what is. The young snakes will be furiouser than ever, as, much to the said snakes' disgust, all the sub-debs are wild about jack, and this will only make them more so. I hear, too, that lots of peo-ple from Philadelphia are going down is see him and that some one expects to give a box party at the show. Perot Whiting has come on from Chicago, where he has been in business, and has been in New York for a week with his brother. He expects to stay East for a while with his family Dr. and Mrs. Whiting will go to their cor-tage at Longport, near Atlantic City, soon. They will give a house party for their sons down there. Perot, who is the oldest, is engaged to Alzada Ennis, of Chicago, you know.

Mr. Price will tell of the plans re-Mr. Price will tell of the plans re-the development of the Schuylkill River banks below the Fairmount Dam. Afterward supper will be served in the portico at 6:30.

FROM New York comes more news about the artificial ice-skating rink at Princeton which is to be erected in memory of Hobart Baker, the former Princeton hockey and football star who was killed in the service of his coun-try. Mrs. Ralph Sanger is chairman of try. Mrs. Ralph Sanger is chairman of rry, Mrs. Ralph Sanger is chairman of a Women's Committee for the Hobart Baker Memorial Fund. Some of the other members of the committee are Mrs. R. W. Bliss, Mrs. William H. Grosker, Mrs. J. Borden Harriman, Mrs. Kermit Roosevelt, Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson, Mrs. Oliver D. Filley, Mrs. Grayson M. P. Murphy and Mrs. Frank L. Polk.

EVERY ONE has been envious to know how Jack Whiting has been etting along in New York in his the-atrical career. I hear that he is doing awfully well and is to appear in the opening performance of the Follies in Atlantic City a week from today. If that isn't exciting, I'd like to know Mrs. R. Alastair McCloud entertained at a small luncheon at her home, 2218 Locust street, last week. The guests included Mrs. Charles Gilpin, Mrs. Wil-liam Coleman Freeman, Mrs. Brinton Lucas, Mrs. Philip Leidy, Mrs. Russell Tucker, Mrs. Theodore C. Voorhees and Mra. F. Coleman Starr. Mr. and Mrs. McCloud and their small daughter, Miss Chiquitica McCloud, will leave on Mon-day next for Cape May, where they have taken a cottage on Stockton avenue, for the summer. Recent Bride
