

Form Shows West Phillie Athletes Should Easily Cop Title

How Does It Strike You?

Pinch Hitting Collegiate Tennis Surprise in Sports

THERE are many ways of starting arguments about baseball. One method that never misses fire is the selection of the most difficult position on the team...

PENN'S HOPE IN HURDLES

George C. Powers, Jr., has been the surprise of the Penn track team this season. Unheralded, he came to the spotlight by winning firsts in the Dartmouth and Cornell dual meets.

SPEEDBOYS PICKED TO WIN IN "QUADS"

Form Dope Shows Germantown High Should Take Second to West Philly

MATHIAS "100" FAVORITE

By PAUL PREP GERMANTOWN HIGH should not win the "Quads" this year! This prediction will take a flock of scholastic deponents by surprise...

According to most of the wise crakers, it is useless to hold the public high school track and field championships...

But these prophets haven't been watching the dual meets closely this season. If they have they have looked and seen...

Germantown without a doubt has a speedy team, but according to past performances the team should finish third.

Mahias Favorite The Clivedens are figured to score 9 points in the 100-yard dash...

West Philadelphia is dotted to garner 33 points in the 440-yard run, with Dutton, Jackson and Offenhausser finishing first, second and third...

The Speedboys in all likelihood will get 10 more points in the 800-yard run. Offenhausser looks best, with Dutton second and Oldfield fifth...

West Philadelphia is dotted to garner 33 points in the 440-yard run, with Dutton, Jackson and Offenhausser finishing first, second and third...

McClain, West Philadelphia, the champion, appears to lead the shot putters. Weeks, Frankford; Styler, Southern; Summers, Frankford; and Laughon, West Philadelphia, also will probably pick up points.

Broad Jump Uncertain Then comes the broad jump. This event is an uncertainty, as Matthias, Germantown star, has been slipping. However, if he jumps at his best he should win...

Moorestown Clinches South Jersey Title Ninth Straight Victory is Sensational 4-3 Eleven-Inning Triumph

The Moorestown High School baseball team virtually clinched the championship of the South Jersey High Schools by defeating Collingswood High, 4 to 3, in a sensational eleven-inning victory.

It marked the ninth successive triumph for Moorestown. Previous to the game both teams had eliminated all rivals. Moorestown has numbered among its victims some of the best teams in New Jersey.

Potts has developed into one of the best hurlers that has ever represented Moorestown, and Bond, Brodie, Johnson and Kensler make up an infield which is envied by all teams.
