions are greater and the savings beyond anything we have offered in years. Handicapped as we are for room, there was nothing else to do to relieve the situation but to mark Furniture down to savings that would move it out. It's going, and going fast, the great values make certain of that.

Because of the enormous demand for Van Sciver Furniture at all times, Suites and Pieces by thousands are constantly moving from our own and the leading factories of the nation to our salesfloors. We could not stop making and buying Furniture because we happen to be erecting a seven-story, four-acre addition to our plant, now going up on the site of seven smaller structures, the use of which we have been suddenly deprived of. That is why the situation got beyond our control—why we are crowded everywhere for room, and, lastly, that is why we had to reduce prices to clear sufficient space for our work.

This handsome Suite, fashioned after the Adam style, with its chaste and classic lines, gives an air of restful distinction to the Bedroom. The ornate details add to the grace and harmony of the group. Here is simple elegance that cannot fail to appeal to the discriminating judge of those fine and exquisite points in Period Furniture. One of hundreds of beautiful Suites priced at incomparable savings.
